Wednesday was a very warm day until about 3 o'clock, when a cold wind began to blow, and in a very short time it was uncomfortably cold. The sudden change was very disagreeable.

Seymour Howe's condition remains about the same except that he is gradually growing weaker. He sleeps most of the time and does not notice much that is going on. He is under the influence of narcotics all the time to keep him from suffering so severely.

A Lesson in Health
Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system.—M T Hill.

Ran A Ten Penny Nail Through His d.
While opening a box, J. C. Mount of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed.—For sale by W. W. Keeling.

Just About Bedtime
take a Little Early Riser—it will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are different from other pills. They do not gripe and break down the mucus membrane of the stomach, liver and bowels, but cure by gently arousing the secretions and giving strength to these organs. Sold by W. W. Keeling.

Rev. Foutch of Brownville received a telegram last Saturday stating that a younger brother had been dangerously injured in a railroad wreck in Iowa. Mr. Foutch left that afternoon for his brother's bedside. Rev. J. W. Perkins filled the pulpit at the Methodist church here Sunday morning. No services were held in the evening.

Married—At the Lutheran parsonage, South Auburn, Nebraska, on Wednesday afternoon, March 2, 1904, by the Rev. W. Dieffenbach, Mr. Pleasant M. Swan of Nemaha to Miss Maud L. Huston of South Auburn. The groom is commonly known as "Dick" Swan. Mr. and Mrs. Swan have our best wishes and heartiest congratulations.

Considerable excitement was created Wednesday evening during the high wind, by the cry that Fuller Burns' house was on fire. A crowd quickly gathered on the scene, when it was found that the chimney was burning out. The fire soon died down and the people went home. If a house had caught fire that night it would not have lasted long the way the wind was blowing.

Mrs. Dora Shubert, wife of James Shubert, died at her home in Nemaha Monday night, Feb. 29, 1904. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. W. Sapp, were held at the Christian church Wednesday at 10 o'clock a. m. The body was buried in the Nemaha cemetery.

The deceased, formerly Miss Dora McNinch, has lived many years in this community. She leaves a husband, a babe only nine days old, parents, brother and many friends to mourn her departure.

All parties owing the Nemaha cemetery association, either by notes, for lots or otherwise, are hereby notified to settle with the treasurer, J. I. Dressler, at once, as the money is needed for cleaning up the cemetery and making improvements.

All parties owning lots in the cemetery, must remove all native trees on their lots at once or the association will have it done at expense of lot owners.
By order of Association.

Several people from here attended Rank Lytle's sale last Friday. No horses were sold but cattle, hogs and farming implements went readily. Mr. Lytle has rented 580 acres of land three and one half miles from Broken Arrow, I. T., 300 acres being under cultivation. Chas Bright, jr., is to have part of this and Amos Timers man is to go down to assist in farming it. Mrs. Lytle will remain here a short time.—Prairie Union notes in the Stella Press.

Traveling is Dangerous
Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much, suffer from kidney disease in some form. Foley's Kidney Cure strengthens the kidneys and cures all forms of kidney and bladder disease. Geo. E. Hausan locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes, "Constant vibration of the engine caused me a great deal of trouble with my kidneys, and I got no relief until I used Foley's Kidney Cure.—M T Hill.

BETTER THAN GOLD
I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F G Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began taking Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50 c Satisfaction guaranteed by Keeling's Drug Store.

World-Wide Reputation
White's Cream Vermifuge has achieved a world wide reputation as being the best of worm destroyers, and for its tonic influence on weak and unthrifty children, as it neutralizes the acidity or sourness of the stomach, improves the digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens the nervous system and restores them to the health vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at Hill's.

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness.—M T Hill.
