The Tribune.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29, 1894.

—Quite a number of young people held a picnic at Burke's grove on Saturday last.

—Owing to the absence of Rev. L. P. McDonald, there will be no services in the Episcopal church Sunday.

—Some new wheat raised along the ditch is being brought to this market and sold for fifty-three cents per bushel.

—H. M. Wells, examiner of state banks, made an official visit here yesterday, examining the books in McDonald's bank.

—Haverly's minstrels at Lloyd's opera house on Friday evening of next week.

—The Fair Store and the Star Clothing House each have a new announcement in this issue which it will pay the purchasing public to read.

—Claude Weingand is about to become a farmer, at least he is contemplating purchasing eighty acres of land on the line of the M. & F. ditch.

—Considerable interest is being taken in the coming county fair. Farmers on irrigated lands should make it a point to send in a good exhibit.

—The soldiers' reunion in Grand Island this week is drawing its usual crowd. It furnishes a week of cheap recreation for the people of western Nebraska.

—Three candidates will be initiated into the first degree at the Knights of Pythias hall next Friday evening. All members are asked to be present.

—James Wilson, living on one of the ditch farms has two and one-half acres of alfalfa from which he has cut sixteen tons and expects to cut eight tons more on the third cutting.

—The Star clothing house has been distributing to its friends this week an advertising novelty in the shape of a glass pen and holder. They are quite a neat device and do very good work.

—Rev. Folck gave a very interesting talk at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Sunday afternoon on the subject of "Gospel Base Ball."

The Lutheran choir furnished music for the occasion.

National Irrigation Congress at Denver, Col. One fare for the round trip. Tickets on sale Sept. 1st to 3d inclusive; limited to Sept. 16th, 1894. For full information see N. B. Olds, Agent.

—There has been in the last few days an apparent lull in the exodus of farmers from western Nebraska. We have learned that several who left this county have jumped from the frying pan into the fire.

—It is rumored that trains 5 and 6, which were pulled off the west end of this division a couple of weeks ago, will be put back. Denver passengers are giving the U. P. the go-by and traveling over the Burlington.

—Local politics have not yet assumed an aggressive shape, but will probably warm up in the course of a week or two. If the democrats put up a local ticket, and this they will probably do, the fight in this county will be quite interesting.

—As has been the case for several years past, C. L. Williams is headquarters for fruits of all kinds, and at present is carrying a large stock. Mr. Williams caters to the local trade by carrying only the best and freshest fruits.

—A. D. Black, manager of the recent relay race, passed through on his wheel Saturday evening enroute from Denver to Washington. His object for making this tour is to measure the exact distance covered by the relay riders. He was accompanied by J. E. Fairbanks and R. M. Crabtree, two bicyclists of note. They left Denver Wednesday, and had averaged seventy-nine miles per day.

—When time hangs heavily on the hands of the average North Platte citizen, he grasps a fishing rod and walking four or five miles along the river bank squats down in the hot sun for several hours, at the end of which time he starts home with a string of from one to a half dozen fish. And in the general acceptance of the term this is called sport.

—Alex. Green, of Somerset, in a recent letter to THE TRIBUNE says: "I feel that the time has come when we, as a party that has always favored laws for the benefit of the masses, who stood by the country from 1861 to 1865, and who are Americans for America in preference to any other nation, should use our best honorable endeavors to win in this campaign." Correct you are, Mr. Green, and if every loyal citizen does his duty this fall Lincoln county, the State of Nebraska and the United States will be safely and soundly republican.

—"Top" hogs sold in the South Omaha market yesterday at $5.75, which is thirty cents higher than on the same day last year.

—The bonds of Messrs. Hinman and McDonald have been sent to Washington, and their commissions are expected any day.

—There will be no morning service at the Presbyterian church next Sunday. A very excellent program is being prepared for the evening service by the ladies' missionary society.

—Several farmers from Frontier county have been in the valley west of town for several days buying and baling oats straw which they will haul home and feed to their stock. This is hauling rough feed quite a distance.

—Some time ago preparations were made to put in stone cross-walks on several streets, but up to date the old and dangerous wooden walks remain. The delay is caused by lack of stone, an order for which it is said was sent in some time ago, but for some reason has not yet been filled.

—W. M. Hinman, who has the contract for constructing one-half of the Farmers & Merchant's ditch, received a new ditching machine the latter part of the week. Claus Mylander, we believe, has also received one of these machines to be used in the construction of the ditch on the south side.

—The people of Ogallala, irrespective of party affiliation, were making preparations yesterday to tender John W. Wilson, who was nominated for state auditor on the populist ticket, a banquet on his return home. THE TRIBUNE is pleased to see the Captain nominated, but regrets that he is not on the ticket that will be elected.

—C. W. Collins, of Brooklyn, a member of the firm of Dillon & Collins, is spending this week in town. Mr. Collins has just returned from the B. & M. extension, of which he has the grading contract, and says the line will be completed to Billings the latter part of next month. About the first of September he and Mr. Dillon will make a trip to the Wyoming ranch.

—A petition is being circulated asking the county clerk to place the name of James Belton on the ballots as an independent candidate for county commissioner. The petition was placed in the hands of a republican for circulation, but when he learned that Mr. Belton was a populist, he returned the petition after securing one signature. Mr. Belton filled the office of commissioner one term several years ago.

—Captain Baker, of Philadelphia, formerly in charge of the McPherson national cemetery, sends THE TRIBUNE a copy of the Press of that city which contains a dispatch to the effect that certain farmers near North Platte are killing their horses and feeding the carcasses to hogs. The Captain wants to know if this is correct. So far as this writer knows no such action has been taken by our farmers, though it is said that in the central part of the state horses have been killed and fed to the hogs.

—Ralph, the twelve year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Holtry, fell under the wheels of a moving train at Sutherland last Friday and lost a foot. He, in company with other boys, were in the habit of jumping on moving trains, and it was during this pastime that the accident occurred. Physicians from this place went up and dressed the wound. The unfortunate boy was reported in a critical condition Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Holtry have the sympathy of North Platte friends in this misfortune which has befallen their bright son.

LATER—We learn the boy died at twelve o'clock last night.

—About fifty members of the Good Templar Lodge of this city participated in a picnic on Saturday last, held at what is known as "the points." Arriving on the grounds about eleven o'clock a. m. they proceeded to erect swings and prepare croquet and ball grounds, by which time dinner was in readiness. After luncheon had been disposed of excursions to the river were indulged in by the young people. Such an excellent time is reported by those having had the opportunity of attending that they are very desirous of a repetition of the same before snow flies.

—Mr. Vandrendt, the irrigation engineer who has been engaged in laying out several ditches in our county, waded the North Platte river in the vicinity of the head of the old North Platte canal Saturday and made an estimate of the amount of water flowing in the several channels. His investigation resulted in an estimate of 1,000 cubic feet per second, notwithstanding the river is unusually low at present. This estimate should put at rest any uneasiness the people of Lincoln county may have in regard to the scarcity of water in the North Platte river.

SILVER MOUNTED BELTS.

In light and dark colors. They are beauties and very reasonable in price. Also a fine line of Silverware and Novelties suitable for wedding and birthday gifts. Do you know that we take old gold in exchange for new goods?

CLINTON, THE JEWELER.

—About a dozen persons went down to Grand Island on No. 8 last night.

—Drs. Duncan and Longley were in Sutherland the early part of the week on professional business.

—Max Einstein is spending this week in New York City looking up bargains in clothing and furnishing goods.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Turner, who had been visiting North Platte friends, returned to Grand Island yesterday.

—Three bids were received for the construction of the bridge at Maxwell, but as the bonds have not yet been sold, the contract was not awarded.

—J. M. Hall received from Omaha yesterday a very fine rug made from a grey wolf which was roped and killed by Hank Chestnut several weeks ago.

—There promises to be quite an excursion party leave North Platte next week for Grand Junction, Colo. Some of the parties will probably invest in fruit land.

—Will Cameron has been suffering very much from rheumatism for two weeks past and will probably try the efficacy of the waters at Hot Springs, S. D.

—The city schools will open Sept. 17th instead of 2d as announced on our first page. The change is due, it is said, to the fact that a number of children are employed in the hay field.

—Defeated but not disgruntled, says a Lexington paper in referring to Jack McCall. Certainly not. Mr. McCall's republicanism is not of the stripe that will admit of skulking.

—Anchor Michelson, a well known conductor on the Second district, died at his home in Grand Island yesterday morning from typhoid pneumonia, after an illness of about ten days.

—Cleveland has allowed the senate tariff bill to become a law without his signature on the plea that its undemocratic provisions makes it objectionable to true tariff reformers. Too bad, too bad.

—Samples of corn, raised by irrigation on the Scout's Rest Ranch, were shipped by express to Colonel Cody this morning. The Colonel will take special delight in exhibiting this corn to the thousands who attend the Wild West Show.

—A Frontier county farmer while engaged in baling straw west of town last week had the misfortune to have his leg broken by having it caught in the press. He was brought to town, furnished medical aid and is being cared for by his wife, who was notified of the misfortune and arrived a few days ago.

—Miss Tot McCormack, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Minor for several months, leaves for her home in Plattsmouth tomorrow. Last evening the young lady was tendered a surprise party by a number of her friends in this city, at which genuine pleasure reigned supreme for several hours.

—A nice display of tame plums, raised on J. H. Hershey's farm, are on exhibition in Streitz's show window. Mr. Hershey has a number of trees which are very full of fruit, two of which yielded two bushels each, though the trees were planted but three years ago. He also has some apple trees bearing, the fruit from which he will place on exhibition at the state fair.

—The lack of a corn crop has forced farmers to dispose of their stock of young pigs at rather disastrous prices, and in some instances the animals have been knocked on the head in order to prevent their dying of starvation. Had the corn crop been a success the sales of hogs this winter would have been unusually large and a handsome sum been realized by the farmers.

—In connection with the irrigation congress in Denver, three excursions have been provided, one on Sept. 4th to the agricultural section surrounding Greeley, one on the 6th to the Arkansas valley and another on the 9th to the loop above Georgetown and through the scenic portions of Colorado. The fare on these excursions will be less than one cent per mile. Arrangements have been made for entertainment at the various points touched, so that the railroad fare will be practically all the expense.

—J. C. Adron, of Charles City, Iowa, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dillard, while enroute home from Grand Junction, Colo., where he invested in 200 acres of fruit land.

Haverly's Minstrels.

"Always get the best," quoth Lord Bacon—and as near as we can learn he practiced what he preached. Col. J. H. Haverly has always followed in the footsteps of the renowned personage, as far as the organizing of his minstrel companies were concerned, for he has without a doubt always had the best, and strictly the best of artists with his various amusement enterprises, hence his wondrous success, of which all the world has heard. There is not a minstrel performer of any note but what has traveled under the Haverly banner, and that point alone is proof positive that the Haverly entertainment has always been the best; but that is known by everyone, and so there is hardly anything that can be said in praise of this great company, beyond that it is up to its old standard. The Mastodons will be at Lloyd's opera house September 7th.

Sutherland News.
J. G. Haines of Omaha was on out streets last week.

Ed McClain is staying for Jno. Bratt & Co. this week.

A. F. Streitz has had his house in the east part of town brightened up by a coat of paint.

W. M. Holtry and Alex. Neilson each shipped a car of cattle to Omaha last week.

Mrs. John Noehr departed for Grand Island the latter part of the week and John expects to go soon.

W. E. Knoles returned from Oklahoma last week. He has rented a farm and expects to move his family there in a week or two.

John Keith & Co. bought a lot of cattle from D. Hunter, Eli Etchison and G. W. Applegate last week.

R. Ellsworth of Keith county was on our streets Thursday.

It is reported that Eli Etchison has traded for the Hostetter place on the ditch, and will move his family thereon in the near future. This is one of the finest places on the ditch and Mr. E. will soon be eating apples from his own trees, to say nothing of the grapes and other small fruit.

D. M. Hogsett finished up his contract of building the school house last week and has made a very neat job. The outward appearance of the house is not very taking to the eye, but the school room itself is a daisy as anyone will have to admit if they will take the trouble to visit it, and we should be able to get along with it for several years to come.

Rev. Randolph of Paxton was on our streets on Tuesday.

John P. Reed is preparing to move to Missouri and has chartered a car to haul his farm machinery and household goods. John is a good man and we are sorry to see him go.

Elmer Coates and family Sunday at Paxton with Mrs. Gannel. Wm. Erwin rides in a new buggy this week.

Alex. Neilson spent last week in Omaha.

MYRTLE NEWS.—Miss Ida Allison of Gandy, spent a few days with her parents at this place last week.

... Mrs. Travis, of Tarkio, Mo., is visiting her sons S. G. and C. E. Diehl... Chas. Wiberg and Miss Myrtle Brunk, of North Platte, were Myrtle visitors Sunday last.

... J. A. Moore returned home Saturday from Maxwell, where he has been at work for a few weeks past.

... Mr. Wiberg and son John returned to their old home at Erickson, Neb., the first of the week.

... The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford died suddenly Friday morning at the age of sixteen months. Rev. Derryberry officiated at the funeral. The parents have the sympathy of this community in their bereavement. C. H.

Important Notice.
Policy No. 248974 of the Queen Insurance Co., issued by Geo. C. Campbell, of North Platte, was fraudulently reported to the company, which, in case of loss, would affect the validity of any claim made thereunder.

By taking the policy to Geo. E. Prosser agent at North Platte, the holder can have it corrected so as to secure in case of loss. If said policy has expired, or has been renewed in any manner, except by a new policy, it is wrong, and a suitable reward will be paid for its return to Geo. E. Prosser.

W. C. BURLEIGH, State Agent.

—The U. P. railroad is going to make a great reduction in its train service, by which it hopes to save daily 588 train miles. Nearly twenty passenger trains are discontinued. Nos. 42 and 43 between Council Bluffs and Valley, Nos. 63 and 64 between Lincoln and Beatrice, Nos. 48 and 51 between Lincoln and Stromsburg, Nos. 77 and 78 between Kearney and Callaway, to run only these weekly instead of daily. Nos. 69 and 70 to be laid off between Council Bluffs and Albion, and between Genoa and Cedar Rapids, and Nos. 83 and 84 between Grand Island and Ord.
