What is Foley's Kidney Cure?
Answer: It is made from a prescription of a leading Chicago physician, and one of the most eminent in the country. The ingredients are the purest that money can buy, and are scientifically combined to get the best results.—M T Hill.

Ran A Ten Penny Nail Through His d.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed.—For sale by W. W. Keeling.

SAVED SAVED

This fine comedy society drama will be given by Harry Kimmel, the sterling young actor, assisted by local talent, at Hoover's opera house on Saturday night of this week. This is a fine play and will be well rendered. It is one of the best society dramas written. Admission, 15, 25 and 35 cents. Reserved seat tickets on sale at Keeling's drug store. Doors open at 7:30; curtain rises at 8:30.

Last Sunday afternoon Ole Roberts and Frank Harford were sleighriding when one of the horses was struck on the ankle by the sleigh. This started them to running, and they ran from near the home of Frank Titus, in the west part of town, almost to David Frazier's house before Ole got them stopped. One of the horse's ankles was badly bruised.

Seymour Howe has bought three lots in block 39, across the street east from Dr. Keeling's home, and has let the contract to Joe Bunger for the erection of a five room cottage. Work will be commenced at once. As soon as the house is completed Mr. Howe will move to town. Ambrose Howe will run the farm this year.

Last Monday night the young folks gave Alfred Rowen a surprise party, on the occasion of his birthday. The event was a total surprise to Alfred but was none the less heartily enjoyed by him and by all those present.

And still they come. As I came up to my friend W. T. Kear's box the other day I found two rabbits already dressed. I didn't do anything but take them along and when served were very fine.

ESTRAY NOTICE

Came to my place Sunday, January 10, 1904, a red heifer calf with white spot in forehead, weighing about 400 pounds. Owner can have same by paying charges for keeping and advertising the same.
W. W. SEID.

Just About Bedtime
take a Little Early Riser—it will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are different from other pills. They do not gripe and break down the mucous membrane of the stomach, liver and bowels, but cure by gently arousing the secretions and giving strength to these organs. Sold by W. W. Keeling.

Traveling is Dangerous

Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much, suffer from kidney disease in some form. Foley's Kidney Cure strengthens the kidneys and cures all forms of kidney and bladder disease. Geo. E. Hausan locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes, "Constant vibration of the engine caused me a great deal of trouble with my kidneys, and I got no relief until I used Foley's Kidney Cure.—M T Hill.

Will Cure Consumption

A A Herren of Finch, Ark. writes, "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stage.—M T Hill.

A Lesson in Health

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system.—M T Hill.

A New Invention

Minick's Field Corn Husking Machine husks the corn from the stalk, leaving stalks standing in the field. Exclusive state and manufacturer's right for sale by the inventor and patentee. Correspondence solicited. Address
44 H. T. MINICK, Nemaha, Neb.

Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and can safely be given to children—M. T. Hill
