GAY COLLEGE LIFE.

Dangers of Extravagance to Be Guarded Against by Students.

"There are two sides to society life at a university," said Dr. Henry Burdick Pine, dean of the Princeton faculty. "At this institution we have clubs, not secret societies, where the men eat, but do not have their rooms. The social benefits of such societies to their members, therefore, are easily understood.

"On the other hand, there is the danger that the society man will form extravagant ideas of living. I understand that this is true at all universities where there are social organizations. I have heard it said that at the present time there are 250 chapter and club houses in the various universities and colleges of the country, whose value is roughly estimated at $5,000,000. A great deal of this money has been given by graduates. In contrast to such gifts is that of the Princeton class of '79, which presented its alma mater with a dormitory, which will furnish a home for men of all clubs and social divisions, as well as a memorial room, where the members of the class may hold their reunions. This class was graduated before any of the existing clubs were established.

"Princeton draws few men from the very wealthy class. Most of them come from well-to-do families, and, after leaving college, they must go out and hustle for themselves. For a youth, therefore, who for two years has been used to luxurious surroundings, such as are afforded by some of the clubs, the change to actual life is likely to be tremendous. Most young men must begin life with small salaries and plain living. Most of them must practice strict economy at the start, a severe enough test of the will under the most favorable circumstances, but when attempted after a thorough relish of the good things it is especially difficult. There is a tendency, therefore, in such cases that the young graduate will live beyond his means.

"Of course, I do not advise any curtailment of real comfort. I think college men should have and are entitled to pleasant and agreeable surroundings, and the most congenial companionship possible. I believe that the parents of the undergraduates think the same way. They want their sons to have as comfortable and refined environments here as at home. On the other hand, the parent does not want the child to get a prodigal view of life."—New York Tribune.

Emulator of Noah.

King Christian of Denmark will in the near future have a chance to experience the feelings of Noah during the flood, says a special cable dispatch from Copenhagen to the New York American and Journal.

A Danish engineer, M. Vogt, supplied with money by the Carlsberg fund left by the late millionaire brewer, Jacobsen, has built a reduced copy of the ark in which Noah floated around until he stranded on Mount Ararat. The new ark was built according to the description contained in the Old Testament and an ancient representation of the Biblical vessel found on an Apamean coin, dating back to 300 B. C., which is on exhibition in a museum at Stockholm.

M. Vogt's ark is, however, only one-tenth the size of the one built by Father Noah, but a number of Danish university professors and scientists declare it to be a fine craft, which behaves splendidly in the open sea, as they had an opportunity to see during a recent trip on the Oeresound.

King Christian has promised to make a trip on the unique vessel, after which the builder may try to take it across the Atlantic.

Telephones on Nebraska Prairies.
The people of eastern Nebraska have little idea of what they miss in the way of cheap telephone service by not living in the range country, says the Nebraska News. Think of a monthly bill of 33-13 cents for the use of a telephone. The latest barb wire line to go out of Benkleman will be twelve miles long and will include fifteen telephones. The only cost to the subscriber will be that of the instrument that he uses and the trouble of making the connection, and the cost of maintenance is expected to amount to $4 a year. There is not an insulator on the fence, yet messages are carried perfectly the whole distance.

The Falls Nothing by Comparison.
"Then you've been to Niagara?"

"Yes, I was quietly married last Tuesday week and the next day we reached Niagara. Soon as we got there I started out to see the falls with my wife."

"Magnificent, eh?"

"You bet. You should have seen all the other men turning around to look at her as she passed."—Philadelphia Press.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN

HOW THEY MAINTAIN THE CHARM OF THEIR SEX.

The Importance that Attaches to the Care of the Blood If One Wants Bright Eyes and a Clear Complexion.

Every sensible woman naturally wishes to appear attractive. She knows the value of bright eyes, delicate complexion and lively spirits. She knows also that good health is at the basis of her charms and that good blood is the source of good health.

Miss Mamie Conway has a complexion which is the admiration of all who know her. Asked if she could make any suggestions that would be helpful to other less fortunate, she said:

"My complexion would not have pleased you, if you had seen it two years ago. It was then about as bad as it could be, and it gave me a great deal of dissatisfaction. If you want a good complexion you must take care of your health, especially of the condition of your blood. My health was at that time completely broken down. I was nervous, had frequent headaches, a torpid liver and a great deal of pain in that region. I suffered also from indigestion. It was clear that my blood was in bad condition, for pimples broke out all over my face."

"It is hard to realize that, for there isn't the slightest trace of such blemishes now."
"It was unfortunately quite other wise than, and a long time passed before I found anything that gave me any relief. I became very weak and listless. The doctor's medicine did me no good, and I took a number of highly recommended tonics with no better result. As soon, however, as I began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People my complexion cleared up, and after I had taken two boxes there was not a sign of a pimple left on my face. My cheeks became rosy, I gained flesh and have had perfect health ever since."

Rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes are merely signs of healthy blood. They are some not only in the case of Miss Conway, whose home is at 1341 East Eighth street, Canton, Ohio, but to thousands of women for whom Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have made new blood. There is no surer way for you to obtain them, than to buy a box of these pills from any druggist and try them for yourself. They correct irregularities and banish weakness.

WOMEN WHO CHARM

HEALTH IS THE FIRST ESSENTIAL

It Helps Women to Win and Hold Men's Admiration, Respect and Love

Woman's greatest gift is the power to inspire admiration, respect, and love. There is a beauty in health which is more attractive to men than mere regularity of feature.

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study. At the first indication of ill-health, painful or irregular menstruation, headache or backache, secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin its use.

Mrs. Chas. F. Brown, Vice-President Mothers' Club, 21 Cedar Terrace, Hot Springs, Ark., writes:

"For nine years I dragged through a miserable existence, suffering with indigestion and falling of the womb, and worn out with pain and weariness. I one day noticed a statement by a woman suffering as I was, but who had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I determined to try it. At the end of three months I was a different woman. Every one remarked about it, and my husband fell in love with me all over again. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound built up my entire system, cured the womb trouble, and I felt like a new woman. I am sure it will make every suffering woman strong, well and happy, as it has me."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhoea, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, or nervous prostration may be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

She—They say that the best husbands are always thoughtful in little things. Are you that way, Mr. Smith?

Smith—No, I don't have to be; my wife always calls my attention to them before I have a chance to think.

A Degree Higher.
Miss Ascum—Did I understand you to say they were too poor to keep house?

Miss Kulcher—Gracious, no! How vulgar! I said they were too poor to open an establishment.—Philadelphia Press.

"Say," queried the prospective customer, "is my credit good for a shave?"
"Naw," replied the barber. "If you can't raise a dime, keep on raisin' whiskers."

Would Be a Help.

"I say, ma, don't you think if you were to drop that club you would make a great deal better time?"

Expensive.
"Maria," said Mr. Stubb, "what do you think of my new automobile? I bought it for a mere song."

"H'm!" mused Mrs. Stubb. "What did it cost?"
"Two thousand dollars."
"Then you must be alluding to a Patti song."

Dangerous.
Stubb—Say, old man, I wonder if people wear the same kind of clothes in the next world as they do in this?

Penn—I hope you won't.
Stubb—Why not?
Penn—You wear a celluloid collar.

An Insinuation.
Johnson—According to statistics the proportion of baldheaded men among criminals is very small.

Tomkins—Well, I've always been an advocate of the theory that marriage has a tendency to keep a man from crime.

Quick Cure of Rheumatism by Dodd's Kidney Pills—How They Saved the Shop of a Kansas Blacksmith—Cure Was Permanent, Too.

Goodland, Kan., Feb. 20th.—(Special.)—So quick and complete was the cure of N. E. Albertson, a local blacksmith, that it almost seems like a miracle. He had Rheumatism so bad he feared he would have to give up his shop. One box of Dodd's Kidney Pills drove away all the pains and they have never returned. Speaking of his cure Mr. Albertson says:

"I had Rheumatism in my shoulders and arms for years. Part of the time it was so bad I could not sleep at night. My arm hurt so that it seemed I would have to give up my blacksmith shop. I went to the drug store and bought one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills and took them. I have not had the Rheumatism since. A great many of the neighbors are using Dodd's Kidney Pills since they saw how they cured me."

BABY CAME NEAR DYING

From an Awful Skin Humor—Scratched Till Blood Ran—Wasted to a Skeleton—Speedily Cured by Cuticura.

"When three months old my boy broke out with an itching, watery rash all over his body, and he would scratch till the blood ran. We tried nearly everything, but he grew worse, wasting to a skeleton, and we feared he would die. He slept only when in our arms. The first application of Cuticura soothed him so that he slept in his cradle for the first time in many weeks. You don't know how glad I was. One set of the Cuticura Remedies made a complete and permanent cure. (Signed) Mrs. M. C. Maitland, Jasper, Ontario."

Truths that Strike Home
Your grocer is honest and—if he cares to do so—can tell you that he knows very little about the bulk coffee he sells you. How can he know, where it originally came from, how it was blended—or with what—or when roasted? If you buy your coffee loose by the pound, how can you expect purity and uniform quality?

LION COFFEE, the LEADER OF ALL PACKAGE COFFEES, is of necessity uniform in quality, strength and flavor. For OVER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY, LION COFFEE has been the standard coffee in millions of homes.

LION COFFEE is carefully packed at our factories, and until opened in your home, has no chance of being adulterated, or of coming in contact with dust, dirt, germs, or unclean hands.

In each package of LION COFFEE you get one full pound of Pure Coffee. Insist upon getting the genuine. (Lion head on every package.)
(Save the Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)
