Henry Williams drove up from Shubert Wednesday and took the train for Auburn, returning in the evening. He went up to see his sister, Mrs. B. F. Furrow. Mrs. Furrow died Thursday. Her many friends sympathize with the sorrowing husband, children and relatives.

If you want fire insurance, either in old line or mutual companies, call on W. W. Sanders.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn if you want to go to any part of the city. John McElhaney prop.

A Lesson in Health

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system.—M T Hill.

Seymour Howe has been confined to his bed for several days with ulceration of the stomach and his condition is very serious. Dr. Boal of Auburn, who is treating him, is in hopes he can help him.

George Rhineshart has just completed an addition to his house and built a new barn. He is one of the prosperous farmers living one mile west of Champion school house. F. A. Hacker did the carpenter work.

David Frazier has some of the finest corn we have seen yet. Some samples taken out of a load he brought to town Tuesday measured fourteen inches in length, and he has found some measuring two inches longer than this.

Ora Thorp is wearing a black eye. He didn't get in a fight even if it does have that appearance, but was riding a mule bareback when it ran away with him and then bucked him off. He fell under the mule and got struck in the eye.

Treasurer-elect Dirks has selected I. H. Kuper as his deputy. Mr. Kuper was Mr. Dirks' leading competitor for the nomination and when the choice of the convention fell on Mr. Dirks gave him hearty support. He will make a good deputy.

The members of Prof. Bridges' class at the close of the convention last week organized a musical class with Miss Maye Gaither as instructor and Mrs. Elmer E. Allen as organist. It is the intention to meet weekly for practice and instruction.

W. E. Wheelton got notice a few days ago that his salary as agent at Nemaha had been increased from $50 to $55 per month, beginning October 1. This is now a good paying office as the agent gets about $10 per month for over time and $15 per month commission on express handled. But it keeps a man pretty busy.

The Advertiser and the Western Swine Breeder one year for $1.35; the Advertiser and Poultry Topics one year for $1.15; The Advertiser and the Daily Omaha News one year for $2.00; the Advertiser and the Iowa Homestead, Poultry News and Homestead Institute numbers one year for $1.32; the Advertiser and the Nebraska Farmer one year for $1.35; the Advertiser and the Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean one year for $1.50; the Advertiser and the Semi-Weekly St. Louis Globe Democrat one year for $1.75; the Advertiser and the Semi-Weekly Nebraska State Journal one year for $1.85. These are some of our clubbing offers, but we have others. Can you beat them anywhere?

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness.—M T Hill.

Traveling is Dangerous

Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much, suffer from kidney disease in some form. Foley's Kidney Cure strengthens the kidneys and cures all forms of kidney and bladder disease. Geo. E. Hausan locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes, "Constant vibration of the engine caused me a great deal of trouble with my kidneys, and I got no relief until I used Foley's Kidney Cure.—M T Hill.

Gained Forty Pounds in Thirty Days

For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the Tablets.—Holley Bros. Merchants, Long Branch, Mo. For sale by W. W. Keeling.

A New Invention

Minick's Field Corn Husking Machine husks the corn from the stalk, leaving stalks standing in the field. Exclusive state and manufacturer's right for sale by the inventor and patentee. Correspondence solicited. Address 44 H. T. MINICK, Nemaha, Neb.
