Dragging Pains

2925 Keeley St., CHICAGO, ILL., Oct., 2, 1902.

I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groins. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not, for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Maudie Bush

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.

Will, Edith and Vern Lewis, children of D. D Lewis and wife living seven miles northeast of Stella, are sick with smallpox. The disease is in a light form and was contracted from an older sister, Miss Maud, who had it soon after returning home from school at Grand Island. Mrs. Lewis' sister, Miss Lily Monette, who is a trained nurse in Omaha, arrived Monday.—Stella Press.

A representative of the Midland Lyceum Bureau of Des Moines, Iowa, was in Nemaha Wednesday, to arrange for a lecture course this winter. A contract was signed provisionally. If our citizens want a course similar to that which was held here last winter they can have it if they will subscribe for tickets, but the parties getting up the course do not propose to stand all the risk. The proposed course this year is a fine one—two lectures, two concerts and a lady monologist. All are highly recommended. If you want the course subscribe for the tickets. The price for the course, including reserved seats, has been placed at $1.25.

By request we publish part of a letter received by Mrs. Hoover from Rev. E. S. Murphy, former pastor of the Episcopal church at Nemaha, but who is now located at Wadena, Minn.

My dear Mrs. Hoover:

We read with sorrow of your bereavement, and although it is late to express our deep sympathy for you in the day of your trial and grief, we want to assure you that our hearts have gone out to you in intensest commiseration. We know what you have lost, and for that reason can in some measure feel the extent of your privation. But it is also something to comfort us in sorrow to realize that others, recognizing our love, bear testimony of the real worth and genial qualities of those for whom we mourn. We were pained and our words of comfort for you are prompted from what we know of your dear departed and truly good husband. Of all the men in the circle of our acquaintance we can truly say that Birl Hoover was gentle and kind, a friend in reality, and a man whom to really know was to love. There are many pleasant remembrances between him and us, and we think of him with the tenderest feelings.

We know that you are and must be lonesome, but God has not left you comfortless, and we sincerely trust that you will experience what a blessing you have left in your children and especially in Mrs. Rainey. I know that she will be thoughtful and kind in the dark hour of grief, just as she always has been, and I trust she may never know the pangs of sorrow, but continue to be the sunshine of your life, as she indeed is to all who are near her.

With love and deepest sympathy from your affectionate friends,

E. S. MURPHY, WIFE AND SON.

Robbed the Grave

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to take Electric Bitters; to my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed at Keeling's drug store.

Every housekeeper should know that if they will buy Defiance Cold Water Starch for laundry use they will save not only time, because it never sticks to the iron, but because each package contains 16 oz.—one full pound—while all other Cold Water Starches are put up in ½ pound packages and the price is the same, 10 cents. Then again because Defiance Starch is free from all injurious chemicals. If your grocer tries to sell you a 12-oz. package it is because he has a stock on hand which he wishes to dispose of before he puts in Defiance. He knows that the Defiance Starch has printed on every package in large letters and figures "16 ozs". Demand Defiance and save much time and money and the annoyance of the iron sticking. Defiance never sticks.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equalled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Cal., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me, though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters, and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney Troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Keeling, druggist.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Co., Binghamton, N. Y.
