

THE WINNERS FOR '92

For President: BENJAMIN HARRISON. For Vice-President: WHITELAW REID. For Presidential Electors at Large: W. B. BRADICH, I. M. RAYMOND.

Republican Representative Convention. The republican electors of the Fifty fourth Congress are requested to send delegates from their several counties to meet at Omaha, Neb., Wednesday, August 17th, 1922, at 10 o'clock p. m.

THE republicans of Nebraska have nominated a ticket over which all elements can enthuse to the fullest measure.

THE republicans of Nebraska have nominated a ticket over which all elements can enthuse to the fullest measure. And the enthusiasm developed is what what will continue C. Harlequin VanWyck in the condition of "inocuous desuetude" to which he was relegated but a short time ago by people who have discovered his hypocrisy and Janna-faced methods in advance of his misguided followers.

CHROMATOPSEUDOPUSIS is the medical term for a malignant affection of the eyes and statistics show that men are much more chromato-psudopistic than women.

THE democratic rainbow is shooting about in such a fashion this year that it had better be called an aurora borealis. First it hovers over Illinois, then over Kansas and next is heard from in Minnesota, Michigan or Wisconsin.

YEARS ago, before he joined the independent party, we used to think that Judge Snelling's statements were strictly accurate; but of late we begin to think his reputation for truth and veracity has suffered on account of his present political affiliations.

GOVERNOR BOYD has declined to be a candidate, but he has not declined to accept the nomination. The fact that he is not a candidate is believed to be one reason why many have commenced to solicit him.

THE great democratic victory won in Alabama over the independents proves what all sensible men predicted, that the third or independent party has not a ghost of a show in the south, and that the whole southern third party racket is only kept up in order to encourage the independent movement in the north by inducing the former republicans in that party to throw away their votes for the benefit of democracy, which is anxious to see the election thrown into the democratic house.

MR. CLEVELAND'S public suggestion that it isn't necessary to base democratic attacks on the protective tariff upon questions of constitutional permission or legislative "power" is in the nature of criticism on the action of this year's democratic national convention, which did that very thing. It is also an indication that he has been advised by the members of his campaign cabinet, one or two of whom are pretty good lawyers, that in affirming the unconstitutionality of all protective tariffs the democratic party has put its foot in it even deeper than usual.

FIAT money with half the purchasing power of present money, if in circulation to the extent of $50 per capita, would make fifty cent wheat worth $1 per bushel, and at the same time double the value of every necessary of life the farmer would be compelled to buy. Then the really honest farmer could sell 1,000 bushels of wheat and pay $500 indebtedness which he contracted when money had twice the purchasing power it did before the currency was inflated.

WHEN VanWyck was in the senate he was "in it" with "Plato" Jay Gould and Vanderbilt for booty; and this is how they made it. Van introduced a bill to compel the U. P. to cede back to the government certain lands which that company had forfeited. Down went U. P. R. stock. Then Van and his partners, Gould and Vanderbilt, loaded up. Van then withdrew the bill and up went U. P. stock, and then those three crows unloaded and they made millions out of the deal.

CONGRESSMAN KEM has blossomed out as a full fledged railroad hand. He evidently thinks he is serving his last term and is "making hay while the sun shines." A Washington correspondent reports his actions as follows: Representative Kem has amazed everybody in Washington by becoming the staunch supporter of railroad interests. The other day he voted in favor of the Compton bill incorporating the Maryland & Washington railroad in which was a provision allowing the company to bond the road to the extent of ten per cent above its cost.

AS for any systematic revision of the McKinley law, it has not been attempted. The democratic party is not capable of the work. Mr. Cleveland is as incompetent to draw a tariff reform bill as he was six years ago, when he confessed he did not know a thing about it. The house has not dared to touch the great sugar question. There is talk about war tax. Is free sugar war tax? Mr. Springer was figured out that free sugar is very costly. Well, does he propose to impose a tax? No democratic has answered the question what he cares to do with sugar. Mr. Cleveland has not done it—Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

THE democratic gerrymander robbery schemes in Wisconsin and Michigan have been declared unconstitutional by the supreme courts of those states. The chief justice of Michigan, in his decision, spoke in no uncertain tones of this "attempted bare-faced fraud and steal."

THE circuit court of New York will soon declare the gerrymander in that state unconstitutional, it is believed. And so it goes on. Theft, robbery, forgery, and murder. And still you will find respectable people all over the land voting the democratic ticket year after year.

J. D. CALHOUN, of the Lincoln Herald, labored long and faithfully for a fusion of the democratic and independent parties, but has finally become thoroughly disgusted with the disgraceful fight and scramble among the mouth-farmers of the alliance for the leaves and fishes that he throws them overboard.

TWO years ago and now. Two years ago, while the campaign was in progress the following notice was officially published: HEADQUARTERS INDEPENDENT PEOPLE'S PARTY, Lincoln, October 18, 1920.

Persons who have young children will be interested in the presence of Alex. Moir, a prominent druggist at Britt, Iowa. He says: "During the summer of 1882, my little girl, two years of age, was taken so seriously ill with summer complaint, so common to children of that age. After being treated by a physician and getting no relief, I took from my shelves a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. She felt relieved after the first dose, and in three days was entirely well." Sold by A. F. Streitz, druggist.

CLEVELAND'S blundering. Candidate Cleveland's proneness to blunder seems to be incurable. He blundered in the trade at the close of his administration with all the fervor of a new convert who had just read up the elementary principles of political economy.

VanWyck as an Anti-Monopolist. From Holden's Liberty (Ind.). On the 23rd day of Feb'y 1898, Hon. C. VanWyck, U. S. senator for Nebraska, and at that time one of the loudest-mouthed anti-monopolists, and most fierce and undaunted advocate of the utter annihilation of such "robber corporations" as the U. P. road, introduced a bill in the senate to give to the Union Pacific railway company, all the money which had been accumulated under the Thurman act with which to pay their indebtedness to the general government.

Every family should be provided with some reliable medicine for bowel complaints. A fair trial will convince anyone that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is without an equal; besides it is pleasant to take. 35 and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. F. Streitz, druggist.

HARRISON'S Patriotic Conduct. The president's prompt action in the matter of the Idaho riots will meet with the approval of the whole country. It furnishes fresh assurance that law and order will be upheld, society preserved and life and property protected under his administration, no matter what the circumstances may be or how plainly selfish interest may point to a policy of negation.—Washington Post.

Why Democrats Hate McKinley's Bill. It is no wonder the Democrats hate the McKinley law. It has proved that every prediction they made about it was false. It has increased our export trade instead of decreasing it; increased our free imports instead of shutting out trade; and finally it has chased down prices and raised wages. The law is its own vindication.—New York Press.

A Democratic Man's Nest. The Boston Globe sneers at the Republican party because the McKinley law imposes a tax on foreign made books, including Bibles. American printers and bookbinders will not agree with the Globe that this is an unchristian evil. And do Bibles cost more here than abroad? Is any American too poor to buy one?—Albany Journal.

Wasted Democratic Boodle. A good deal of Democratic money is to be thrown into the canvass in the western states, and after the election the party will mourn for it also. The president's prompt action in the matter of the Idaho riots will meet with the approval of the whole country. It furnishes fresh assurance that law and order will be upheld, society preserved and life and property protected under his administration, no matter what the circumstances may be or how plainly selfish interest may point to a policy of negation.—Washington Post.

IN America only 200,000 persons were affected by strikes and lockouts in 1920, as against double that number in England, while our population is nearly twice as large.—New York Recorder.

It is admitted by all that the trouble at Homestead was the result of a decline in the price of steel. Free trade, the democratic papers say, will chop steel still further, for that is what they mean when they say that protection raises the prices. The question is, how many strikes would follow free trade? Workmen who resist a few reductions under protection would hardly submit to reductions of 50 per cent. under English free trade.—Iowa State Register.

Mr. Whitney seems to have accomplished a good deal during his short stay at Gray Gables. He induced Mr. Cleveland to let him take back to New York's message. The voice is Grover's, but the hand is the hand of Whitney. Cleveland's friends, according to this message, must be kind to Tammany, and Tammany is promised, in case Mr. Cleveland is elected, his fair share of the federal patronage of New York.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

It will increase the Lead. The Democratic boast that Illinois will be the battle ground of the canvass will serve merely to make the Republican lead in the state larger than it has been in any recent presidential year.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

H. C. RENNIE Is Not Selling Out! WE ARE HERE TO STAY. We will meet any price that is made by any man who pretends to be selling out. We offer HANDSOME NEW GOODS to our trade and guarantee them not to be have been purchased by us more than nine years ago. Our trade is increasing and our friends are legion. YOU MAY NEED Additional Lawn Hose before the Summer is over, and we desire to call your attention to the fact that our stock embraces several grades, and the prices on the same are away down. This hot weather naturally suggests something cool—ice cream, for instance. Why not make your own? We have a nice line of freezers which we are offering low. They range in size from half gallon up. The flies are getting very numerous, and if your screens are worn out these pestiferous insects are sure to get into your house and annoy you. We handle a good quality of wire cloth and sell it at such figures that you cannot afford to use your old screens for the sake of saving the small cost of new ones.

A Case of "Hess and Hess." There being some difference among Democratic newspapers as to which is the bigger man on the Democratic national ticket, "Cleveland" and "Stevenson" might submit the subject to arbitration.—New York Press.

Signs of the Times. The wind destroyed the Democratic wigwag in Chicago and the Frankie Folson sank at Peoria. How can the Democrats have any more hopes in this campaign, least of all of carrying Illinois?—Omaha Bee.

Another Missing Letter. Hill may have mislaid a letter from Cleveland too.—New York Press.

Boles Is Sawing Wood. Boles is keeping ominously silent. He is glad now that the nomination went to somebody else.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
