WANTED

I want to buy a first class large two-year-old mule. JOHN S. STULL, Auburn, Nebr.

The postmaster-general has discontinued the postoffice at Aspinwall, to take effect next Monday, Dec. 14. The patrons of this office should provide boxes and get their mail from the rural mail carrier.

We have received a copy of "The Light of Truth," a monthly paper published at Omaha, by our old friend and former schoolmate, John C. Thompson. John is now a seventh day adventist and publishes a paper to advocate the doctrine of that belief.

About a year ago Miss Stephens had Jim Plasters of Brownville arrested accusing him of being the father of her babe. Jim had his trial this week, before Judge Babcock at Auburn, and was acquitted, the jury bringing in a verdict of not guilty Wednesday night.

The Midland Concert Co. gave a fine entertainment at Hoover's opera house Saturday night—the best that has been in Nemaha for years. The playing of Miss Mae Steinman, violinist, was fine. Miss Emily A. Waterman, reader and impersonator, was good—in fact all four of the ladies composing the quartette were fine. We hope they will visit us again next season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barker drove down to Aspinwall precinct Tuesday and remained over night at the home of Newt Keithly. Their 16-year old son, Willie Keithly, a nephew of Mrs. Barker, is very sick. He became unconscious Tuesday of last week, lying in a stupor for one week, but Tuesday and Tuesday night he was delirious. He is in a dangerous condition.

For a pleasant physic take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Easy to take. Pleasant in effect.—For sale by W. W. Keeling.

O. E. HOUTZ' RESTAURANT

We had the pleasure of attending an oyster supper at Champion school house Tuesday night. The Champion folks are champion cooks and of course we enjoyed the evening very much. We will never miss an opportunity to attend a supper at Champion—especially when we can get four or five handsome young ladies to go with us as was the case Tuesday night.

The W. O. W. elected the following officers Wednesday night:
C. C.—Fuller Burns.
Adv. Lieut.—E. A. Howe.
Secretary—W. W. Seid.
Treasurer—W. H. Barker
Escort—C. P. Scovill.
Watchman—W. F. Keeling
Sentry—J. R. Russell.
Mgr. for 3 years—J. M. Burns.

"The Spinners' Return," given at Hoover's opera house Wednesday night was very successful. The ladies who had recently returned from Alaska, gave their experience in securing a husband in a very life like manner. The hall was well filled, the receipts being about $32. The proceeds go to the Christmas tree fund of the Methodist Sunday school.

Our rural route carriers are considerably bothered by the repairs on the bridge south of town. T. J. Rumbaugh, carrier on route 1, has to go about three miles farther each day to make his round, and W. S. Maxwell, carrier on route 2, has to leave his team on the other side of the river, at D. G. Keister's, and takes it on foot the rest of the way. It is hoped the contractor will rush matters and get the bridge in shape to cross as soon as possible.

Friday of last week V. P. Peabody had five men husking corn and they made a fine record. Cyrus Minick, who has never husked corn until this fall, got out 72 bushels. Lee Devers did a little better, with 85 bushels, Scott Colerick got out 90. Bert Thorn husked 106, and John Knapp 150 bushels. All of these men drove to the crib and unloaded their corn. This is an average of over 100 bushels each for the five men. Now let the fast corn huskers come on.

A man at Farragut, Ia., has made a wager that he can shuck 200 bushels of corn in ten hours. He has placed $200 up in the hands of a friend and the bet has been taken. New his friends offer to wager one or two hundred more that he can win the bet. The man is to work five hours each day and the corn is very good in the field that he has selected to work in.

Yesterday near Farragut, Ia., a farm hand husked 200 bushels and 55 pounds of corn in 9 hours and 55 minutes on a wager of $100. He selected the field of corn he wanted to work in which averaged about 70 bushels to the acre. When he completed the work he offered to wager all the money he had earned that he could husk 210 bushels of corn today provided the day was as favorable as it was yesterday.—Neb. City Tribune.

Ran A Ten Penny Nail Through His Hand.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed.—For sale by W. W. Keeling.

Catarrh of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucus instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called catarrh of the stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R. Rhea, Coppell, Tex. Sold by W. W. Keeling.

Traveling is Dangerous

Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much, suffer from kidney disease in some form. Foley's Kidney Cure strengthens the kidneys and cures all forms of kidney and bladder disease. Geo. E. Hausan locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes, "Constant vibration of the engine caused me a great deal of trouble with my kidneys, and I got no relief until I used Foley's Kidney Cure.—M T Hill.

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness.—M T Hill.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley, "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for the same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by W. W. Keeling.

A Lesson in Health

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system.—M T Hill.

You never heard any one using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied.—M T Hill.
