This has been fine fall weather for campaign workers.

Politicians and office seekers are now busier than anybody.

Although the winter month is here the White Lilly has just arrived.

James Hiatt, who has been visiting in Iowa, returned to Nemaha Tuesday.

C. W. Roberts is having his house repainted. C. F. Zook is doing the work.

Mrs. H. Lund went to Waterloo, Nebr., Thursday of last week, to visit her daughter.

Miss May Schoonover and Miss Sherbourne of Brownville were Nemaha visitors Tuesday.

Only a few days more and we will know who is elected to serve the people the coming term.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Sanders and Master Frankie of London precinct visited in Nemaha Tuesday.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Dewese, Monday morning, October 31, 1904, a fine daughter.

J. R. Russell went to Nebraska City on the morning freight Tuesday and returned on the passenger.

Mrs. Rose Gilbert, who has been visiting a sister near Dubuque, Iowa, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Josephine Lindsey, who is now a resident of Lincoln, came to Nemaha Monday, returning Wednesday.

There are many cases of measles in Nemaha, but in a light form, and the patients are getting along nicely.

Rev. M. M. Goode of St. Joe returned home last Saturday after a few days' visit with D. H. Clark and family.

W. H. Linn, the Auburn dentist, will be at Nemaha next Monday, prepared to do all kinds of dental work. Office at hotel.

Do not allow the fusionists to persuade you into voting for some of their candidates in trade for a vote for Roosevelt.

Why is it that it makes a democrat or populist mad to quote one of Bryan's speeches, made before the national democratic convention?

Prof. Hendricks is fond of physical exercise, and last Saturday forenoon walked to Auburn. He was satisfied to come back on the train.

For Sale.—Five hundred good burr oak posts. Also stove wood by the rick.

F. L. WOODWARD.

Mrs. W. G. Maxwell attended the recent session of the grand lodge of Rebekahs, at Lincoln, and says she had the best time she ever had in her life.

Wm. Williams of Auburn and John T. Caspers of Benton precinct stopped in Nemaha Monday night. Mr. Caspers is the fusion candidate for representative.

Come in and we will show you how to make the cheapest corr crib on earth. It is not a slat, neither is it a board crib.

Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Do not forget that a vote against the republican nominees for the legislature is a vote for a democratic United States senator, who will be in opposition to the policies of President Roosevelt.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Catlin, who have been visiting N. B. Catlin and family for a few weeks, started for St. Louis Monday afternoon, and from there will return to their home in Connecticut.

A. O. U. W. Attention!

There will be a special meeting of the A. O. U. W. Tuesday night Nov. 15. All members are requested to attend.

W. F. KEELING, Recorder.

Clif Fankel to Stella was in Nemaha Wednesday and invested in some guinea pigs, which J. L. Curtright told him would clean out the rats around the premises. Clif will probably know more about guinea pigs in a short time.

If V. P. Peabody is elected to the legislature (as he is sure to be), he will be controlled only by his convictions of right. His integrity has never been questioned. He is a true republican and will be a worthy representative of the grand old party.

There will be two attractions at Auburn next Saturday. W. J. Bryan will make a speech and J. H. Seid will have his hog sale. Henry will probably take a recess during Bryan's speech in order not to draw the crowd away from the eminent orator.

The people of Champion must have had a feast of good things to eat at the home of A. L. P. Thompson last Saturday night, judging from the samples brought the editor by Miss Pearl Thompson, with "regards of the Champion Sunday school ladies."

If a farm is worth four times as much as it was worth a few years ago, the owner should certainly expect to pay more tax on it than he did before its value increased. But it is a fact that our farmers pay no more and in many cases less tax now than they did thirty years ago.

J. C. Rimel of Auburn met with an accident Thursday of last week on the hill this side of Aspinwall. He was driving in a sewing machine wagon when one wheel dropped in a washout and the wagon went over, throwing out the driver and two sewing machines. Fortunately the horses did not run. The wagon cover, machines and wagon tongue were broken.

The fusionists held their meeting at Nemaha Wednesday night. The speakers were David C. Snyder, H. A. Lambert, Judge McCarty, and F. G. Hawxby. The opera house was fairly well filled. We were not able to be present but understand most of the time was devoted to the revenue law and to republican extravagance, with some personal abuse of Gov. Mickey.

Report of Hillsdale school, Dist. 55, for month ending Oct. 28. Days taught 20. No. enrolled 17. Daily average 14. Those perfect in attendance: Ida Thorn, Addie Ogg, Mary Ogg. Those absent but one day, or tardy: Inda Thorn, Irene Stinson, Leono Clifton, Erma Ogg, Oscar Stinson, and Fred Ogg.

DOTTIE D. BOYD, Teacher.

When the fusionists had full power did they do anything toward improving the revenue laws? Would they go back to the old law, thus letting the express, telephone and insurance companies off with very little tax? Would they reduce the railroad tax to the place where they left it? What would they do? They do not know themselves.

Little Margaret Schell, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Mary E. Clark, returned to St. Joe last Saturday with Rev. M. M. Goode. She is making her home with her aunt, Mrs. Goode. Her parents are in the Philippine Islands, but as the climate did not agree with Margaret, she was sent back to this country. She does not like living in the Philippines.

Dee Wheeldon, who is a printer in the government printing office at Washington, D. C., came in from Auburn Monday to visit his brother, W. E. Wheeldon. Dee is just recovering from a sick spell. The editor of the Advertiser gave Dee his first instructions in type-setting, when the former was foreman of the Granger office in Brownville, about 27 years ago.

Mrs. F. L. Woodward and Mrs. Geo. Yackley received a dispatch Monday that their sister, Mrs. Lou Beckwith, was not expected to live. Her home is in Texas and several months ago she had an attack of fever that left her in a low nervous condition. She is at the home of her mother in Garnett, Kansas. Mrs. Woodward and Mrs. Yackley started for Garnett Monday afternoon.

In one town in Nebraska after Bryan's speech an extra was distributed containing extracts from some of Bryan's former speeches about Parker. Many of the fusionists considered it insulting to thus quote his former utterances, when he was doing all he could now to elect the man he formerly denounced, but Bryan took it goodnaturedly. He will not feel very bad when Parker is defeated.

Our fisherman are now out of a job as the fishing season closed Monday. The open season for doves and plover closed Sunday. The open season for quail began Tuesday and will last one month. During this month it is lawful to kill prairie chickens, grouse, quail, ducks and geese and other game water fowl, including snipe. The season for ducks, geese and birds of that kind remains open until April 15.

D. H. Clark, who attended the I. O. O. F., grand lodge meeting in Lincoln last week, as representative of Victory subordinate lodge of Nemaha, reports that it was one of the grandest meetings he ever attended. Although rain spoiled the parade and other outdoor exercises, it did not dampen the enthusiasm of the delegates and members present and the indoor program was carried out in full.—Brownville Letter.

One day last week A. B. Camblin brought in a catfish weighing 8 1/2 pounds. On Monday Marshall Webb caught one weighing 10 pounds. But Joe Littrel beat them all. Last Saturday morning he brought up a catfish weighing 26 pounds. F. L. Woodward bought it and sent it out to E. M. Boyd at South Auburn. But all our fishermen have taken up their lines, as the season for lawful fishing closed Monday.

One of the arguments used against French is that he is a young man and in difficult cases might have to get help. As Quackenbush, whom the fusionists praise as an exceptionally successful county attorney, has had to have help in all difficult cases, this argument does not go very far. French is young—so were Quackenbush and Ferneau when they were elected county attorney, and so were Lambert and Neal when they were elected county judge. But all made good officials just the same—and so will French.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn if you want to go to any part of the city. John McElhaney prop.

Mrs. Elmer E. Allen gave the members of her Sunday school class a Halloween party last Saturday afternoon. The house was darkened and the rooms lighted with candles and pumpkin lanterns. The rooms were decorated with autumn leaves. Halloween games were played and refreshments served in Halloween style. The members of the class are missed from twelve to fourteen years old and all were present but one, who was away from home. All had a delightful time.

We believe in economy. We believe in reducing the number of legislative employees to the lowest possible number consistent with good work, and the same with all other employees. But we believe in appropriating all the money necessary to make the inmates of our asylums, feeble-minded institutes, blind institutes, soldiers' homes, etc., as comfortable as possible. When the fusionists went out of power they left the public buildings belonging to these institutions in so delapidated a condition that it took a large amount to put them in repair again. But the list of employes was not reduced.

The prohibition union meeting at the Christian church Sunday night was well attended, the church being crowded full. Although Rev. Sapp had announced that it would not be a political meeting, old politicians present conceded that he made a mighty good prohibition political speech. He advised everybody to vote the prohibition ticket, and could not see how any christian could view the situation and vote differently from the way he did. And yet it is only within the last two or three years that Bro. Sapp has acted in this way himself, as he was a radical populist only a short time ago. But we believe him to be an earnest christian gentleman who is acting conscientiously. But we believe he should give others who differ from him the credit of also acting conscientiously, even if they do not do just as he does.

The annual convention of the Nemaha county Sunday School association will be held at Auburn, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 12 and 13. The first day's session will be held at the Baptist church and the second day's session at the Christian church. Sessions will begin at 2 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. each day. A very interesting program has been prepared. Among other topics discussed are Parent's Obligations to the Sunday School, Music in the Sunday School, The Home Department, Normal Work in the Sunday School. Importance of Work among the Children, The Cradle Roll, The Sunday School Lesson taught to Children, The Teaching Problem, Amusements for Christian Young People, System and Discipline in the Sunday School, Supplemental Work in the Sunday School, The Superintendent's Qualifications, The Teacher's Qualifications, Keeping the Boys in the Sunday School, Sanitation and Decoration, The Primary Standard, etc.

Each Sunday school is urged to send one delegate for each fifty pupils enrolled, and all superintendents and teachers are earnestly requested to be present at as many sessions as possible. All persons interested in Sunday school work are cordially invited to attend and take part in discussions and offer suggestions. All visiting delegates and workers will be entertained in Auburn homes.

Night was Her Terror.
