Notwithstanding Chicago's confident announcement that the Columbian exposition closes the list of world's fairs for half a century at least, several new enterprises of this kind are now well under way. The California midwinter fair is to be, of course, only a world's fair in miniature, but others are projected on a scale of considerable importance. The Antwerp fair of next spring will run parallel with the Madrid exposition opening in April. Then there will be a show at Rome, two or three fairs in Australia in '94 and '95, something in the way of an international festival at Buda-Pesth in 1896, and quite a show in Constantinople in 1897. Then it is hinted that Paris is to eclipse all similar efforts of the world in celebrating the coming of a new century in 1900. THE TRIBUNE commends the republicans for the earnestness they displayed in the campaign, and particularly to Chairman Elder, who in the heat of the political bettle was a bulletin on the summary of the court. The board of Alderman is Republican-11 to 8. Three Republicans and two Democratic senators were elected. Eight of 18 assemblymen are Republicans. McKane's district, where the rioting occurred, gave 3,500 Demo-eratic and 165 Republican votes. The registration was 6,200. Erie county repudiated Leader Sheehan by a plurality of 5,5 00. In South Dakota, St. Paul, Nov. 8 .- Scattered reports from South Dakota confirm the report of a decided Republican victory. The Democrats at no time claimed anything and the Independents, who last night claimed two supreme court judges, now make no claims except that 75 per cent of their party vote was polled yesterday. The voting generally was light.
