Another Chinese Scheme. Washington June 6.—It has been discovered by the treasury department lack of food. As it was, there was much that the Chinese in many instances have severe suffering, and the effect will be been using affidavits of authentication which, under the law, are given Chinese merchants who desire temporarily to leave this country for illegitimate purposes. The consul at Hong Kong, to whom some of them were submitted, discovered that the persons having them had never been in this country. These papers were issued at Boston, and the collector at that port was instructed to
