DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

LIVER TROUBLES

"I find Theford's Black-Draught a good medicine for liver disease. It cured my son after he had spent $100 with doctors. It is all the medicine I take."—MRS. CAROLINE MARTIN, Parkersburg, W. Va.

If your liver does not act regularly go to your druggist and secure a package of Theford's Black-Draught and take a dose tonight. This great family medicine frees the constipated bowels, stirs up the torpid liver and causes a healthy secretion of bile.

Theford's Black-Draught will cleanse the bowels of impurities and strengthen the kidneys. A torpid liver invites colds, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys result in Bright's disease which claims as many victims as consumption. A 25-cent package of Theford's Black-Draught should always be kept in the house.

"I used Theford's Black-Draught for liver and kidney complaints and found nothing to equal it."—WILLIAM COFFMAN, Marbleshead, Ill.

THE DEVIL'S TEA TABLE.

Interesting Freak of Nature Located in the Muskingum Valley of Ohio.

To those not familiar with the topography of the Muskingum valley, Ohio, says an exchange, there are many natural attractions which catch the eye and cause the stranger to wonder at the apparent frivolities of nature in her bestowal of things curious upon this particular territory in the Buckeye state, says the Detroit Free Press.

One of the freaks of nature is the "Devil's Tea Table," which stands like a challenging sentinel on an eminence 300 feet above and overlooking the river, and is visible, clearly outlined, for many miles. It is but a few miles from McConnellsville, the county seat of Morgan county, and just at this time the old landmark has become an object of renewed and apprehensive interest to those who have regarded it with indifference for years ago. The action of the elements has left its mark upon this rock in a way which bespeaks of its early downfall, and occupants of buildings that stand on the hillside below it are not a little anxious in anticipation of the result. "The Devil's Tea Table" is a wedge-shaped rock of queer formation, standing 25 feet high and 33 by 20 feet across the top, which is flat; at the foundation it is but four feet thick and 17 feet long. For many years it has been a popular attraction, and people have traveled many miles to see it. Until within a short time ladders gave access to the top of the "table," but during the fast five years the rapid wasting away at the base has rendered it unsafe even to approach near it. The base is of shale rock, and the top is of sandstone.

Mortality Among Foreigners. Among the foreign-born residents of the United States the mortality is greatest in Irish and Germans and least in the Polish.—N. Y. Sun.

No Loas. "It seems to me," remarked the customer, as she watched the man at the market trim the slice of ham she had bought, "you are wasting a good deal of that meat."

"Not at all, madam," he said, genially, "I weighed it first."—Detroit Free Press.

FOREIGN GOSSIP.

"I never cross the street in front of any approaching vehicle except an omnibus," a Londoner recently remarked; "it is the only vehicle I can trust to pull up and not go over my body if I should fall."

It is estimated that two decades ago the entire population of Eskimo lands (Alaska, Labrador, Greenland) was 30,000, but that it is now only 15,000, owing to the extermination of the seal, walrus, polar bear and other sources of food supply.

In the restaurants of Germany venison is as cheap and as abundant as beef. Great pains are taken to preserve and improve the deer. It has been found advantageous to cross them with Siberian animals, and the demand for these consequently far exceeds the supply.

The horse in a peasant's cart in the south of France became restive on the approach of a menagerie, and while they were being quieted the menagerie elephant deftly made away with the peasant's dinner, which it swallowed in a single mouthful, serviette and all; and now the elephant's owner is being proceeded against for theft.

The volcano of Santa Maria, which recently created such havoc in Guatemala, was accessible from Quetzaltenango, a town of 20,000 inhabitants, by means of a road which was cut through deposits of brimstone that were in some places 30 yards deep. On the top of the volcano there was a little chapel to which the Indians used to make pilgrimages, and pray to the Virgin Mary.

The excavations on the site of the old Canaanite Hill fortress of Gezer, near the road between Jaffa and Jerusalem, which are being carried out by Mr. R. A. S. Macalister on behalf of the Palestine exploration fund, have resulted in a further important and interesting discovery in the shape of a temple built for the goddess Astarte, called by Jeremiah "Queen of Heaven."

Will Cure Consumption
A A Herren of Finch, Ark. writes, "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stage."—M T Hill.

Quaint Idea of Farming.

Lord Chesham's daughter, Hon. Lilah Constance Cavendish, enthusiastically carries out a quaint idea in farming. She has made a hobby of what is known as her Black Farm in Buckingham. Here Miss Chesham keeps black cattle, black horses, black dogs, a black cat, etc.; in fact, every animal to be seen on the farm is black. The country folk are much interested in the young lady's hobby, and a standing joke among them is that Miss Cavendish has everything black except her dairymaids.—London Mail.

Cures When Doctors Fail

Mrs. Frank Chasson, Patterson, Ill., writes June 8th, 1901: "I had malarial fever in a very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine the fever would return, I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then I bought two bottles, which completely cured me. I feel very grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering with malaria, as it will surely cure them." Herbine, 50c bottle at Hill's.

Holds Up a Congressman

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all of my organs were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-round medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Over-worked run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c.—Guaranteed by Keeling.
