The many friends of W. S. Rathbone will regret to learn that he committed suicide at his home near Neosho, Mo., recently. A telegram in the Kansas City Star is as follows: Neosho, Mo., Sept. 26.—The body of W. S. Rathbone was found this morning hanging from a tree. No reason is given for his committing suicide. He was a prosperous farmer.

The Methodist people decided to cut down the large cottonwood tree on the northeast corner of the church lots, and on Wednesday the tree was cut down and a part of it worked up into wood by a few of the members. The ladies of the church furnished a good dinner to the workmen at the Minick hall. This tree is one of the old land marks of the town. It will make probably three cords of wood.

Those who are criticising W. M.
Crichton because he is not a practicing attorney forget that some of our best county judges had not practiced law extensively. Judge Church was a farmer when elected the last time, and had not practiced law for a great many years. Judge Lambert had had very little practice when elected. And yet they made good judges. Mr. Crichton has an ample fund of legal knowledge and the requisite ability to make him one of the best judges we ever had.

C. F. Reavis and Frank Martin of Falls City were both candidates for the republican nomination for district judge. Reavis won out in Richardson county and was nominated at the convention. Mr. Martin has kept up a fight against Reavis and recently issued a circular containing numerous charges against Reavis. Now Mr.
Reavis issues a reply, and answers every charge made to the satisfaction of every fair minded man. The Martin circulars have been widely distributed.
Those who have read them should withhold their decision in the matter until they read the other side. Mr.
Reavis is highly recommended by some of the best men of Falls City. The lies and misrepresentations being made against him should only help him with all fair minded men.

Auburn, Nebraska

The fusionists met in convention t Auburn last Saturday. By agreement in conference the democrats were given the offices of clerk, judge, superintendent, coroner and commissioner from the second district. The populists took the remainder of the offices.
The ticket nominated is as follows:

Treasurer—Charles Anderson.
Clerk—C. O. Snow.
Judge—J. S. McCarty.
Superintendent—B. T. Arnet.
Sheriff—W. D. Culwell.
Assessor—S. P. Robertson.
Coroner—Dr. James Kay.
Surveyor—R. J. Gilbert.
District clerk—Elmer Harmon.
Commissioner—2nd district—W.
Daugherty.
Commissioner—3rd district—Fred Parker.

The district clerk was to have gone to the populists, but they forgot all about it or thought it was no use to sacrifice a man by putting him up against G. B. Beveridge, so they adjusted without making any nomination. The democrats then filed out the ticket by nominating Elmer Harmon.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP
Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"When I had the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry Editor of the Enterprise, Shortville N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times keep from coughing myself to pieces by taking one teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bade me adieu." For sale by Keeling

In thanksgiving features the November Designer is wonderfully strong, as witness "Harvest Festivals," by John De Morgan. A Thanksgiving celebration", by L. O. L., and three excellent short stories, all of which have an appetizing scent of turkey and pumpkin pies about them. We are made to feel that Christmas is coming dangerously close for those who have not yet selected their gifts, for there are four pages filled with suggestions for homemade presents, under "making an early start for Christmas," and two more with the heading, "Lacey Novelties for Christmas Gifts." Two altogether charming features of this number are the pictorial pages showing babies of all kinds, and the delightful drill and play for tiny tots entitled "The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe," which Miss Mabel Humphreys has illustrated in her own and dainty style. The many household departments which has given the Designer such a hold on the feminine fancy are filled this month with appropriate and valuable items: How such an excellent magazine as this can be issued with profit at eighty cents a year is a mystery only its publishers can solve.

Dyspepsia Cure being recommended to me by several who had used it, and as the last straw, I concluded to try it.
After the first two or three doses I began to improve and have taken several bottles and feel like a new man. I write you this in the interest of humanity, hoping it may fall into the hands of some sufferer, and my prayer is that they may secure the same benefit that I have." Sold by W. W. Keel-

Spring Ailments
There is an aching and tired feeling, the liver, bowels, and kidneys become sluggish and inactive, the digestion impaired, with little or no appetite no ambition for anything and a feeling that the whole body and mind needs toning up. The trouble is, that during the winter, there has been an over-accumulation of waste matter in the system. Herbine will remove it, secure to the secretions a right exit, and give strength in place of weakness.
