 FRIDAY, DEC. 18, 1903.

W. C. Moore and family were near Nemaha Saturday and Sunday at the home of Seymour Howe. Mr. Howe is critically ill, with stomach trouble, and also with a sore leg, probably the result of a bruise, which necessitated a surgical operation a short time ago. Mrs. Moore remained during the week. —Stella Press.

A Washington dispatch says: Congressman Burkett, of Nebraska, occupied the speaker's chair temporarily. Mr. Burkett is a personal friend of Speaker Cannon, and as the latter has a high regard for his abilities it is said that the Nebraska congressman may be called upon frequently to take the chair.

The Favorite, is the name of a new restaurant that has been started by the Chambers Bros., in the room north of the First National bank building that was formerly occupied by the Star grocery. The proprietors are bustling young fellows and will undoubtedly make a success of their venture. —Auburn Herald.

Quite a number of horse owners in this vicinity are troubled over a visitation of pink-eye which is afflicting the horses. The disease has spread so rapidly in the past few days that it has become an epidemic. As yet no animals have been lost, but the condition they are left in by the ailment impairs their value. —Auburn Herald.

We regret to learn that our popular druggist, J. D. Rainey, contemplates going to Auburn in the near future, where he will embark in the drug business on the south side of the court house. The stock, however, will remain in Brownville and the business will be conducted for the present by R. T. Rainey. —Brownville Biograph.

Several county treasurers who remitted too much school fund money to the state treasurer last year probably will experience a great deal of difficulty in getting the surplus cash returned. Last winter the legislature ordered the matter straightened by drawing warrants against the permanent fund, but Treasurer Mortensen has decided to refuse to comply with the order, asserting that the fund is inviolate and cannot be drawn against under any circumstance whatever. His position is that no matter if thousands of dollars should be annexed to the fund through mistake, not a penny of it could be withdrawn. The well known banker's sign, "No mistakes rectified" is conspicuously displayed over the treasurer's desk.

"King Corn" has made J. A. Rader, who lives on the Dr. Neal farm on Honey Creek, three land ones-half miles south of Peru this county, his favorite.

Mr. Rader is, without doubt, the champion corn raiser in the State of Nebraska this year. He has a patch of corn in one of his fields that made an average yield of 106 1/4 bushels to the acre.

The corn that made this phenomenal yield was a pure white corn of the "Tucker" variety. In this office can be seen a dozen ears of the corn. Their weight, after having been picked a month and thoroughly dried out, is 16 pounds. The corn is of remarkable purity, the ears being long, well proportioned and well filled and the kernels being of great depth.

That Mr. Rader is an intelligent corn raiser is determined by the productivity of his fields. Out of 80 acres of corn this year he gathered 4,500 bushels. We are of the opinion that there are few fields in the state that have yielded as generously as this.

His corn is so good, so uniform and pure that he will make a collection of sample ears from the field and enter them in a contest for prizes at the state corn show and the possibilities are that Nemaha county corn will be on exhibition at the World's fair at St. Louis next year, in competition with the corn of other states and countries for the championship of the world. —Auburn Herald.

The Delineator for January contains many topics of interest to the housewife, particularly if she presides in the kitchen. "A Russian Dinner" illustrates some attractive novelties in table service which will appeal especially at this season of elaborate dinner entertainment. New and unique dinner dishes are described by Isabel R. Wallach, and Jane E. Clemmens has a number of enticing receipts utilizing nuts of various kinds. "From An Experience Note-Book" includes useful suggestions for many departments of the household. There is also an instructive article on the carving of meats, and other matters of importance in the household.

The December number of the House-keeper, brings with it a breath of Christmas in the bright cover with its holly and mistletoe surrounding the Christmas scene, and its inside pages are full of holiday hints and suggestions. May C. Ringwait has a charming story about "The Detection of Santa Claus." "A Neighborhood Romance," by Eliza Orne White, is the title of the installment of the "Spinners Three" series of stories. Mrs. Hiller tell "How to Prepare a Christmas Dinner," and gives some practical hints on carving a turkey. "Adown the Year," is a novel Christmas entertainment for Sunday schools, and there is an article on Christmas gifts which children can make. The regular departments are represented by the usual number of practical and timely hints which have given this magazine its enviable fame of "The Magazine of Helpfulness."

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.
 There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.
