We may live without learning, We may live without books. But civilized man Cannot live without cooks.

Nor can a cook live without an ACORN Range, which renders perfect cooking an absolute certainty.

$3.00 Pants.

5.50 Pants.

3.50 Pants.

6.00 Pants.

4.00 Pants.

6.50 Pants.

8.00 Pants. 9.00 Pants.

C. M. NEWTON.

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW,

Office over North Platte National Bank.

LAWYER,

Office: Hinman Block, Spruce Street.

Assistant Surgeon Union Pacific Railway and Member of Pension Board, Office over Streitz's Drug Store.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,

$50 REWARD

By virtue of the laws of the State of Nebraska I hereby offer a reward of Fifty Dollars for the capture and conviction of any person charged with horse stealing in Lincoln county.

H. S. BOAL,

Insurance

Life and Accident Co's.

GEO. NAUMAN'S

SIXTH STREET

MARKET.

at J. E. Evans' Book Store.

ORIMES & WILCOX,

H. CHURCH,

DR. N. F. DONALDSON,

WM. EVES, M. D.,

4.50 Pants.

7.00 Pants.

5.00 Pants.

Here we are again with the sale of the Celebrated lines of Everything New.

REPAIRING DONE PROMPTLY.

A. L. DAVIS

LAND OFFICE NOTICES.

Come in and let us smile on

HEATING STOVES.

ACORN COOK AND

you. We make the Price.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. Land Office at North Platte, Neb., }
September 13th, 1893.
Notice is hereby given that the followingnamed settler has filed notice of his intention named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at North Platte, Neb., on October 28th, 1893, viz: Frederick Koehn, who made Homestead Entry No. 14,592, for the west half of the northwest quarter and the west half of the southwest quarter of section 22, township 13 north, range 32 west. He names the following witnesses to proves his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: Ernst Teletz, Frederick Hubner, Henry Curtis and Fred Wendeborn, all of North Platte, Nebraska.

376

A. S. BALDWIN, Register

LEGAL NOTICES.

SHERIFF'S SALE By virtue of an order of sale, issued by W. C. Nebraska, upon a judgment rendered in said court in favor of The Nebraska Loan and Trust Compa-ny and against William Grady and Charlotte Grady, et. al., I have levied upon the following real estate as the property of said William Grady 7.50 Pants. and Charlotte Grady, et, al., to-wit: Lot fifteen (15) and sixteen (16) of the Lutheran sub-division of lots seven (7) and eight (8) of block one hundred and fifteen (115), in the City of North Platte, Nebraska, and I will on the North Platte, Nebraska, and I will on the 25th day of October, 1893, at one o'clock p. m. of said day, at the east front door of the court house in North Platte, sell said real estate at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, to satisfy said order of sale, the amount due thereon in the aggregate being the sum of $6.815.11 and I have the agency for the above and samples of the cloth can be seen 140.68 costs and accruing costs, on said decrees Dated at North Platte, Neb., this 19th day of September, 1893.

D. A. BAKER,

Sheriff of Lincoln County, Neb. SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of an order of sale, issued by W. C. NORTH PLATTE, - - NEBRASKA. Elder, clerk of the district court of Lincoln county, Nebraska, upon decrees rendered by said court in I have levied upon the following described real estate as the property of the said W. C. Lemon and Annie M. Lemon, et. al., to-wit: Lot two (2), in block one hundred and eighty-two (182), in the City of North Platte, Lincoln county WORTH PLATTE, . . . NEBRASKA, Nebraska, and I will on the 25th day of October, 1893, at one o'clock p. m. of said day, at the east front door of the court house of said county, in North Platte, Nebras kn, sell said real estate at public auction, t the highest bidder, for cash, to satisfy said orde of sale, the amount due thereon in the aggregate being the sum of $250.47, and $16.78 costs, and NORTH PLATTE, - - NEBRASKA Dated at North Platte, Neb., this 19th day o

D. A. BAKER, Sheriff of Lincoln County, Nebrask ORDER OF HEARING ON ORIGINAL PROBATE OF WILL, NORTH PLATTE, - - NEBRASKA Office: Neville's Block. Diseases of Women

> At a county court, held at the county cour room, in and for said county. Sept. 23d, 1863. Present, James M. Ray, County Judge. In the matter of the estate of Alexander Eng and, deceased.
> On reading and filing the petition of Alfred Eng land, praying that the instrument filed on the 23d day of September, 1893, and purporting to be the last will and testament of the said deceased, may

D. A. BAKER, Sheriff he proved, approved, allowed and recorded as the last will and testament of the said Alexander Eng land, deceased, and that the execution of said in strument may be committed and the administra ion of said estate may be granted to Mary Eng land as executor.
Ordered, that October 13th, 1893, at one o'clock p. m., is assigned for hearing said petition, when all persons interested in said matter may appear and show cause why the prayer of petitioner should not be granted; and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the NORTH PLATTE TRI JAMES M. RAY. Agent for best line of Fire,

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of an order of sale issued by W. C. El der, clerk of the district court of Lincoln county Nebraska, upon a decree of foreclosure ren dered in said court in favor of B. F. Hutchinson dered in said court in favor of B. F. Hutchinson and against Martin Russell and Mary J. Russell, et al., I have levied upon the following described real estate as the property of the said Martin Russell and Mary J. Russell, et al., to-wit: The northwest (N W qr) of section twenty-eight (28), township sixteen (16), range twenty-six (26), in Lincoln county, Nebraska, and I will on the 28th day of October, 1893, at one o'clock p. m. of said day, at the east front door of the Court-house of said county. In North Platte, Nebraska, sell of said county, in North Platte, Nebraska, sell said real estate at public auction to the highest bidder for cash to satisfy said order of sale, the Meats at wholesale and reamount due thereon in the aggregate being the sum of $609.71, and $28.73 costs, and probable increase costs, with interest, on said decrees. Dated at North Platte, Neb., this 26th day of tail. Fish and Game in Sausage at all

D.A. BAKER, Sheriff of Lincoln county, Nebraska

Nebraska, upon a decree and judgment rendered by said court in favor of The Globe Investment Company and against John Wolf and Charlotte Wolf et. al., I have levied upon the following described real estate as the property of the said John Wolf and Charlotte Wolf, et. al., to-wit: The southeast quarter (S. E. qr.) of the southwest (S. W. qr.) and the south half (S hf) of the southeast

w. qr) and the south half (8 hf) of the southeast quarter (8 E qr) and the northeast quarter (N E qr) of the southeast quarter [8 E qr] of section twenty-one [21], township sixteen [16], north of range twenty-six [26] west of the 6th P. M. and I will on the 28th day of October, 1893, at one o'clock p. m. of said day, at the east front door of the Court house of said county, in North Platte, Nebraska, sell said real estate at public auction, to the highes-bidder for cash, to satisfy said order of sale

the amount due thereon in the aggregate being the sum of $731.70, and $16.53 costs, and probable judgment.

Dated at North Platte, Neb., this 26th day tain mortgage executed by Michael Kornidas and wife to the Nebraska & Kansas Farm Loan Com-section twenty-seven township nine north, range thirty west of sixth P. M., Lincoln county, Ne-1894, with interest from date at seven per cen until maturity, and ten per cent thereafter.

By A. H. Kipp, Her Attorney

Granulated Eve Lids, Sore Nipples, Piles,

25 cents per box. For sale by druggists.

TO HORSE OWNERS.

dition try Dr. Cady's Condition Powders.

They tone up the system, aid digestion, cure

loss of appetite, relieve constipation, correct

new life to an old or over worked horse. 25 cents per package. For sale by druggists

For putting a horse in a fine healthy con-

CATHABINE PHILIP.

D. A. BAKER, Sheriff of Lincoln county, Nebraska

times. Cash paid for Hides.

NORTH PLATTE Marble Works.

W. C. RITNER,

Monuments, Headstones, Curbing, Building Stone, And all kinds of Monumental and Cemetery Work. Careful attention given to lettering of every description. Jobbing done on short notice. Orders solicited and estimates freely given.

OF ALL KINDS, Farm and Spring Wagons, Buggies, Road Carts,
Said notes and coupons and the mortgage securing the same are the property of the plaintiff.

Wind Mills, Pumps, Barb

Wire, Etc. Locust Street, between Fifth and Sixth

CLAUDE WEINGAND, defered and from all right, title, interest and equity of redemption in and to said premises. You are required to answer said petition on or before November 13, 1893.

DEALER IN

Crude Petroleum and Coal Gas Tar.

Leave orders at Evans' Book Store.

The high-toned ethics of Brethren White and Gilder was marked as "not wanted" at the white house. The president lives squrely up to all $50,000 contracts of 1892.

Captain Sweeney, U. S, A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cts. Sold by North Platte Pharmacy.

Georgia farmers are alarmed at the destruction of their cotton by caterpillars. The worms have made their appearance by millions in some What's the difference between a goo boy and an elephant? Why, good boys always take Haller's Sure Cure Cough Syrup and elephants don't. For sale by F. H. Longley.

If Seymour, the trance man wants so badly to be buried for ninety days, why doesn't he get himself nominated on the prohibition ticket? Shiloh's Vitalizer is what you need for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Yellow Skin or Kidney Trouble. It is guaranteed to give you satisfaction. Price 75c. Sold by North Platte Pharmacy.

Senator Voorhees as a leader is a good deal like the tender-foot hunter in the Sierras who "followed a grizzly track and quit it because the track was growing fresh.'

Helen of Troy Was a famous beauty; coming down to the present time we find a clear complexion, as essential to correct beauty Haller's Sarsaparilla and Burdock Compound will produce a beautiful clear skin, For sale by F. H. Longley.

"Greece had nothing like it observed ex-speaker Reed, nor had Rome, and I doubt if its like will world's fair.

Rather Steep Than take in any other form is wha many people think and Parks' Tea i made for just those folks. It cares con supation and though not a cathartic North Platte Pharmacy.

Several men fired at a cougar favor of The First National Bank of Chicago and against W. C. Lemon and Annie M. Lemon, et. al., brought it down dead at the first discharge.

> A High Liver Usually has a bad liver. He is bilious constipated, has indigestion and dyspepsia. If there is no organic trouble a few doses of Parks' Sure Cure will tone him up. kidney cure we sell on a positive guarantee. Price $1.00. Sold by North Platte Pharmacy.

The ways and means committee of congress are in the cellar with the blinds pulled down, and bus at work smashing the tariff. Go i statesmen at an early date.

Has been so highly recommended to u that we have taken the agency for it and the better bear the severity of the attire now ask our friends who are suffering that strength rather than beauty is thet; with a cold to give it a trial and if it does not give satisfaction your money will b refunded. Every bottle is sold on a positive guarantee. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Sold by North Platte Pharmacy.

The vonthful appearance of Mr Eckels, comptroller of the currency has frequently caused him annoyance on his travels. At a Milwaukee hotel recently he was mistaker occasions people have expressed disappointment when he appeared. some mistake.

How would you like to be a kangaroo or be able to jump like one, but you've got piles so bad you can't. Use Haller's Australian Salve and you'll get there For sale by F. H. Longley.

The New York Herald has locked horns with Professor St. George Minart on the subject of "Happiness in Hell." Congressman Bryan point at issue, and if he declines to vance an intelligent idea on the very perplexing problem. How iit, Rosey, do you feel pretty good ing or individuality. when you don't?

A Sound Liver Makes a Well Man. Are you Billious, Constipated troubled with Jaundice, Sick Headache Bad Taste in Mouth, Foul Breath, Coated Shoulders, Chills and Fever, &c. If It has no equal as a liver medicine. Price 75 cents. Free trial bottles at A. F.

There are twenty-seven rupublican senators who have at all times stood ready to vote to repeal the sylvania was passed to meet decisions Hershey & Co.

Michael Kornidas, Susan Kornidas and Henry Clarke, trusiee, defendants will take notice that on the 18th day of September, 1893, Catherine Philip plaintiff herein, filed her petition in the district court of Lincoln county, Nebraska, the prayer and object of which are to foreclose a cerprayer and object of which ar ure, could long ago have passed it tion, as well as to meet the demand for Globe-Democrat, signed "Ruhamah," without the aid of twenty-seven larger freedom over their estates by were for years a leading feature of the republican votes.

pany upon the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter and the north half of the southeast quarter and the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter braska, which said mortgage was given to secure the payment of one certain promissory note of the said Michael Kornidas and Susan Kornidas dated July 17, 1889, for the sum of $500.00 due July 1, Remedy a specific for croup. It is son to acquire, use, lease and dispose of very pleasant to take, which is one property, but she may not mortgage or of the most important requisites convey her real estate unless her husband where a cough remedy is intended in writing or otherwise which is necesfor use among children. I have sarily appropriate, convenient or advanknown of cases of croup where I tageous to the exercise or enjoyment of the plaintiff from the defendants Michael Kornidas and Susan Kornidas upon said notes and mortgage, and for taxes paid upon said premises the sam of $735.20 with interest at ten per cent from July 1, 1893. For which sum plaintiff prays judgment and know the life of a little one was her rights of property, but she may not saved by the use of Chamberlain's become accommodation indorser, maker. Cough Remedy." J. J. LaGrange, guarantor or surety for another. for a decree that the defendants be required to pay the same or that said premises be sold to satisfy the amount found due plaintiff. And for a further decree foreclosing and barring each and all of said druggist, Avoca, Neb. 50 cent bottles for sale by A. F. Streitz and North Platte Pharmacy.

Upon mature deliberation Mr. Coal Oil, Gasoline, Granulated Eye Lids, Sore Apples, Flies, chance to try conclusions with Tobe Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum and Scald Head, Castor's little black book. Some people do know when they are beaten.

> WANTED: 37 men wanted at F. H. Longley's drug kidney disorders and destroy worms, giving store next Monday morning, to buy bottle of Haller's Barb Wire Liniment, is absolutely guaranteed.

CURE

*About seven or eight months was attacked by a cough, and at began to take a medicine much a tised as an expectorant, and continusing it until I had taken about six bottles. Instead of giving me relief, it only made me worse. I tried several other remedies, but all in vain, and I don't think I had three whole nights' rest during my illness. I began to think that

Consumption

it otherwise, and I must say ingagements have changed the Evening Telegraph has be a seek in sending my letter seek in sending my letter aspirations of mine to return the lawys a vision o had laid hold of me, and my hopes of recovery were all gone. I was a mere skeleton, but a friend of mine, who had been some time away, called to see me. He recommended me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and kindly sending me a bottle, I took it, but with little hopes of recovery. I am thankful, however, to say that it cured me, and I am to-day enjoying the best of health."-J. Wilmot Payne, Monrovia, Liberia.

Consumption

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Prompt to act, sure to cure

WOMAN'S WORLD.

A CRITICISM OF ORGANIZED ATTEMPT AT DRESS REFORM.

Pennsylvania and Women-Lucy Hooper

Last Letter-A Notable Russian Woman

Which Would You Rather Be?-Womes Iron Workers-Let In the Sun. If short dresses are worn, there must the aggression and pulling the wires.

Mr. Gladstone himself belonged to the be a reform in the interests of womanliness and grace. If long gowns obtain, a reform must be instituted in favor of have some deep design in hand in send-health and cleanliness. When skirts ex- ing such an emissary to the other side of pand, statesmen shout for a reform that | the Atlantic, which will not be explained will secure sufficient standing room for by the fact that a Russian squadron is the nation. When they cling, the cry is to have its headquarters at New York. ever be seen again." He might have still reform for the sake of modesty. By Society will miss her in London, but the been talking of the United States no ingenuity can fashion contrive a initials of "O. K." will not perhaps quite senate, but he was referring to the platform that reform is not anxious to disappear from the columns of the Engknock from beneath her. A year or two ago popular reform took the shape of a "business woman's dress," although why business women should be any readier than anybody else to ticket themselves by wearing a special style in tinguished for her good looks, on a subsupation and though not a cathartic moves the bowels every day. Sold by and others to support, she has quite limitations enough created by her circum- has a national reputation and could afstances not to submit to an artificial re- ford to answer truly the question put to striction in so personal a matter as that her. which had been treed near Five- of her wardrobe. The women most Mile lake in Washington the other publicly in favor of a reformed attire for day, but failed to hit it. Finally a working women were ladies who them- or beautiful?" Mrs. Glover asked to be allowed to selves had little to do except theorize in take a shot at the beast, and she their drawing rooms. It did not seem to the mere lifting of the eyes a beautiful occur to them that their sisters less fortunately situated might object to adopt ... feet." ing a class uniform which would accent | Said No. 2: "Beautiful-because beau-lilies of the field. One of the oddest among the late freaks of reform is the trousers conven- Said No. 3: "Beautiful—because fame, tion at Chicago, as if the gathering togeth- fortune, adulation, lovely gifts, social Parks' Sure Cure is the only liver and er of a few coquettish experimenters in prominence, all come to the woman who er of a few coquettish experimenters in costume could have any appreciable influence over women at large in making them sacrifice their own fancies and requirements in the way of dress. Trousers are convenient, but at their best dead, but beauty gets its tribute now. they give a woman the look of a sour Even laureled heads turn away from the brette; at their worst—that is, when she | smart woman to do reverence to the one is middle aged and stout—they rob her of | who is beautiful."—New York Commerwhile you are young. It is your her mature dignity and render her a cial Advertiser. only chance. The people will take laughing stock. The grace and statelianother chance at the Washington ness bestowed by flowing garments is universally recognized-witness the robes of office and church vestures worn by men. Although the latter adopt trousers as their ordinary dress, they can > natural adornment. The skirt lends a dignitate wome shorter stature and softer outlines that she can ill afford to lose, and she will in hammered ironwork were shown, probably continue to wear it, despite the such as vases, lanterns, hinges, locks, reformers, as long as she retains the æsthetic instincts and reserve which are characteristic of the majority of her sex.

The advocates of still another scheme of reform earnestly recommended the costume of their invention on the ground for a messenger boy, and on other that it "completely concealed the form" without seeming to realize that their movement was retrograde instead of progressive. Why not at once declare because they thought there must be in favor of the dress of the women of the harem, who never appear in public unless they are completely veiled from head to foot?

In a land where women are admitted to have not only soul, but intellect, and are therefore respected, there can be no possible reason for muffling the figure out of all semblance to womanhood, and reformers who are guilty by implication of such disrespect will never have a large following. Garments are worn for warmth and covering, and what beauty they possess is mainly borrowed from is now in a position to settle the the body which they cover and which is the reason of their being. Conceal by talk perhaps Rosewater could ad- drapery all indication of its shape and movement, and there remains merely a ennial mustiness and gloom which perclumsy mass of cloth, devoid of mean-

The absurdities and distortions of dress are greatly to be condemned as sins against the principles of hygiene, therefore against those of beauty, but it is not | wide the windows in the early morning, necessary to wear startling or hideous | and let heaven's air sweep through your garments in order to be clothed health-Tongue, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Hot Dry fully. A woman of sense and artistic then close them, but only partially, Skin, Pain in Back and between the perception can dress conveniently and through the hottest part of the day. becomingly without departing so far | Think of the moral effect of the dungeon have any of these symptoms, your Liver from the reigning mode as to make her- gloom of these hermetically sealed rooms is out of order, and your blood is slowly self conspicuous, and women will no being poisoned, because your Liver does | doubt keep on exercising their own taste not act properly. Hereine will cure any disorder of the Liver, Stomach or Bowels. that can be called by your annual of the carpets that can be called by young and pretty enthusiasts.—Isabella Proctor in New much the brighter. The sanitary proper-York Advertiser.

Pennsylvania and Women.

The new married woman's law of Pennmarried women. The act provides that paper. Afterward she visited Alaska married women may have the same "I consider Chamberlain's Cough | right and power as an unmarried per-She may sue and be sued civilly, but she may not sue her husband except for divorce or to protect or recover her separate property when deserted or refused support, and he may sue her for divorce servatory, Mile. Bailet, a little woman Bryan has decided not to become an when deserted by her, but she shall not out and out populist right away. be arrested for her torts. In suits be-Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment He will stay in the democratic party tween husband and wife both shall be Is a certain cure for Chronic Sore Eyes, nominally until he has another competent witnesses, but cannot testify chance to try conclusions with Tobe to the confidential communications unless by agreement. She may dispose by will of all her property, but the husband's right as tenant by courtesy shall > not be affected. Lucy Hooper's Last Letter. And now, my kind and patient readers, I must stop and lay down the pen forever. By the time these lines appear the author, has dictated them to her amanuer dear daughter, will be beyond the st

FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

A Child's Charmed Life. Chubby cheeked Lena Sheustine, years old, whose parents live at 1230 Hope

t otherwise, and I must say

LUCY H. HOOPER.

"God bless us every one!"

Philadelphia Telegraph.

through the press.

A Notable Russian Woman.

being minimized to the British public, it was Mme. de Novikoff who was behind some members of the English press, inspiring them with information, coloring circle of her select friends. Russia must lish press.—London Correspondent.

The question was this:

Which Would You Rather Be?

Women Iron Workers.

the examples shown.

sequently an absence of grime.

of the moment has developed into a means of making money.-New York

Let In the Sun.

A little more sun worship on the part

American housewives would make the

in through your opened windows.

much the brighter. The sanitary proper-ciated.-New York Recorder.

ties of sunlight are not sufficiently appre-

A Hustling Woman Worker.

Miss E. R. Scidmore began newspaper work some 15 years ago, and took a lead-ington. Her letters to the St. Louis and wrote descriptive letters and a book about that then slightly known country.

adelphia Times.

nt women correspondents at Wash-

street, is believed by the neighbors to bear a charmed life, and her mother bebe attended with death.

acquainted with me personally, have written me kind letters and spoken of me kindly; to my dear old home, I say farewell. Every one has been very kind to me, and mine has been a happy life, but it is ended now, and, like Tiny Tim in "The Christmas Carol," I can only say. noon Lena's mother took the child up to the third story to let her take the usual midday nap. Mrs. Shenstine placed her little one on the bed and tucked in the

Mrs. Hooper died on Aug. 81, only two days after the date of the above letter .-The Russian lady who owns the well known initials "O. K.," in other words. Olga de Kireff, or still in other words, Mme. de Novikoff, is about to leave London and take up her residence in America. She has been something more than a Russian political enthusiast. She has had a political mission, and has exercised in political circles in London a wide political influence. It has not exactly been an influence felt or seen, as it were, above ground. It has worked silently, widely and in a subterranean way, more even than by public agitation or directly Often when the doings of Russia were the yard to continue the washing. About ture of evildoers. However, even at 10 minutes later Mrs. Shenstine heard a these grewsome times, the boys admitted little noise on the pavement near her, but was so busy that she did not turn around. A minute later she felt a tug at her skirts. She looked, and there was little Lena with a frightened look. "Mudder, I fell out of the window. was all that the child said.

and little Lena's story was verified.

but found only a bruise on the fleshy part of the body. Mrs. Shenstine sent for Dr. Beatty, as the child began crying. The physician could find no bones broken, but advised the mother to send Lena to Recently the writer of this interviewed four literary women, none of them dis-St. Mary's hospital, which was done. At the hospital last night one of the physicians said that Lena would recover, Each woman in her own peculiar line as she was only suffering from the shock.

The child was prattling all day yesterday

"Which would you rather be, smart

the difference between them and the ty's mantle is larger than charity's. It covers social gaucheries, ignorance and

you. But the elephant is made of wood,

The importance, which several art classes gave last winter to the designing and serious study of ornamental iron work shows that another new field has opened for the woman worker, and that there are few occupations left in which has not a finger in the pie.

wring the Israen exhibition in Lonuon a number of very charming things etc., and their simple construction fired the ambition of a few artistic women to make an attempt to reproduce some of Their attempts met with so much success that a perfect craze for the work be-any president in the White House. you all call her, must be in a great state write. Most of the fashionable amateurs naturally took up only the lighter form, the of excitement over this new sister. Some "bent ironwork." This requires but a day she will begaas a great favor the few simple tools and no forge, with conprivilege of sitting on one of her little "Bent ironwork" became immensely popular in England in a little while, and lievo that the president will ever have as the simplest articles made from it are > there would be no bowing of pride in Lapland Children. In the Lapland village at the World's fair are several babies. Mes Daniel Mor- ly I love my boy." tonson is the youngest. His age is 6 months, and he was born in Lapland, in a curious earth hut like that wherein he posted up in all that Jack was doing and suffering and winning. "She is my be-atmosphere of our houses healthier and more agreeable. In the middle of the day, during the heated term and the fly season, there is some excuse for a darkened room, but there is none for the pervade the best room of many homes. It is more unhealthful and unclean than all the microbes and dust that could come Draw back the draperies, and throw houses and heaven's sun sweeten them; upon the disposition of your family. Once the summer is over, catch all the his days as well as nights. His mother, a fair faced woman, makes things as easy for him as possible by keeping visitors from intruding on his slumbers, if not on his waking hours. There are three other children in the Mortonson family, and in a nearby hut is another your folly in having engaged yourself." baby, a girl this time, the daughter of "I shall marry him as soon as this ing position among the corps of intelli-Margareta Kross. It seems remarkable that children can live and thrive in the close atmosphere of the Lapland huts, but so they do, and grow hardy men second concerto of Chopin. Miss Ackerman's Fest. Miss Eugenie B. Hedden of Norfolk, a bedridden invalid, lately won the prize offered by a New York daily newspaper for the handsomest design for an outing suit and for the most beautiful idea for an Easter hat. You cannot be out of style if your skirt trimming describes vandyke points.

Hairdressing remains just the same.

The outlook in trimming is literally beieged with points on waist, sleeves and

And peep like tricksy elves above the rim.

lieves that her child's star of destiny is bright and twinkles with good fortune. At any rate little Lena accomplished a feat that ordinarily would be thought to This is the story of the affair: Tuesday covers. She then closed the shutters of one window-that nearest to the bed. The shutters of the other window were bowed. But Lena's mother thought that there was no necessity for closing them.

The mother went down stairs and into

Mrs. Shenstine was bewildered with fright. She could scarcely believe it, but gree. one of the neighbors who happened to be up stairs in her own home and had seen the child fall, called to Mrs. Shenstine, The two women examined the child, about her mishap.—Philadelphia Press. Narrow Escape of the Elephant. There was a fire at Coney Island a lit tle while ago, and the big elephant almost burned up. His legs were scorched, rubber blankets to keep it from being burned. While all this was going on only when the flames were put out did previously, and his colonel had menthe big elephant stood stock still, and he seem to heave a sigh of relief. Through all the excitement he remained motion-Now this may seem very strange to so you cannot expect him to show a great deal of emotion. He is the big fellow who stands upon the bench at Coney Island, inviting you to walk up inside of his legs and his trunk and take a view of the island. Ilis name is Jumbe, and his age is just 9 years. He has never grown any since he was built, but he has changed his coat every spring, when new paint has been put upon him. People out on the ocean who had nev er seen the wooden Jumbo were very much alarmed when the fire swept across Coney Island because they thought the elephant was alive and that he would burn up. But when they heard that he was only made of wood, they enjoyed the sight greatly.-New York Ledger.

all around me. Bob (Bob was her broth-The White House Baby. er) and I fought shoulder to shoulder for You must all have heard by this time hours, and we shall again many a day, that a new little baby has arrived at the White House. This little girl has the honor of being the first child born to who wrote it, and she sent him pages of Grandchildren and nieces and nephews such loving, proud, encouraging words to different presidents have arrived there. as only a proud, loving woman can but no son or daughter. Baby Ruth, as go to the front and dress your wounds rocking chairs and holding the baby "just for a minute." And I don't believe that the president will ever have loved a picture so much as when he sees Lord Marmion's train. Only, Jack, desirable, that which originated as a fad | them there.-New York World.

and women.

She visited Japan and Cores, and her book, "Jinrikisha Days," obtained a wide Many of the prominent, fuzzy bunches popularity. Miss Scidmore lately gave are made over a light frame, which is a series of lectures at Chautauqua on Ja-sold for the purpose at the hairdressers. pan and Cores, illustrated by lantern This is provided with holes, through slides. She is secretary of the National which the hair is drawn, and the wearer which the hair is drawn, and the wearer Geographical society, and has the honor can arrange the hair on it as fancy or of being sponsor for Scidmore's island taste dictates. The frames can be had in and Mount Ruhamah, in Alaska.-Phildifferent sizes, and are most convenient for those who want their hair to have an much dangerous service. up to date look A new idea in hair- So when Violet said: "Mother, dear, I Among the four girl pianists winning dressing is to wave the hair all over the don't want a swell wedding. I don't the highest recompense at the Paris con- head, twist a few curls into a knot at even want a wedding dress-Jack likes the crown and leave the ends of the curls me in sailor serge better than anything, just past her twelfth year, shared the honor of her companions, playing the change. to fly and flutter as they will.—Exbut I do want to go out and be as near him as I can. Take me to Cairo and let > Miss Jessie Ackerman, an English mis- fighting is over." Mrs. Kellar agreed sionary, was recently the heroine of a to do so, and all their acquaintances novel adventure. While returning from declared that the mother was as great a Australia to Singapore the steamer fool as the daughter. stopped two days among the pearling fleet on the great pearling grounds of the world, where 1,300 men are working. Here Miss Ackerman put on a diving ingunaccountably happy and light heartdress and went down 60 feet to the bed ed, as after a sharp tussle with half a of the ocean, where she saw for herself dozen Arabs, three of whom he killed the mode of operations and viewed the with his revolver, he was allowed breathwonders of the deep .- San Francisco Ex- ing time for a few minutes, during which

WITH A CUP AND SAUCER.

That every draft a tender thought will

Poor pictured violets that never grew

But go, my gift, and as my lady sips

There is a sadness in a painted flower.

Her creamy cocoa or her fragrant tea

Thy happy rim may perchance touch her lips
And bring to her a fleeting thought of me!

—House Furnishing Review.

"S'POSE IT'S SATAN."

It was only the ground on which the 150 boys of Dr. Kellar's school disported themselves. But besides the boys present there were at least 150 demons and by stalking along with that searching

A little lad of 10 had just run light

heartedly on the ground when the aforesaid searchlight fell on him, and simultaneously the head master shouted out:

"Colville two, I thought you had de-

Colville two, a redheaded, merry faced boy, smiled cheerfully, as if detention

were a good joke to which he was well

accustomed, and replied with pleasant

"Then what brings you out here?"

"I s'pose it's Satan. He's always do-

"Making me naughty," said Colville

Then Kellar's little daughter went up

Twelve years later the battle of Tamai wounded in an attack that had been made upon McNeil's Zareba a few days

tioned him in despatches and recommended him strongly for the "V. C."

On the strength of this Lieutenant

Colville had written to the girl he was engaged to, who was at Cairo with her mother, telling her that he would not wait to marry her a day after he had got

"I've always been a lucky fellow,

life, I think, for the ground was riddled

The girl who got this letter was

"I wish I were your wife that I might myself, my own love. Even as it is am capable of dressing as a boy and go ing to the camp. I quite understand

Constance de Beverley's bowing her loved mother, and only she can fully understand how dearly I have loved you ever since that day when I went and kissed you because you said you 's'posed

Violet Kellar had fought a hard fight

before she had gained her father's consent to become engaged to penniless Jack

Colville. The girl's brilliantly good looks, attractive manners and general

leverness had brought far more eligible men to her feet. But she had been faithful to her first love through it all. "I hate poverty, but I love Jack," she would say, when her father pointed out to her how far more sensible it would be of her to marry a man who could give her a good establishment in which he could stay at home in ease with her than affair is over in Egypt, papa, and if he can't give me bread and water enough

home in case. I want Jack, and I mean

"The boy always got what he wanted,

confound him," her father grumbled

Her mother, after the manner of mothers, sympathized with the young people's romance and hopefully assured

her that Jack would win promotion in some miraculous way without seeing good temperedly, and when he said that

Violet knew that her case was won.

to have him!"

altern in a marching regiment.

it was Satan made you naughty."

worthy of the gallant, light hearted boy

wo, with pathetically fearless frankness.

eye of his well turned on the discomfi-

dy and truthfulness.

from a cad any day.

promptness:

"So I have, sir."

"Doing what?"

and kissed him.

for personal gallantry.

his company.

companion during the whole of the campaign.
Suddenly just as he had lighted and I send my love a fragile china cup, With purple violets painted round the rim. Empty it is, but sweet thoughts fill it up returned smoking it, he heard a frantic shout, and glancing up he saw young Kellar dash forward and fire at some one Upon a saucer fashioned like a heart Of palest tint my dainty cup is set. behind him (Jack). Simultaneously he Dear emblem, symbolizing life's better part-How can she look upon it and forget? felt a sharp agonizing pain in his back and knew that he was struck by a poi-The charm I drop within the cup is such concealed in a bush, had crept out and bring; The crinkled leaves will brighten at her touch, stabbed him before young Kellar could The flowers will know a mystic blossoming. intervene. He had staggered and then fallen on In ferny nooks nor felt a summer shower!

To hearts that hate the false and love the true

his face, and they thought that he was dead for a minute. But when they lifted him and were carrying him away a faint flicker of the old fun came into his fading blue eyes as he said: "I wanted Violet and the 'V. C. so soned spear. An Arab, who had been black pipe that had been his inseparable much. S'pose 'twas Satan"---Before he could finish the sentence the fading light went out, and the blue eyes closed forever in this world.

Who shall tell her? The whole regiment knew the story of Jack's love, and not a man in it but felt heartsore for the girl who had loved and been so proud of her young hero.

angels of ambition, envy, loyalty, perfi-"It will break my heart to go to Violet with such a tale," her brother The doctor himself, in a new suit of moaned. "I'd rather take a revolver tweed, seemed to the boys to be far more and blow my own brains out than have approachable here in the midst of their the task." sports than when in academic cap and gown he cast gloom through their ranks "You shall not have it," his colonel promised. "I'll go to her myself with as bitter tidings as I've had to convey."

Colonel Branksholme's mouth twitched, and his steady, fearless gray eyes filled with tears as he spoke. But this among themselves that Kellar was a genwas more for the fine young soldierly tleman, and that they'd rather take a life which had been cut short in its glory hiding from him than punishment drill than for the desolate girl who was left to mourn it. However, he fulfilled his For they were proud of Kellar's, loyal task so sympathetically that Violet soon to the school, and ready to battle to the found her greatest comfort in talking of bitter end against any common foe who her lost lover to his gallant chief. dared to asperse it in the slightest de-

"Time treads on the grave of affection!" Kind, merciful Time! Two years after Jack fell at Suakin, Colonel Branksholme, who had been away on leave for a month, telegraphed to the second in command of the regiment, "My wife and I will be back tonight."

"We'll give them a grand reception. Have the band to meet them, take the horses out and drag the carriage along the parade," some of the more enthusiastic of the juniors declared. But when young Kellar said: "Better not. The bride is my sister," the regiment felt that the less demonstration they made on the occasion of her joining it the better. Jack's memory was too green with them still for them to give her anything but a silent and rather sad welcome.-Montreal Star.

A Kansas Woman's Scheme. It remained for a Kansas woman to was being fought, and Colville two was find a new way to take quinine clear without leaving a bad taste in the mouth. She had the rheumatism in her left leg, and she tried rubbing it with a mixture of quinine and lard. The absorption process cured the rheumatism, and the woman is going to get a patent on it .-

Exchange. Women's Civic Rights. The sentiment of the country is approaching a general acquiescence in legslation conferring civic rights upon women. And the political party which first champions the cause of universal suffrage lays its foundations deep and though I've been in no end of scrapes all my life," the boy wrote, "and now the wild, even though endangering present success. - Minneapolis North. crowning luck of all is that I shall win you and the Victoria cross at the same Margaret Sidney, the popular writer time. Heaps of fellows deserve it just for children, is a sweet faced, simple as much as I do, only I happened to be little woman, with sunny hair and laust in front, you see, and was lucky enough ing eyes. Since the death of he to be able to make myself a target for band, Mr. D. Lothrop, the public the concealed enemy, who had been has given close attention to his picking off our men like ninepins. The and is at the office by 8 o'cl Arabs turned their fire on me, and our fellows were able to see where the beggars fired from. I must bear a charmed

I. A. FORT,

Has 200,000 acres of U. P. R. R. land for sale on the ten year plan. Call and see him if you want a bargain.

R. D. THOMSON, Architect

my case. I should be prouder than ever if I could only do something to show the whole camp, the whole world, how dear-127 Sixth St. Cor. of Vine, Then she went on to tell how regularly NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA. she wrote to his mother, keeping her

> H. MacLEAN. Fine Boot and Shoe Maker, And Dealer In MEN'S LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S

BOOTS AND SHOES. 'erfect Fit, Best Work and Goods as Represented or Money Refunded. REPAIRING PROMPTLY DONE.

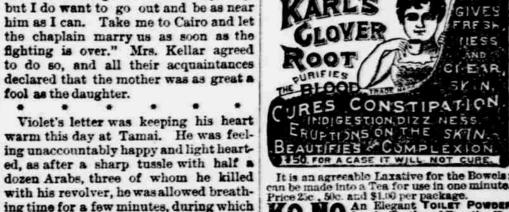

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA

HUMPHREYS' VETERINARY SPECIFICS For Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Dogs, Hogs, AND POULTRY. 500 Page Book on Treatment of Animals and Chart Sent Free.

CURES Fevers, Congestions, Inflammation A.A. Spinal Meningitis, Milk Fever. B.B.—Strains, Lameness, Rheamatism, C.C.—Distemper, Nasal Discharges. E.E.-Coughs, Heaves, Pueumonia.
F.F.-Colic or Gripes, Bellyache.
G.G.-Miscarriage, Hemorrhages.
H.H.-Urinary and Kidney Discases.
J.I.-Eruptive Discases, Mange.
J.K.-Discases of Digestion, Paralysis. to support me I'll beg it from some one who can. I don't want a good establishment or a husband who'll stay at ingle Bottle (over 50 doses), - -Stable Case, with Specifics, Manual, Veterinary Cure Oil and Medicator, Jar Veterinary Cure Oil, with his revolver, he was allowed breathing time for a few minutes, during which he cut the word "Suakin" on the little to link her lot with that of a mere sub "Probably after they have settled this disturbance in Egypt his regiment will sent off to India for three or four years, and as he can't marry on his pay you will be left behind to meditate on