

Eight Years of Torture.

No suffering more keen than kidney suffering. Sick kidneys make bad blood; cause weak, stiff and aching backs; cause blind, sick and dizzy headaches, lack of appetite and loss of sleep; keep you all tired out and spoil digestion.

one man was cured by Doan's Kidney Pills after eight years of torture: Henry Soule, of Pultney St., Hammondsport, N. Y., says: "For eight years I suffered constant agony from kidney complaint. I endured the worst torture from gravel and the kidney secretions were excessive and contained sediment like brick dust. I had to get out of bed from ten to twenty times a night and the loss of sleep wore me out. Indigestion came on and the distress after eating was terrible. Doan's Kidney Pills effected a complete and lasting cure, and after the symptoms of kidney trouble were gone my stomach began to work as it should. This lasting cure, especially in a person of my age, proves the great value of Doan's Kidney Pills more convincingly than could any words of mine."

KING EDWARD SENDS HIS BEST LAND

A cablegram from London, to George W. Stewart, manager of the world's fair Music Bureau, announces that King Edward has given his approval to the participation of the Royal Grenadier band of London in the world's fair musical program. This band of 65 pieces will give two concerts daily for six weeks beginning August 29. Eight band stands have been planned, some of them designed to accommodate massed bands of 250 musicians. Other bands will come from Mexico, France, Germany and other countries.

Dr. George Dock, a professor of medicine in the University of Michigan, gave an address before the Johns Hopkins Hospital Medical Society, Jan 4, on "Vaccination and Vaccine Virus." The historical aspect of the subject was illustrated by a large number of lantern slides, showing the most important pictorial representations of the vaccine vesicle from the time of Jenner. This was followed by a description of the modern method of cultivating vaccine virus, with a discussion of sterilization, the comparative virtues of different kinds of vaccine, and some of the short comings of the vaccine industry in the United States.

DOCTOR DID IT.

Put on 36 lbs. by Food. Feed a physician back to health and he gains an experience that he can use to benefit others. For this reason Grape-Nuts food is daily recommended to patients by hundreds of physicians who have cured themselves of stomach trouble. One doctor says: "Although a physician and trying to aid and assist my fellow beings to enjoy good health it must be admitted I formerly did not enjoy the best of health myself. In January, 1899, I only weighed 119 pounds. At this time I was living in the Ohio valley and began to think I had about seen my best days. One day about 3 years ago I had an opportunity to try Grape-Nuts food for my breakfast. I liked it so well that I ate three teaspoonfuls three times a day and have regularly used it up to the present time, and I now weigh 155, a gain of 36 pounds, and enjoy the best of health.

"Not only has Grape-Nuts made this wonderful change in me, but through it I have helped my friends, relatives and patients. The sustaining power of this food is simply wonderful. "I have one patient who is a section hand on the C. & O. R. R., who eats nothing in the morning but four tablespoonfuls of Grape-Nuts and yet does his very hard work up to lunch time and enjoys the best of health and strength.

"I could name a great many cases like this and I still prescribe Grape-Nuts in my practice every day." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Ask any physician about the scientific principles on which Grape-Nuts food is made. He'll tell you the principles are perfect.

Then a 10 days' trial proves that the principles are carried out in the food ("all the good of the grains so treated that anyone can digest it all"). Shown to renewed physical strength and brain energy.

GOOD Short Stories

Among the office-seekers who came before President Harrison, was one who wanted to represent the United States at Yokohama. "Do you speak Japanese?" asked the President. The applicant faltered; then said he did. "Well," said the President, "let me hear you speak it." "All right! Ask me something in Japanese."

In Provo, Utah, there dwells a vegetarian with whom Senator Reed Smoot loves to argue. The vegetarian declared, during one of their heated debates, that one should not eat eggs, even, as they hatch into meat, and therefore are meat. "Well," said the senator, "the kind of eggs I eat wouldn't hatch into meat. I eat them jolled—not raw."

Vigor of speech was a characteristic of Judge Burr, of Connecticut, who lately resigned from the bench on account of deafness. A New Haven lawyer once introduced to Judge Burr an almost unknown but very self-confident novelist, whose good opinion of himself has been justified since by events. In his conversation with the judge, he did not fail to make known his estimate of his own brilliancy. Judge Burr observed the young man closely and sternly. Finally he said: "So you expect to be famous some day, eh?" "Some day," said the young man, "I expect to have the world at my feet." "What have you been doing all this time," said the judge, "walking on your hands?"

While stories were going the rounds at the Lambs' Club, one night, Francis Wilson contributed one about a leading man of a theatrical company that had become stranded at Saginaw. The leading man installed himself at a hotel, and lived a precarious life, while waiting for remittances. One morning, he rang the bell in his room for half an hour. Nobody answered. Then he went out in the hall, leaned over the railing, and called: "Boy! Oh, boy!" "What is it?" snarled a bell-boy from the lobby beneath. "Have you seen anything of my laundry?" "Aw, gwan!" said the boy; "you ain't had but one shirt since you've been here." "That," said the actor, with great dignity, "is the one to which I refer."

The following remarkable essay of the horse is said to be from the pen of an Indian student: "The horse is a very noble quadruped, but when he is angry he will not do so. He is ridden on the spinal cord by the bridle, and sadly the driver places his feet on the stirrups, and divides his lower limbs across the saddle and drives his animal to the meadow. He has four legs; two are on the front side and two are afterward. These are the weapons on which he runs. He also defends himself by extending these in the rear in a parallel direction toward his foe but this he does only when he is in an aggravating mood. There is no animal like the horse. No sooner they see their guardian or master than they always cry for food, but it is always at the morning time. They have goat tails, but not so long as the cow and such other like animals."

MUST HEED GOOD DECORUM.

Guests at an Alaska Hotel Are Explored to Observe Certain Rules. One of the best known of the early settlers of Alaska is Captain Mayo who has recently started a bunkhouse at Rampart in that territory. A friend of his received a letter from him announcing the fact of his venture, written soberly and with dignity as befits the old frontiersman. The letterhead however, was unique. It is set in paragraphs, three in a line, and is as follows:

"Captain Mayo's Saloon and Choy House.

"The Best Bunk House North o Mexico. First class in every particular. Every known fluid, water excepted, for sale at the bar. Private entrance for ladies by ladder in the rear. Fire escapes through the chimney. Electric lights throughout last Summer. Do Hodgkin, Medical Examiner. Rates one ounce per day.

"Indians and niggers charged extra. Special rates to ministers and th gambling 'profess.'"

"Among the gems of the house rule are the following:

"Guests will be provided with breakfast and dinner, but must rustle their own lunch.

"Dogs not allowed in bunks.

"Candles and hot water charged extra.

"Towels changed weekly."

"As hints to guests are the following printed instructions.

"Craps, chuck-a-luck, horse poker and blackjack run by the management.

"Dogs bought and sold.

"Insect powder for sale at the bar.

"Always notify the bartender the extent of your poke."

It's easier to pull your ideals down than it is to live up to them.

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME Are Never Without Peruna in the House for Catarrhal Diseases.

MR. AND MRS. J. O. ATKINSON, INDEPENDENCE, MO.

UNDER date of January 10, 1897, Dr. Hartman received the following letter: "My wife had been suffering from a complication of diseases for the past 25 years. "Her case had baffled the skill of some of the most noted physicians. One of her worst troubles was chronic constipation of several years' standing. "She also was passing through that most critical period in the life of a woman—change of life. In June, 1895, I wrote to you about her case. You advised a course of Peruna and Mandlin, which we at once commenced, and have to say it completely cured her. She firmly believes that she would have been dead only for these wonderful remedies. "About the same time I wrote you about my own case of catarrh, which had been of 25 years' standing. At times I was almost past going. I commenced to use Peruna according to your instructions and continued its use for about a year, and it has completely cured me. "Your remedies do all that you claim for them, and even more. Catarrh cannot exist where Peruna is taken according to directions. Success to you and your remedies." John O. Atkinson.

In a letter dated January 1, 1900, Mr. Atkinson says, after five years' experience with Peruna: "I will ever continue to speak a good word for Peruna. In my rounds as a traveling man I am a walking advertisement for Peruna and have induced many people during the past year to use Peruna with the most satisfactory results. I am still cured of catarrh." John O. Atkinson, Independence, Mo.

Box 272. When old age comes on, catarrhal diseases come also. Systemic catarrh is almost universal in old people. This explains why Peruna has become so indispensable to old people. Peruna is their safeguard. Peruna is the only remedy yet devised that meets these cases exactly. Such cases cannot be treated locally; nothing but an effective systemic remedy could cure them. This is exactly what Peruna is. If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

A Late Business Call—"Curious what men will do when they're drinking," said Representative "Tim" Sullivan. "In New York I heard a story about a man I know who had been out nearly all night, and was considerably the worse for wear.

"He came along a street and saw an undertaker's sign, with a night bell, just over a speaking tube. He rung the bell fiercely.

"What is it?" yelled he undertaker; down the tube "What do you want?"

"Nothing in particular," the chap replied; "only I want to say to you that you're the last man I'd do business with."—Philadelphia Telegraph.
