Our Candidates on the Revenue Law

To the voters of Nemaha county:
The republican candidates for the legislature desire to make the following statement relative to their position on the new revenue law.

1st—We are in favor of assessing all property, both personal and real, at a fair cost value.

2nd—We favor the elimination by the state board from the tax schedules such items of provisions as are on hand for immediate household consumption.

3rd—We are in favor of the county board of equalization having the power to equalize between the different precincts of the county by changing the valuation of any class or kind of property, where change is necessary, without changing the valuation of all classes or kinds.

4th—We are in favor of the state board of equalization having power to equalize between the different counties of the state by changing the valuation of any class or property, where change is necessary, without changing the valuation of all classes or kinds.

5th—We are in favor of the county board having the power to meet and change the county levy after the equalization between the different counties of the state has been made.

6th—We are in favor of any revision or amendment of the law that will remove any unjust burden from the taxpayers of the county.

ELLIS E. GOOD,
HERBERT R. HOWE,
V. P. PEABODY,
WM. ERNST.

Through the efforts of Dr. Messler an attempt is being made to raise $5,000 to be expended in boring for oil, gas or coal in or near Falls City. Those who have subscribed so far seem to be in earnest and have expressed themselves as willing to increase their subscription if necessary. When the $5,000 has been subscribed a company will be organized and the work begun. The paper is now being circulated by Dr. Messler and $1,500 has already been subscribed.—Falls City News.

"In Summertime Down by the Sea" is the title of a new and magnificent Song and Chorus written by Alfred J. Doyle, with a remarkably pretty Waltz Chorus.

This song will surely be admired by everybody.

Mr. Morton of Iowa, a brother of the late David A. Morton, came to Nemaha Wednesday to attend the funeral of his sister-in-law.

A Skeleton Found in Sand Bar

Thursday forenoon Wm. Gillespie, living on the bottom about two miles northeast of Nemaha, was over on the Missouri river banks northeast of his place, when he discovered part of a skeleton in the edge of the water. He telephoned to the county attorney, who informed him that no inquest was necessary, County Commissioner McIninch, who was in Brownville, went to the scene and had the remains taken to Brownville.

The body had lodged in the roots of a tree by the side of the river. One foot or the bones of the foot and leg were still hanging there. The bones of the head, shoulders, part of the arms, one rib and one hip bone were in the water. On the leg was a rubber hip boot and corduroy pants. In the pockets of the pants were two bunches of keys, pocketknife, carpenter rule, screw driver, punch, and five cents in money. Some teeth were out of the upper jaw.

Last spring two brothers by the name of Gallant went out in a skiff at Nemaha City, duck hunting. The skiff upset and they were drowned and their bodies never recovered. From the description given there is little doubt that this is one of the brothers who were drowned.

A number of our citizens drove up to the scene in the afternoon to see the remains.

The action of the board of county commissioners in refusing to allow the drainage petition presented by property owners along the Nemaha will in no wise deter the petitioners in their effort to obtain relief. The owners of lands in the district liable to damage by flood have taken the matter into their own hands and will help themselves.

A petition circulated by Frank Gerlaw has been signed by nearly all the property owners along the river from the north line of Auburn to Nemaha, a distance of about eleven miles. The signers have agreed to pay at the rate of $1 an acre for the construction of ditches through their lands.

Between the north line of Auburn and Nemaha the river, with its twists and turns, covers a distance of perhaps fifty miles. The proposed work, by cutting off the bends, will shorten the course of the river from twenty to thirty miles. In one place where the river now winds for five miles, its course can be shortened to three-quarters of a mile.

A meeting of these property owners will be held next week. At this meeting a board of managers with a membership of five will be elected and organization made for work. When this is done, it will not be long until the actual work is begun.—Auburn Herald.

Nemaha county is already distinguished as the leading fruit county of the state. Here peach and grape growing has arrived at perfection. In the past few years we have developed the finest commercial apple in the world, "The Virginia Beauty," perfect in color, flavor and fibre. Now Henry Kleckner comes to the front. This week he exhibited an apple which O. P. Dovel recognizes as "The Sheriff." This apple was grown in Mr. Kleckner's orchard and he stored a quantity in his cellar last year. Its keeping qualities are superb and the apple exhibited was as sound as it was the day it was plucked from the tree, yet it was stored in a cellar of ordinary temperature for over twelve months. The apple is subacidous, of firm flesh, amber yellow, streaked with red in color and looks appetizing. An apple of this kind should be of great commercial value and should be cultivated by our orchardists.—Auburn Herald.

The fusionists had control of the state, including the legislature, but did nothing to improve our revenue law. When the republicans introduced a new law most of the fusionists in the legislature voted for it. Now they are fighting it, but do not say what they will do if elected.

It is estimated that the cost of the suit enjoining the county clerk from spreading the five per cent tax raise on the books of the county will amount to $300 or more.

While the suit was brought in the name of Church Howe, the bill will be footed by several other tax payers.

Those who are most prominent in the matter are R. G. Wilkerson, S. W. McGrew, James Armstrong, Joseph Lash, S. Reed and J. W. Kerns. It is probable that they will pro rata the costs between them and settle the bill.

It is not thought that any further action will be taken in the matter and that the county clerk will be allowed to proceed without restraint. The case is one of the most celebrated that has come up in the courts in years and there are many persons in this vicinity who feel that their constitutional rights have been violated by the action of the board of equalization and the courts.—Auburn Herald.

The Designer for November presents advance styles for winter for adults and little folks. "Catering for the Home Wedding," giving a dainty and inexpensive menu, and "Etiquette Hints," illustrating the latest in wedding invitations. "Points on Dressmaking" follows in line with suggestions for the arrangement of the veil, wreath and other accessories regarding which the prospective bride is usually uncertain, and "Her Crowning Glory" presents hair dressing sufficiently varied to suit any face. Women who contemplate making Christmas gifts for their friends will find this number of The Designer to be a fund of fancy-work information. Those who visited the St. Louis Exhibition and partook of the queer yet palatable dainties there offered will be glad to renew their acquaintance with some of them through the agency of "Foreign Cookery at the World's Fair," by Sarah Windle Landes.

More banks in Nebraska suffered from burglaries during the year ending Sept. 1, 1904, than those in any other state of the Union or Canada, according to the report made to the American Bankers' Association.

Of fifty successful burglaries during the year nine were in Nebraska, or nearly one-fifth of the total number. Iowa is second with six. The proportion of cases where the thieves carried off booty is greater than where they failed in these states, for, of sixty-one failures only five were in Nebraska and three in Iowa. The banks of the Antelope state lost $14,910, while $6,693 of Hawkeye money was carried away.

But if Nebraska leads in bank robberies it has the satisfaction of knowing that it is still further in the lead in the matter of apprehending and punishing the criminals. Nine were sentenced during the year, not all of them, however, for depredations committed during that period. When it is taken into consideration that there were only twenty-four convictions in the United States during the twelve months, the proportion of convictions in this state is seen to be large. In the same time Iowa convicted four bank robbers and sentenced them to long terms.

The losses from burglaries ranges from 50 cents, suffered by the State Bank of Ewing to $3,047 by the Farmers and Merchants bank of Kennard.

Robbed the Grave

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to take Electric Bitters; to my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed at Keeling's drug store.

SCHOOL NOTES

Work for some good be it ever so slowly.

Cherish some flower be it ever so lowly.

Labor—all labor is noble and holy.

Foot-ball progresses without injury.

Ether Gillespie has entered the school.

The fourth and fifth grades are preparing a Geography Album.

The high school girls are proud of a new basket ball received Monday.

The outside of our school house locks inviting, let the good work go on inside.

We think the pupils of the primary would hail with delight, the man with the ladder and whitewash brush.

Autumn leaves afford good basis for nature study work and our primary students are improving their time.

The high school is puzzled over the question—Which was the largest island before Australia was discovered?

Perhaps some object to the teacher playing with the pupils but we see the good effect of starting some simple game.

Speak gently! 'tis a little thing

Dropped in the heart's deep well.

The good, the joy which it may bring,

Eternity shall tell.

"Johnnie" queried the primary teacher, "do you know your alphabet?" "Yes'm" said Johnnie. "Well then" continued the teacher, "what comes after A?" "All the rest of 'em" was the triumphant reply. (We wonder if our primary teacher can boast of so wise a pupil.)

Push bravely onward—not in vain,

Your generous trust in human mind

The good which bloodshed could not gain

Your peaceful zeal shall find.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equalled. Joe Golobok, of Colusa, Cal., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me, though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters, and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney Troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Keeling, druggist.
