Next Monday night is the annual school meeting, which will be held at the school house.

Amaziah Johnson, deputy for the Royal Highlanders, was a Nemaha visitor Thursday.

Dr. Keeling returned from St. Louis Monday afternoon. He says he had a good time at the fair.

August Quiller and D. H. Clark shipped a car of hogs and cattle to Kansas City Monday night.

John B. Seid of Auburn visited his sons, W. W. and J. H. Seid, from Saturday until Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Littrell went to Omaha Wednesday to visit Mrs. Littrell's brother for a few days.

Harry and Flossie Parker of Auburn are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Berger, this week.

Ed Sanders of London precinct has been engaged to teach the Walnut Grove school the coming year.

Miss Hazel Parker of Auburn visited her cousin, Miss Nellie Sanders, from Saturday until Wednesday.

Mrs. D. A. Morton was some better the first of the week, but is feeling worse again. She is very weak.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Curtwright, who have been visiting their son, Walter Curtwright, returned home Sunday.

The freight from the north now runs through to Atchison again. For a while it has been stopping at Falls City.

Rev. J. W. Sapp will preach at the Christian church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m., and at Champion school house at 3 p. m.

Miss Grace Gipson pleased the audience at the Methodist church Sunday night by giving two solos—"The Holy City" and "Face to Face."

Those desiring lessons in voice culture please call on Mrs. Earle Gilbert for prices, dates, etc.

GRACE GIPSON.

I have 100 acres of good pasture and will take cattle or horses at $1 per month. F. L. COLLIN. 3 miles south of Nemaha.

S. C. French came over from Auburn Monday afternoon with a fine Huntington piano and put it in the opera house for the benefit of the Quartet Entertainers.

Mr. Epley of Lincoln was in Nemaha Wednesday and Thursday, collecting data for the forthcoming history of Nebraska which was started by the late J. Sterling Morton.

F. W. Samuelson of Humboldt, one of the incorporators and for many years president of the First National bank of Auburn, has gone into bankruptcy. Too much speculation.

John S. Stevenson and John M. Demaree of Auburn were Nemaha visitors Thursday and gave us a social call. Stevenson denies that he came down to attend the negro minstrels.

Mrs. C. W. Roberts arrived home last week after a visit at Kansas City with her son Clyde and at Eskridge, Kansas, with her brother, A. J. Skeen, and her mother. Her mother came home with her.

A Brownville man drove down to Nemaha with a lot of new potatoes Thursday, but was greatly surprised to find that we had potatoes to sell just as nice as any raised anywhere. The Nemaha gardeners are not excelled anywhere.

A. R. McCandless is having some changes made on his house. He has had the porch on the south enclosed, making a nice room, and has had another porch built on the south, and has also had one built on the west the full length of the house.

The children's day services at the Methodist church Sunday night were very interesting. The program, entitled "Heirs of Tomorrow," was finely rendered. Many thanks are due Mrs. Elmer E. Allen and Mrs. Earle Gilbert for training the children. The house was crowded.

We had a heavy rainfall Friday night, two and a half inches of rain falling. The bridge in the west part of town was washed out. John Farnson's house was flooded. Considerable corn was washed out or covered up Monday night we had another rain, but not so hard here.

Hon. Norris Brown, republican candidate for attorney general, has been secured as orator for the old settlers' picnic which is to be held at Nemaha August 25th. This means that the oratorical part of the program will be superb, as Mr. Brown is both a scholar and an orator.—Granger.

At a meeting of the members of the cemetery association last Friday Elmer E. Allen was elected trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Seymour Howe. The board of trustees now consists of Peter Kerker, F. L. Woodward, John I. Dressler, W. W. Sanders and Elmer E. Allen.

The people of Nemaha county can rejoice over the fact that our new court house is paid for, and the fellows that opposed voting bonds because we would be voting an indebtedness on our children and grandchildren and great grandchildren have forgotten that they ever made any such predictions.

The entertainment given Monday night by the Quartette Entertainers of Beatrice was fine. Birdie O. Miller is a fine elocutionist and was frequently encored. Miss Mabel Starn delighted the audience with her vocal solos. Misses Frona and Viola Clarke the twin sisters, gave some excellent piano duets. Unfortunately, on account of rain late in the evening and threatening storm, the audience was small. The quartette was deserving of a full house.

Geo. Green and Geo. Kittell came up from Oklahoma Wednesday morning with the body of Mrs. John J. Green.

The Quartet Entertainers at the opera house here June 20 were delighted with the Huntington piano, they said, because of its pure, clear, singing qualities.

Strawberries are about all gone, but we are well supplied with cherries. Every cherry tree seems to be loaded with the finest kind of fruit. Gooseberries are also plentiful.

"Papa's Boy Co." gave two good performances at the opera house Wednesday and Thursday night. There was not much to the plays presented except fun, but plenty of that.

T. J. Rumbaugh reports the following donations from the patrons of Route No. 1: Fred Hoover, two boxes of strawberries; Eugene Bonhotel, a pail of cherries and Ben Colerick a pail of cherries.

John Watson brought us in a box of strawberries last Saturday that surpass any we have seen this year for size. All of them measure four and five inches in circumference. His berries were very fine this year.

Miss Dora Morton, one of the successful competitors in the Auburn Post's world's fair contest, had intended going to St. Louis Monday, but on account of her mother's sickness was compelled to postpone her trip.

Nemaha has had an abundance of shows this week. Monday night we had the Quartette Entertainers. Wednesday and Thursday nights "Papa's Boy Co." and Thursday and Friday nights Lacey's, Negro Minstrels, the latter performance being in a tent.

Chancellor Andrews of the state university will be the orator of the day at Auburn on the 4th of July. The 30th infantry band from Ft. Crook will furnish music. There will also be plantation melodies by colored jubilee singers, athletic events, and other attractions.

Mrs. J. M. Sanders drove to Brownville last Sunday to see her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John G. Sanders, and her little grandson, Paul G. Sanders, who came down from Aberdeen, South Dakota, a few days ago, to visit their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schantz.

This week The Advertiser begins on volume forty-nine. Forty-eight years ago this month the first copy of The Advertiser was issued at Brownville, the material having been brought out from Tippecanoe, Ohio, by John McPherson. R. W. Furnas, who is yet living at Brownville, and who has probably done more for the state than any other one man, was the first editor. The Advertiser is the oldest paper of the state of continuous publication. The present editor bought the paper in 1884.

The Christian Sunday school last Sunday elected the following officers: Mrs. Belle Barker, Supt. Wm Smiley, Ass't Supt. Eddie Maxwell, Sec'y Maud Burns, Ass't Sec'y L. A. Lawhon, Treas. Claud Maxwell, Librarian Ethel Sherwood, Ass't Lib'n Maye Gaitber, Organist

F. L. Woodward returned home Tuesday after a trip to Denver and the western part of Nebraska. He saw Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Monteith and J. M. Workman and family, who are living in Chase county, and says they are doing well. Both have good prospects for large crops. Mr. Monteith has 320 acres of land, and has in 120 acres of corn and 30 acres of millet, and is doing all the work himself. Jim Workman has a fine quarter section with a good orchard—the best in that section.

The body of Mrs. John J. Green arrived at Howe Wednesday morning and was brought to the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary Kittell, near Nemaha, where the funeral was held Thursday afternoon, and the body laid at rest in the Nemaha cemetery. The following obituary notice has been handed us:

Sarah Bennett, daughter of Lionel and Celia Bennett, was born at Foster, Rhode Island, about 70 years ago. In early life she was married to Benjamin Card, who died of consumption four years later.

At the age of twenty-six she became the wife of John Green, and removed with him to Nebraska more than thirty years ago, living on a farm two and one-half miles northwest from Nemaha. In the fall of 1900, with her husband, adopted son and family, she left Nebraska for Custer Co., Oklahoma. While in Nebraska, typhoid fever undermined her naturally strong constitution, and the breaking of an abscess on her lungs, followed by paralysis, ended her life June 17, 1904.

Her remains were forwarded to the home of her twin sister, Mrs. Mary Kittell, to be laid at rest in the Nemaha cemetery.

Mrs. Green was a plain, unassuming woman, a kind neighbor, a true friend. Many of her Nebraska friends will long remember, with gratitude and love, her kindly ministrations in times of sickness or trouble. At the great day of reckoning, may it be said of her, "She hath done what she could."

Every housekeeper should know that if they will buy Defiance Cold Water Starch for laundry use they will save not only time, because it never sticks to the iron, but because each package contains 16 oz.—one full pound—while all other Cold Water Starches are put up in 2½ pound packages and the price is the same, 10 cents. Then again because Defiance Starch is free from all injurious chemicals. If your grocer tries to sell you a 12-oz. package it is because he has a stock on hand which he wishes to dispose of before he puts in Defiance. He knows that the Defiance Starch has printed on every package in large letters and figures "16 ozs". Demand Defiance and save much time and money and the annoyance of the iron sticking. Defiance never sticks.

A Thoughtful Man

M. M. Austin of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr King's New Life pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at Keeling's

Gained Forty Pounds in Thirty Days
For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in flesh. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the Tablets.—Holley Bros. oMerchants, Long Branch, Mo. For sale by W W Keeling.
