If you want fire insurance, either in old line or mutual companies, call on W. W. Sanders.

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness—M T Hill.

G. W. Hawxby has accepted the agency for the well and favorably known garden and field seeds of Henry Field, seedman, Shenandoah, Iowa. Will expects to call on every family in this part of the county before planting time and those desiring any kind of seeds will make no mistake in giving him your order.

The day before Christmas Mrs. A. R. McCandless suggested that it would be a nice thing for the congregation of the M E church to show their appreciation of Rev. M. S. Foutch's labors among us by giving a donation of useful articles. The suggestion met with favor and through the efforts of Mrs. McCandless and two or three other ladies a box was well filled with such articles as a sack of flour, sugar, coffee, tea, etc.

Saturday morning Steve Colerick drove up in front of the postoffice with a load of wheat and left his team standing without being tied while he went in the store. The horses were feeling good and got restless. One of them finally got part way on the sidewalk and this seemed to frighten them, so they started to run, making a short turn and almost upsetting the wagon and then running south nearly four blocks to the corner of A. R. McCandless' home, where they ran into a tree and stopped. A few broken straps on the harness and a very little wheat spilled were the only damages.

The first number of the Midland Lyceum course, the chalk talk by Prof. Zwickey, was given at the opera house Tuesday evening. Prof. Zwickey is an accomplished artist as well as an entertainer. With no materials but a few pieces of crayon and a white sheet of paper he produced with lightning rapidity beautiful paintings in color, the "Sunset" and the "Return of the Flock" being perhaps the most striking. A number of humorous caricatures added to the pleasure of the entertainment. All present express themselves delighted with the entertainment and if the numbers to follow can be judged by what we have already had we have all reason to congratulate ourselves on the course secured.—Wausa (Nebr.) Gazette, Oct. 8.

The pastor and family of the Methodist church of Brownville and Nemaha charge desire to tender their most sincere thanks and appreciation to the good people of Nemaha for their kind remembrance, by their valuable gifts at their Christmas tree; and also the good people of Brownville for their token of friendship between Christmas and New Years in the way of a nice chamber set, bearing the following message: "A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, to Mr. and Mrs. Foutch," and signed Brownville.

Brethren, sisters, and friends, we wish to say the fact that you found things to fit so well, is evidence that the good people of this charge are keeping an eye on the interests and needs of the parsonage, and its occupants will be well cared for by you.

A Happy New Year to you all and may God's blessings of basket and store be added unto you the coming year; and may His Holy Spirit lead us all to a close walk with our Savior in the coming future.

Yours for Christ's Kingdom,
MR. AND MRS. FOUTCH.

Tecumseh, Neb., Dec. 18 —The adjourned session of the district court for Johnson county has closed and Judge J. S. Stull has returned to his home in Auburn. This is probably the last session of court the Judge will ever hold in this county for new judges go on the bench with the new year. The Johnson county bar association adopted the following resolutions, a copy of which was presented to Judge Stull:

"Be it resolved by the bar of Johnson county, Nebraska, That we hereby express to Hon. J. S. Stull our appreciation of the fairness, dignity, and integrity he has always shown in the eight years that he has presided over this court. We know that the office requires the highest ability and integrity for its proper administration and we wish to express our satisfaction with the manner in which Judge Stull has filled the position. During the long period in which he has occupied the bench, his aim and effort has been to see that crime was punished, the innocent protected, and that even and exact justice was accorded to every litigant. We therefore tender him our sincere thanks for his service in the past and assure him that our earnest good wishes are with him in his future career; be it further

Resolved, That a signed copy of these resolutions be presented to Judge Stull and that we ask the incoming judges to cause the same to be spread at length upon the records of this court

Dated December 17, 1903.

JAY C. MOORE, Secretary.

Traveling is Dangerous

Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much, suffer from kidney disease in some form. Foley's Kidney Cure strengthens the kidneys and cures all forms of kidney and bladder disease. Geo. E. Hausan locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes, "Constant vibration of the engine caused me a great deal of trouble with my kidneys, and I got no relief until I used Foley's Kidney Cure.—M T Hill.

For Sale—Seven fine thoroughbred male Poland-China hogs.

SECRET & CO.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley, "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for the same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. THE NEW AND ENLARGED EDITION OF WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY

Excels in Vocabulary which is the most useful in size and contents. It is judiciously selected to exclude corruptions of good usage, and to avoid unintelligible technicalities.

Excels in Arrangement, giving words their correct alphabetical places. Each word begins a paragraph and is readily caught by the eye.

Excels in Etymologies. These are complete and scientific, and embody the best results of philology. They are not cramped or crowded into obscure places.

Excels in Pronunciation which is indicated by respelling with the diacritically marked letters used in the schoolbooks, the sounds of which are taught in the public schools.

Excels in Definitions. They are clear, terse, yet complete, and are given in the order in which the word has acquired its shades of meaning. Many of the definitions are illustrated.

Excels in its Appendix which is a packed storehouse of useful knowledge.

Excels as a Working Dictionary. No other book embodies so much useful information, is so valuable and convenient for consultation, or so indispensable in the home, study, school, or office.

The International has 2364 quarto pages with 5000 illustrations. 25,000 new words and phrases have recently been added under the supervision of W. T. Harris, Ph.D., LL.D., U. S. Commissioner of Education.

LET US SEND YOU FREE "A Test in Pronunciation" which affords a pleasant and instructive evening's entertainment. Illustrated pamphlet also free. G. & C. MERRIAM CO., Springfield, Mass.
