The weather turned very much warmer Thursday night of last week, and the snow went off with a rush the next day. The gutters were filled with water and low places flooded. The next night it turned cold, leaving the roads in very bad shape.

A few days ago Steve Cooper started to get out of a wagon, his foot slipped and he fell heavily to the ground, striking on his head and bruising his face badly. He was unconscious about three hours and his face was badly discolored for several days.

Another car load of flour from the Aurora mills just unloaded at the Paris building—the flour that pleases everybody in quality and price. Bran, shorts, chop feed, Graham and corn meal always on hand. Crother, the harness man, will wait on you.

E. L. PARIS.

What is Foley's Kidney Cure?
Answer: It is made from a prescription of a leading Chicago physician, and one of the most eminent in the country. The ingredients are the purest that money can buy, and are scientifically combined to get the best results.—M T Hill.

Ran A Ten Penny Nail Through His d.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed.—For sale by W. W. Keeling.

The Madrigal Concert Co. will give an entertainment at Hoover's opera house Thursday evening, March 3rd. This is the last entertainment given by the syndicate lecture bureau of Nemaha and should be liberally patronized by our citizens. The company is fine. Do not fail to see them.

Married—At the Lutheran parsonage South Auburn, Nebraska, on Wednesday afternoon, February 10, 1904, by the Rev. W. Dieffenbach, Mr. John C. Strain to Miss Eva Lulu Liebhart, both of Nemaha, Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Strain have the best wishes of The Advertiser for a long and happy married life.

Charley Howe had a little runaway Wednesday morning. He had started to town with his wife, driving a span of mules to a buggy, when the train came along and scared the mules. They ran a short distance over a field of fall plowing. Charley got them stopped before they went far, but not before they had broken out two spokes and bent the front axle of the buggy.

The Auburn merchants are circulating petitions throughout the county asking the commissioners to spend large sums of money in improving the roads to Auburn. In other words, they want the rest of the county to pay for Auburn's improvements, and neglect our own roads. It doesn't take much gall to make this request—not for Auburn people.

Harry Kimmel, assisted by local talent, gave the drama "Saved" at Hoover's opera house Saturday night. The play was fine, and was well rendered. Mr. Kimmel is a finished actor and was well supported by the local talent. Miss Florence Minick made an excellent Mrs. Merriweather, and Cyrus Minick as Rivola, Will F. Sanders as Geo. Fane, Miss Cora Haith as Mrs. Fane, Theo Hill as Joseph and Lala Hill as Trixy were all good. Miss Maye Gaither gave some excellent music on the piano. Between acts there was a solo by Cyrus Minick, a duet by Misses Edith and Lala Hill and a solo by Mr. Kimmel.
