Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

The Nebraska Advertiser

W. W. SANDERS & SON, Prop's.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1905.

An investigation into the illiteracy of the convicts at the state penitentiary discloses the fact that forty-six cannot read or write. Out of 300 prisoners in the institution it is estimated that over 40 per cent are in need of instruction. A move may be made to have a school established at the penitentiary for the instruction of those who need to obtain a fair education.

A bill has been introduced in the legislature providing for county local option on the saloon question. If this passes the majority of the votes in a county have the right to prohibit saloons in that county. We hope the bill will pass. The whole county have to pay the bills when any rascality is committed. It is only right that all should have a vote on this question. We hope the saloon will be blotted out of existence.

Those of our readers who, in addition to their home paper, want a national news and family journal, are advised to subscribe for the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, which is published in the solid central city of the Union and stands at the very front among the few really great newspapers of the world.

The daily Globe-Democrat has no equal or rival in all the West and ought to be in the hands of every reader of any daily paper. The weekly Globe-Democrat, issued in semi-weekly sections, a big semi-weekly at one dollar per year, is indispensable to the farmer, the merchant or the professional man who desires to keep thoroughly posted but who has not the time to read a large daily paper, while its great variety of well-selected reading matter makes it invaluable to every member of the family. See advertisement elsewhere in this issue and write to the Globe Printing Company, St. Louis, Mo., for free sample copy.

In these days of diversified farming, many farmers and stockmen in the corn belt carry on profitable lines of mail order business. A number of the farmer readers of The Advertiser are dealers in pedigreed live stock, such as cattle, swine, horses and poultry; while some are interested in other farm specialties, such as seeds, vines and nursery stock, and do a good business both in and outside of Nemaha county. There is no reason why there should not be a steady stream of money flowing into this locality from all parts of the country, enriching our people and benefitting all classes. By advertising in The Advertiser any offer you desire to make to the people of this section will be effective. If you desire, however, to reach buyers generally throughout the West, The Iowa Homestead, with its upwards of 60,000 prosperous farm readers (nearly double the actual circulation of any other weekly Iowa farm paper) will bring you customers whose orders should be mutually profitable. The Homestead is popular with the farmers of all sections, just as it is here, and is as excellent as an advertising medium as it is valuable for the reader. The Advertiser will forward either subscriptions or advertisements for The Homestead.

Grave Trouble Foreseen

It needs but little foresight, to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by W. W. Keeling, druggist, at 50c a bottle.

The people of St. Deroin were greatly shocked Wednesday afternoon of last week. Bert Heasley was going to St. Deroin and when he got to what is known as the "narrows" he found Francis H. D. Hunt lying in the road dead. Mr. Heasley hurried back and notified Mr. Hunt's family.

Mr. Hunt left home in the morning in usual health, going to St. Deroin to visit his daughter, Mrs. G. N. Noyes, where he stayed for dinner. After dinner he started home, walking with W. H. Lemon as far as the latter's home. Walter S. Maxwell, rural mail carrier, then caught up with him and they talked with each other as they went along. Mr. Hunt was carrying some small packages, and as he was slapping his hands to warm them, Mr. Maxwell offered to take the packages and leave them at the house, put Mr. Hunt said his hands were not cold except one thumb, in which the blood did not seem to circulate. Mr. Maxwell then drove on, and after going only a short distance further Mr. Hunt had dropped dead.

The coroner was notified, and drove down in company with the sheriff and held an inquest. The cause of his death was pronounced apoplexy.

Francis H. D. Hunt was born in Rushville, Ill., in 1831, and at his death was aged 73 years, 6 months and 17 days. He came to Blue Springs, Nebr., in 1856, and later moved to Nemaha county. In 1862 he joined the Missouri state militia, serving eighteen months. He was married to Virginia Ross Oct. 2, 1861. To them were born eleven children, six of whom are yet living—Chas. F. Hunt of Shubert, Mrs. Mollie Wilson of Shubert, Mrs. Lena Noyes of St. Deroin, Mrs. Ella Cory of Falls City, Mrs. Partha Hendricks of Barada, and Mrs. Maud Van-Osdel, who lived with her father. The aged wife and mother is still living, and together with the children have the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sad bereavement.

The funeral services were held at Shubert Friday conducted by Rev. J. F. Smith of Nebraska City, and the remains were laid at rest in the Prairie Union cemetery.

There is no death! the stars go down To rise upon some fairer shore, And bright in heaven's jeweled crown They shine forevermore. And ever near us though unseen, The dear immortal spirits tread. For all the boundless universe Is life—there is no dead.

Farmers Institute at Hoover's Opera House Thursday, Feb. 9

A simple precaution will prevent both cold and the sensation of being cold. Wild animals do not take cold. Men constantly expose themselves to changes in temperature and humidity that no other animal could stand. A man's body is a furnace. Clothing does not warm him, but only keeps off the cold. The warmth comes from the burning of the oxygen in combination with the assimilated food burns freely. It is as really fuel as coal or wood. The process that goes on in the lungs is similar to that in a stove the more draft the hotter the fire. Give your lungs more draft and you will feel warmer immediately. Ten long, deep breaths, on coming out of the house in the morning will make the outdoor temperature seem 20 degrees warmer. Long, deep breaths every time you go out from a warm room to the open air will send the blood tingling to the service of the skin and the colder the air the more exhilarating the sensation. Try it. Nature has put in every man's chest a furnace that beats steam heat. —Nebraska City News.

Fraud Exposed

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to be aware of such people, who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease, for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's, or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & Co., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada.

SCHOOL NOTES

"When a man hates his work, and goes about it with indifference, all the force of the earth can not make him follow it with enthusiasm"—Wagner.

The tenth grade will give a program at the school house Friday evening February 10, beginning at 7:30 p. m. All friends are invited to be present.

The primary department reports a fall in attendance owing to the extreme cold weather of the past week. We find on inquiry that ours is not the only school that has suffered from this cause.

Superintendent Carrington was with us again last Friday evening. He also attended our reading circle. He told his famous ghost story to the pupils of the high school much to their amusement.

The teachers of Athens school of South Auburn came to Nemaha in a body to attend the teacher's meeting. There are five of them all told counting the principal, and a pleasant lot they are too.

Mr. Ritchey of grammar department of Brownville schools reports only one case of tardiness so far during this term of school. Can we afford to allow Brownville to get ahead of us that way?

The intermediate department gave a literary program Friday after recess. All seem to have enjoyed it. It was the work of the pupils themselves no time being taken by the teacher for practice or drill. Such exercises we feel are more profitable to the pupils in all ways than extended programs requiring much time for practice and preparation.

The Teacher's association held here Saturday was unique in some respects but none the less a success. A goodly number of patrons and school children together with thirty-six school teachers filled the high school room to overflowing. It truly shows a school spirit on the part of all and the "spirit is the quickener of the flesh."

Reports for the month closing January 27 show: a total enrollment to date of 159, those attending at close of month 135, an average daily attendance of 117 and a total of 39 tardy marks. The cold weather caused a fall in the average attendance for this month effecting the primary department principally. We are pleased to note a decrease in the number of tardy marks. Let the decrease continue.

"Let no father or mother lay to their souls the flattering notion that they can shirk their duties and think that those duties were performed by the school teacher no matter how good that teacher is. All of you know an occasional father and mother who does just that thing. We have the education; we must have the home bringing up; we must have the trained mind; and then we must have in addition, training for what is more than mind—training for character." Roosevelt.

Poisons in Food

Perhaps you don't realize that many pain poisons originate in your food but some day may feel a twinge of dyspepsia that will convince you. Dr. King's New Life Pills are guaranteed to cure all sickness due to poisons of undigested food—or money back, 55c at Keeling's drug store. Try them.
