Notice of Probate of Will.
The State of Nebraska, County of Nemaha, In the county court of Nemaha county, Neb.
In the matter of the estate of Fanny Hoover, deceased.
To Frances H. Ervin and to all persons interested in the estate of Fannie Hoover, deceased: You are hereby notified that John B.
Hoover has filed his duly verified petition in this court praying for the probate of the last will and testament of the said Fannie Hoover, deceased, which said instrument has been destroyed by accident and mistake; that the same may be proved, allowed and probated as a last will, and the administration of said estate granted to John B. Hoover as executor; that the same has been set for hearing on the 24th day of October, 1905, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the county court room in said county, which said time and place has been fixed by an order of court as the time and place of proving the same, when you and all persons interested may appear and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted, and contest the probate thereof, and unless you so appear the court may grant the prayer of said petition and make all other proper orders in said cause.
Witness my hand and the seal of said county court at Auburn, Nebraska, this 24th day of September, 1905.
RICHARD F. NEAL, County Judge.

He Learned a Great Truth.
It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley, "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for the same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and croup; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by W. W. Keeling.

Ran A Ten Penny Nail Through His Hand.
While opening a box, J. C. Mount of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of the pain and soreness, this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed."

The Norfolk News is engaged editorially in proving that farming pays in Nebraska. Must be a queer country around Norfolk if it takes argument to prove that farming pays. In Otoe county that subject is classed with other well known facts like this: Fishes swim. Farming pays. Water is wet. Every democrat wants a public office, and—none of them will get one in this county this year.—Neb.

Judge Sullivan, the fusion candidate for supreme judge, says of Judge Barnes, the republican candidate: "The candidate of the republican party is my personal friend. He is a worthy and generous rival." The fusion papers many of them say Judge Barnes is a trickster and a tool for the railroads. Who is to be believed?

Fred Parker, fusion candidate for county commissioner from the third district, gave us a social call Thursday. We have known Fred for about thirty years and never knew him to do a dishonorable act. When the editor of this paper was learning the printer's trade in the Granger office at Brownville Fred was tinner and clerk for ing, and we always had a warm feeling for Fred.

John J. Farrington of Rockford, Ill., has been in Nemaha this week collecting material for a work soon to sketches of the lives of the pioneers and distinguished citizens who made history and assisted in developing this country, and will be an interesting and valuable work.

Mrs. S. Morris recently received a letter from her daughter, Mrs. Wm. A.
Baily, who was then visiting the family of J. R. Dye, at San Deigo, California. Mrs. Baily's health is very poor and she is taking treatment at the sanitarium. She writes that Mr. Dye has a lovely place. Their house is three stories and a cupola.
Leading from the third story are small bridges to trees in which there is a platform and seats. He also has an aquarium, a large summer house, etc.

We, the undersigned, pastors of the Methodist and Christian churches of Brownville and Nemaha, have arranged our appointments to alternate our services between the two above mentioned towns, viz., to give each town a morning and evening service every Sunday. The Sunday the pastor of the Christian church is in Brownville, the pastor of the Methodist church is in Nemaha and vice versa. Beginning Oct. 25, the services will be held at the Christian church in Brownville at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. and in Nemaha at the Methodist church at the same hours. The members of all churches together with the general public are cordially invited to attend and worship with us.

Catarrh of the Stomach.
When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucus instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called catarrh of the stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—

Gained Forty Pounds in Thirty Days For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered.

We have a good trade on the Tablets.

A Matter of Money Somebody's money and a failure to carry out instructions about talking to strangers have been responsible for a serious embarrassment to the opponents of Hon. C. F. Reavis, candidate for district judge, and the most severe jolt of the many which have come near knocking them off the track, was given them at Steinauer last Saturday.

Nearly everybody is now familiar with the story in the anti-Reavis circulars about the German farmer of Richardson county who it is alleged was robbed of his farm by the Reavises. What follows will also be of interest in this connection.

Last Saturday there drove into Steinauer two double seated carriages from Pawnee City. Riding in the carriages was Mr. Leyda of Falls City, accompanyed by the German farmer in the story and several others who are out campaigning against Mr. Reavis. After having had their horses put away the party of visitors wandered about the streets exhibiting the German farmer and telling their story to all who would listen.

Mr. Gottlieb Sommerhalder is a member of the Pawnee county board of commissioners. He is one of the county's most wealthy citizens and no one in the county is held in higher regard.
Mr. Sommerhalder heard the story about the theft of the farm and he was present in Steinauer while the party of campaigners were there. It happened that the German farmer wandered away from his traveling companions and while absent from under their influence was encountered by Mr. Som-merhalder. Mr. Sommerhalder called the attention of his companion to the story which had been so industriously circulated and asked him to tell him the truth about the matter. The reply which Mr. Sommerhalder received was remarkable for its candor but not unexpected. The farmer told Mr. Som-merhalder that there was nothing whatever to the story; that he had never had any trouble with Mr. Reavis but that he was being paid $1.50 per day and his expenses for accompanying the men he was with and permitting the story to be told as a fact.

Mr. Sommerhalder is a man whom no one will doubt and he stands ready to make an affidavit to that effect.— Beatrice Express.

Last Sunday evening by a unanimous vote of the members present, it was decided to change the preaching services at the Methodist church, which have heretofore been held every Sunday night, to every alternate Sunday morning and evening. Next Sunday, therefore, there will be preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
On the Sunday following the services will be held in Brownville, but on that day there will be preaching morning and evening at the Christian church. This arrangement will give people an opportunity to attend services both morning and evening, if they are so disposed, Rev. Foutch and Rev. Sapp, the pastors of the two churches, are working together harmoniously both here and at Brownville.
The arrangements made are largely at the suggestion of the two pastors. It is hoped this arrangement will result in larger congregations at both churches and an increased interest in church work.

All our farmer readers should take advantage of the unprecedented clubbing offer we this year make, which includes with this paper The Iowa Homestead, its Special Farmers' Institute editions, and The Poultry Farmer. These three publications are the best of their class and should be in every farm home. To them we add for local, county and general news our own paper and make the price for the four for one year, $1.35. Never before was so much superior reading matter offered for so small an amount of money. The papers named which we club with our own are well known throughout the west and commend themselves to the reader's favorable attention upon mere mention. The Homestead is the great agricultural and live stock paper of the west. The Poultry Farmer is the most practical poultry paper for the farmer published in the country, and the Special Farmers' Institute editions are the most practical publications for the promotion of good farming ever published.
