

HOOSIER CASH STORE

GOOD GOODS

We still have a few

Ladies Walking Skirts

left, on which we will make the following

SPECIAL PRICES:

Our regular $3.50 skirt for this week at.....	$2.50
Our regular $4.00 skirt at.....	3.25
Our regular $4.50 skirt at.....	3.75
Our regular $6.00 skirt at.....	5.00

These skirts are cut full in size and are Special values at these prices.

Men's half-wool pants, the regular $2.00 kind, we sell at $1.50
Fancy cotton wristing in pink, blue and green, regular price 15 cents, this week at..... 12 1/2

Also leggings, shoes, overshoes, duck coats, and everything you want for cold weather.

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Phone 4 BROWNVILLE, NEBR.

Local News

See M T Hill for fire insurance.

Only two weeks until Christmas.

We had another little snow Thursday.

Mrs. J. B. Fisher, we learn, is quite sick.

Another light snow fell Tuesday night.

Try the Devos paint. Sold by J. W. Kerns, Auburn.

A. F. Walsh went to Lincoln Saturday of last week.

Wes Clark is suffering from a carbuncle on his right shoulder.

A fine line of silverware suitable for wedding presents at Keeling's.

Miss Ollie Fisher of Colorado is visiting Miss Anna Knapp this week.

Dan Fauver of Wymore is visiting the family of James M. Burns this week.

The bridge across the Nemaha south of town is impassible on account of repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Shubert of Bracken were visiting Nemaha friends Monday.

Claud, Grace and Lynn Jarvis went to Wabash, Neb., Monday to visit their grandmother.

Jas. A. Stepeenson was feeling good Wednesday morning, as he finished husking corn Tuesday.

The editor's office phone is No. 7 and that of his residence is No. 1. Call us up if you have any news.

Joe Bunker is getting his house pretty well enclosed and is rushing the work as rapidly as possible.

Miss Lizzie Lewark started for Granite, Ill., Monday, where she will visit until after Christmas.

Mrs. Pearl Finch Roberts of Brownville was the guest of Mrs. Cora Crother Wednesday.

The editor is living on "hog and hominy" now and can appreciate the fondness of Missourians for this food.

Homer H. Dewees, who has been working near Nebraska City for the past six weeks, returned to Nemaha last Friday.

Paint oil, machine oil, harness oil, coal oil, bicycle oil, any kind of oil at the right price at Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Miss Edith Swan of Moline, Ill., arrived in Nemaha Thursday of last week on a visit to Mrs. J. Wm. H. Hoover and family.

F. L. Woodward, manager of the opera house, says he has booked a good minstrel troupe of eighteen persons for December 25.

Marie Scofield of Taylor, Neb., visited her grandmother, Mrs. E. A. Minick, and her aunts in Nemaha Monday and Tuesday.

We are requested to thank the people, especially those from Nemaha, for the liberal patronage given the oyster supper at Champion Tuesday night.

For Sale—Bay horse, weight 1100, 7 years old, good driver. One buggy, nearly new, also a good set of single harness. See W. E. WHEELDON.

I. N. Vogel of Omaha, deputy for the Royal Achates, was in Nemaha several days last week, and until Tuesday of this week, in the interest of that order.

We have received from Congressman Burkett a copy of Diseases of the Horse, a special report published by the U. S. department of agriculture. It is an excellent work.

Prof. Eugene Howe of Exeter, Neb., arrived in Nemaha Saturday afternoon, called by the serious illness of his father, Seymour Howe. He returned to Exeter Wednesday.

Will Davenport, a former teacher in the Nemaha schools, was shaking hands with his many friends in Nemaha last Saturday. Will has been employed in the stockyards in Chicago for some time.

There will be an oyster supper at the Larkin school house on Saturday, December 12. Price of supper, 15 cents for adults, 10 cents for children. Proceeds for the benefit of school. Every body is invited.

Street Commissioner Zook this week put in 16-inch tilling across the street from the Advertiser office to the livery stable, to carry off the water coming down the ditch on the south side of Washington street.

We humbly apologize to Mrs. W. E. Wheelton for a mistake we made last week. It was Mrs. Earle Gilbert and Mrs. Wheelton that entertained the Rebekahs at the Kensington Saturday afternoon of the week before.

F. L. Woodward has leased the Hoover opera house for the next year and will thoroughly overhaul the same inside and put it in good shape. He will get some good attractions for the remainder of the season, if possible.

Another car load of flour from the Aurora mills just unloaded at the Paris building—the flour that pleases everybody in quality and price. Bran, shorts, chop feed, Graham and corn meal always on hand. Crother, the harness man, will wait on you.
E. L. PARIS.

MRS. THEO HILL

Is closing out her Winter Hats, Ribbons, Tips, and all Winter Millinery. Call and see her for Bargains.

Any one knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle.

Ed Knapp had another little runaway Wednesday. He stepped into the meat market, leaving his dray team standing, and had just got inside the door when the horses started on a run for the barn. They ran into a wagon in front of the little brick house and stopped. No damage was done.

Miss Mae Phillips and Miss Minnie Nelson are holding revival services at the Methodist church this week. Miss Phillips gives some excellent talks and Miss Nelson is a fine singer. Sunday night the house was crowded and a great many had to stand. It is hoped much good will be accomplished by these ladies.

Dr. I. H. Dillon of Auburn and Dr. James Kay of Nemaha operated on Seymour Howe's leg Sunday. The growth on the side of the bone was removed and the decayed pieces of bone were taken out. He rallied from the operation as well as could be expected and is now feeling better, although he is yet very weak. On account of stomach trouble he can take but little nourishment and of course this keeps him very weak.

FOUND

The cheapest place to buy goods.

W. M. Snelling

of St. Deroin, Nebr., Is closing out his stock and will sell on Saturdays for cash at actual cost of goods, with ten per cent added.

Call on him for bargains.

Old papers for sale at this office.

If you want fire insurance, either in old line or mutual companies, call on W. W. Sanders.

HOLIDAY GOODS

We beg to announce to the good people of Nemaha and vicinity that we are now opening the

Largest Best Line of Holiday Goods in the county

WE MEAN IT

There are too many items to even attempt to mention them

Our long experience makes us know your wants. Please call and you will find the Quantity and Variety

AS TO PRICES

The goods were bought right. We pay no rent or clerk hire. We can and will save you money. A visit will convince you

Very respectfully,

M. T. HILL