AND THIS IS FAME.

John H. Kearnes, who has been employed on the Washburn Herald for some time, bought a half interest in the paper from J. W. Bombardt. The newspaper lads move up occasionally as well as the boys in stores.—Lincoln Star.

The Nebraska Mercantile Mutual Insurance company of Lincoln, Nebraska, has over $6,000,000 insurance in force with the leading business men of the state. Ask to see a list of them W. W. Sanders, agent.

Spring Ailments

There is an aching and tired feeling, the liver, bowels, and kidneys become sluggish and inactive, the digestion impaired, with little or no appetite no ambition for anything and a feeling that the whole body and mind needs toning up. The trouble is, that during the winter, there has been an over accumulation of waste matter in the system. Herbine will remove it, secure to the secretions a right exit, and give strength in place of weakness. 50c at Hill's.

You never heard any one using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied.—MT Hill.

We had the pleasure of attending the annual Methodist Episcopal conference at Lincoln last Friday, and assisting in electing four lay delegates to the general conference to be held at Los Angeles, California, next May. The lay delegates evidently believe in equal suffrage, as two of the delegates were ladies—Mrs. Roberts of Lincoln and Mrs. A. W. Nickell of Beatrice. Mrs. Nickell for many years lived in Brownville and is well known to many of our citizens. Both are talented ladies and will worthily represent the great Methodist church. Dr. J. F. Neal of Peru and Mr. Lewis of Fairfield were the other delegates.

For Those Who Live on Farms

Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballards Snow Liniment; always recommend it to my friends and I am confident that there is no better made. It is a dandy for burns. Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns and bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency. 25c, 50c, and $1.00 at Hill's."

In the Interest of Humanity.

Chris Miller of Fremont Nebr. writes: "I suffered from dyspepsia for more than 10 years. I was under the care of a number of doctors, made three trips away, and still no relief. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure being recommended to me by several who had used it, and as the last straw, I concluded to try it. After the first two or three doses I began to improve and have taken several bottles and feel like a new man. I write you this in the interest of humanity, hoping it may fall into the hands of some sufferer, and my prayer is that they may secure the same benefit that I have." Sold by W. W. Keeling.

Lecture Course.

A few of the enterprising and public spirited citizens of Nemaha have decided to have a lecture course for this place this winter and have made arrangements with the Midland Lyceum Bureau of Des Moines, Iowa, for the following lectures and concerts:

James Clement Ambrose, Chicago's great humorist lecturer, Thursday evening, Oct. 1.

Lucian Edgar Fallansbee, the brilliant orator of the Pacific coast, Friday evening, Oct. 30.

The Midland Concert Co., comprising a lady violinist, soprano, reader and impersonator, and accompanist, Saturday evening, Dec. 5.

J. Lorenzo Zwickey, the chalk talk artist, who illustrates his lecture on "The Philosophy of the Beautiful" with many crayon sketches, Monday evening, Jan. 4.

The Madrigal Ladies Quartet—vocal soloists, violinist, reader and piano soloist—Tuesday evening, Jan. 26.

It is hoped our citizens will patronize these entertainments liberally. They are all good ones, and give a fine variety. You can get a season ticket for only $1, which includes reserved seats. Reserved seats can be secured at the Keeling drug store. Persons holding season tickets can reserve their seats for the whole course.

F. E. Gaither, who has been employed as night operator at the depot for some time past, will depart the first of the week for Omaha, where he will attend the Creighton Medical College. While here Mr. Gaither proved himself to be a young man of high integrity and trustworthiness, and will be greatly missed by the many friends he made while here. The News trusts that Mr. Gaither will arrange to spend his vacation next year with us, as such a young man as he has proved himself to be is always welcome.—Bridgeport (Nebr.) News.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn if you want to go to any part of the city. John McElhaney, prop.

World-Wide Reputation

White's Cream Vermifuge has achieved a world wide reputation as being the best of worm destroyers, and for its tonic influence on weak and unthrifty children, as it neutralizes the acidity or sourness of the stomach, improves the digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens the nervous system and restores them to the health vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at Hill's.

Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and can safely be given to children.—M. T. Hill

Cures When Doctors Fail

Mrs. Frank Chiasson, Patterson, Ia. writes June 8th, 1901: "I had malaria fever in a very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine the fever would return, I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then I bought two bottles, which completely cured me. I feel very grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering with malaria, as it will surely cure them." Herbine, 50c bottle at Hill's.

Reveals a Great Secret

It is often asked how such startling cures, that puzzle the best physicians are effected by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Here's the secret. It cuts out the phlegm and germ-infected mucus, and lets the life giving oxygen enrich and vitalize the blood. It heals the inflamed, cough-worn throat and lungs. Hard colds and stubborn coughs soon yield to Dr. King's New Discovery, the most infallible remedy for all throat and lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Keeling's.

If you want fire insurance, either in old line or mutual companies, call on W. W. Sanders.

One Minute cough cure gives relief in one minute, because it kills the microbe which tickles the mucous membrane, causing the cough, and at the same time clears the phlegm draws out the inflammation and heals and soothes the affected parts. One Minute cough cure strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia and is a harmless and never failing cure in all curable cases of coughs, colds, and croup. One Minute cough cure is pleasant to take, harmless and good alike for young and old.—W. W. Keeling.

Traveling is Dangerous

Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much, suffer from kidney disease in some form. Foley's Kidney Cure strengthens the kidneys and cures all forms of kidney and bladder disease. Geo. E. Hausan locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes, "Constant vibration of the engine caused me a great deal of trouble with my kidneys, and I got no relief until I used Foley's Kidney Cure.—M T Hill.
