Tom Sayles, uncle of John and Arthur Strain, came to Nemaha Tuesday to visit relatives and old friends. Mr. Sayles is now living at Beatrice. He left here in early days, going to Harlan county in 1871, and taking a homestead.

C. M. Woodward is now a partner in the C. A. Dayton Grain Co., of Kansas City, for which he has been working for several years. He is manager of the receiving department at Kansas City. Charley's friends will rejoice to learn of his advancement.

The Missouri Pacific Railway Co. has issued an order reducing the working hours of their section men from 10 hours per day to 9 hours a day. The men are to receive the same pay for the nine hours work that they did for the ten hours.—Auburn Republican.

There are so many rabbits being killed now that many are being thrown away, as they cannot be used, sold or given away, even. Many are being made into sausage meat. It has been many years since there were so many rabbits. The fruit growers are anxious to have them killed, as they do much damage to young fruit trees.

Sunday night Deloss Boatman drove to St. Deroin with a young lady living across the river in Missouri, and on the account of being afraid to drive on the ice, he tied his team and they walked across the river. When he got back his team was gone. As there were no signs of a runaway it is feared the team was stolen. Nothing has been heard of team or buggy since then.

Later—The team was found Tuesday, having run away into the timber, where they got tangled up in some trees and held. The buggy was badly wrecked.

Agonizing Burns

are instantly relieved, and perfectly healed, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. C. Rivenbark, Jr., of Norfolk, Va., writes "I burnt my knee dreadfully; that it blistered all over. Bucklen's Arnica Salve stopped the pain, and healed it without a scar." Also heals all wounds and sores. 25c at W. W. Keeling, druggist.

N. B. Scrivener, who is sick with pneumonia, is not improving as fast as his friends would like to see.

W. W. Liebhart is getting up quite a reputation as breeder of fine chickens. He has the barred and white Plymouth Rocks and is working up a good trade. He has sold a number to Lincoln parties recently but is now sold out.

Peter Kerker filled his old ice house this week and also put in some in the house he bought of E. L. Paris. He will use the latter first and then move the house and use it for a barn. The ice is of fine quality, from nine to eleven inches thick.

H. R. Howe is chairman of the house committee on universities and normal schools and member of committee on banks and currency, accounts and expenditures.

V. P. Peabody is member of committees on public lands and buildings, claims and apportionment.

Auburn will certainly have some good churches if plans do not miscarry. The new First Methodist church on the north side, nearing completion, will cost $12,000 to $15,000. The south side Methodists contemplate building a church in the spring to cost $6,000 or $8,000, and now the Presbyterians are going to build a $10,000 church.

We don't like the politics of the Auburn Herald a little bit—never did and never expect to, under the present management. But we do like the paper as a local newspaper. It is one of the newest papers we know of anywhere, and is a credit to Auburn and Nemaha county and we feel proud of the Herald—all except its politics.

The oldtimers in Brownville will remember James G. Russell, who left there in 1882 and moved to Lincoln, where he now lives at the age of a's most 91 years. It is said he is the oldest pensioner in the state. For several years Mr. Russell drove the big four horse bus team from Phelps to Brownville before the railroad came, and was called "Jim Buss" as long as he lived there.

J. W. Haas, rural route agent, was in Nemaha Friday and went over route one with Carrier Rumbaugh. The postoffice department has ordered the establishment of a complete county rural free delivery service for Nemaha county, and Mr. Haas is arranging that service. When completed it is expected that every farmer, with very few exceptions, can get their mail by going not to exceed a half or three-quarters of a mile.

Monday afternoon Marshall Webb, W. W. Seid, Clarence Aynes and Curtis Brown went rabbit hunting along the B & M track south of the McCandless siding, and returned with 97 rabbits. They killed more, but when they killed a few would place them along the railroad track, and they could not find one or two piles. They would have killed more but ran out of ammunition.

Later—The section men acknowledge carrying off seven rabbits, and a pile of eight was afterward found, making 112 that were killed in the afternoon—an average of 28 to each hunter.

Herbert Chandler was given a preliminary examination in the county court last Thursday afternoon. There was an immense crowd of spectators present from Aspinwall, St. Deroin and Nemaha precincts, the prominence of the parties involved attracting the folks of the neighborhood in which they reside. The charge preferred against him was wife abandonment. He pleaded not guilty, but made no defense. His wife and her father appeared against him. Chandler was bound over to appear for trial at the next term of district court. Bond in the sum of $300 was furnished and he was released pending trial.—Auburn Herald.

For the month of December the rural carriers from Nemaha did the following business:

Route No. 1—Delivered—Letters, 685; postal cards, 151; newspapers, 4023; circulars, 198; packages, 103; total, 5260. Brought in—Letters, 309; cards, 50; newspapers, 9; packages, 8, total, 375. Total number of pieces handled, 5635.

Route No. 2—Delivered—Letters, 836; postal cards, 148; newspapers, 4242; circulars, 140; packages, 54; total, 5420. Collected—Letters, 455; cards, 116; total, 571. Total pieces handled, 5,991.

The wisdom of the republican state convention in nominating or expressing a choice for United States senator has been vindicated by the election of Elmer J. Burkett on the first ballot. It was freely predicted last fall that the republicans were in danger of losing the legislature because the leaders who would like to be candidates for United States senator and were shut out by the action of the convention, would not exert themselves to elect legislative candidates. But the republican majority is the largest any party ever had in this state. Then it was predicted that there would be a bolt when the time came to elect, and an effort was made by the opposition to make trouble, but without success, and on Tuesday Mr. Burkett was elected, receiving the vote of every republican member present with two exceptions.

At the annual meeting of the Carson national bank Tuesday of last week Ben T. Skeen of London precinct was elected one of the directors. The Herald, in its notice of the meeting, says:

"Officers were elected as follows: F. E. Johnson, president; Miss Rosanna Carson, vice president; E. M. Boyd, cashier; R. C. Boyd, a assistant cashier. The directors elected were F. E. Johnson, Miss Rosanna Carson, John Bath, Wm. M. Kauffman, Ben T. Skeen, R. C. Boyd and E. M. Boyd. The directorate has always represented some of the most conservative, most substantial and strongest financiers in the state and county, and the addition of Ben T. Skeen serves to keep up its reputation in this direction. It is doubtful if there is a bank in the state more conservatively managed than the Carson National, and it is this peculiar characteristic which inspires the public with perfect confidence in its integrity."

Grave Trouble Foreseen

It needs but little foresight, to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young [of Clay, N. Y.] did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by W. W. Keeling, druggist, at 50c a bottle.
