Announcement.

I am a candidate for the office of county assessor subject to the action of the republican county convention
E. J. MAXWELL.

John Hanna and T. B. Skeen of Auburn gave us a pleasant call Tuesday. Mr. Hanna is a candidate for the nomination for treasurer at the republican county convention. He would make a good official and has a host of friends who would be pleased to have him get the office.

Hon. C. F. Reavis of Falls City, republican candidate for district judge, was interviewing the voters of Nemaha county last week, and made a favorable impression wherever he went. He is an able attorney and will make a good judge. The better acquainted people become with Mr. Reavis the better they like him.

W. G. Maxwell received a letter Tuesday from O. K. Fisher, who is now visiting his daughter, Mrs. Phillip Crother, at Summerland, California. Mr. Fisher has bought a home in Santa Barbara, California—a house of six rooms, with electric lights, gas, water, etc.—and all kinds of fruit and flowers on the place. They will go to house-keeping next month.

Holds Up a Congressman

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all of my organs were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-round medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Over-worked run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c.—Guaranteed by Keeling.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"When I had the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry Editor of the Enterprise, Shortville N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times keep from coughing myself to pieces by taking one teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bade me adieu." ### Catarrh of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucin. Instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called catarrh of the stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R. W. Cox, Coppell, Tex. Sold by W. W. Keeling.
