A MEAN FELLOW.

Mr. Binks—"I met a woman today that I thought a good deal of once." Mrs. Binks—"Oh, you did?" "Yes, I used to do my very best to please her." "Humph!" "I did every thing I could to win her affection." "My goodness!" "And at last I succeeded." "Wha—?" "She granted all that I asked, and by so doing made me the happiest man alive." "Merciful—?" "I asked her to come right up to the house with me today, but she had some shopping to do and cannot get here until supper time." "Mr. Binks, I am going right home to my mother." "She isn't at home, my dear. It was your mother that I met. She gave me you."

A VENGEFUL LOVER.

Friend—"Well, your old love has married your rival, I see." Discarded Suitor (fendishly)—"S'death! I've got even with him! They will quarrel the first week, fight the second, and separate forever in the third." Friend—"Great snakes! What have you done?" Discarded Suitor—"I presented the bride with one of those little fluffy, red-eyed, snarling, barking pet dogs."

SHE DIDN'T NOTICE.

Mr. Minks—"Who is that pretty young lady in the blue?" Mrs. Minks—"Hub. Do you call her pretty? Never saw a—?" Mr. Minks—"Well, who is that young lady in blue?" Mrs. Minks—"Perhaps she's a lady, and perhaps she isn't. You men seem to think every—?" Mr. Minks—"Who is that—er—chit in the blue dress?" Mrs. Minks—"I don't know. I didn't notice."

The talent of success is nothing more than doing what you can do well and doing whatever you do without a thought of fame.

A man is relieved and gay when he has put his heart into his work and done his best; but what he has said or done otherwise shall give him no peace.

Beware of Quinine for Catarrh the Contain Mercury. As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle. GOOD Short Stories

It is told that while John Sharp Williams was speaking in Mississippi a man in the audience cried, "I've been robbed by pickpockets!" "I did not suspect there were any Republicans present," said Mr. Williams, amid great laughter. "There ain't," cried the victim; "I'm the only one!"

Denman Thompson is beloved by the young members of his company, especially the little tots that figure in the scenes of "The Old Homestead." During a recent New York engagement he wanted to compliment a little fairy on her work, and said: "You've done so well I'd like to give you a big kiss." "Oh, Mister Thompson," answered the fairy, horrified, "you naustn't, really. Auntie doesn't believe in kissing."

"Never mind, dear," replied Mr. Thompson. "I'm not kissing auntie." Mayor George B. McClellan of Greater New York walked down the steps of the City Hall the other evening and bought a paper from a newsboy. While waiting for his change, he said: "Well, my little man, how is business to-day?" The little merchant looked up, and answered, "On de bum." The mayor thought for a moment, and finally said: "Keep at it, my little man. You have a chance to become the President some day." The little fellow answered immediately: "Dat might be so, but I'll sell me chances for a nickel right now."

An attendant in one of the branches of the New York public library noticed that a little negro boy who came frequently to the library invariably went to the same shelf and took the same book, which he seemed to enjoy immensely. Curious to know the name of the book, she followed him to the shelf, where she found him looking at a picture of an old darky being chased by a bull. A wild grin stretched from side to side of the little fellow's face. "What's the joke?" asked the surprised attendant. "Golly, he ain't etched 'im yet!" replied the delighted child.

It is told of the witty old French (L'be, Pere Monsabre, that on one occasion a lady sent a message to him just as he was entering the pulpit that he must see him. After much beating about the bush, she came to the point. Vanity was her besetting sin, and only that morning she had yielded to the temptation of gazing at herself in the mirror and thinking she was very pretty. Pere Monsabre looked at her steadily for a minute, and then, in his soft, musical voice, he inquired kindly: "Is that all, my daughter?" "Yes, father, that is all." "Then, my daughter, go in peace. For to make a mistake is no sin."

"In course of a Southern tour," said John D. Rockefeller, Jr., "I attended church one Sunday morning in a quaint little wooden meeting-house where the pews were of unpainted pine boards. The minister was a good man, a really eloquent man; but he had an unfortunate habit of bellowing. He bellowed like a bull. His voice shook the rafters. The sound overwhelmed the sense, and it was often impossible, for very noise, to get at the man's meaning. He was especially loud during the prayer. I never heard such an uproar as filled the little building while this Southern minister prayed. After he was through, a little girl on my left gave a sigh of relief, and I heard her whisper to her father: 'Father, don't you think that if he lived nearer to God he wouldn't have to talk so loud?'"

Discovery of the Ichthyosaurus. Ichthyosaurus is a name much jested with, because it rivals the mastodon as a most widely known fossil, dating back to its discovery by Sir Everard R. Home, between 1814 and 1819, in the marine deposits of Lyme-Regis, England. The name, signifying "fish-lizard," shows that this animal impressed Konig, its describer, as having a fish-like backbone combined with a shoulder girdle of the lizard or saurian type. This term could not have been more happily chosen, because, while retaining the skeleton of an atavistic and extremely ancient lizard, the Ichthyosaurus evolved a most strikingly modern external likeness to certain very familiar animals of the sea—Century.

His Excuse. Deserted Woman—How could you fly from me when you know that I believed you were an angel? Repentant Lover—It was all a mistake, dear; you see it was the first time I'd ever been endowed with a pair of wings and I didn't know just how to work them!—Kansas City Press.

Parental Promptitude. Willie—Mamma, I think I like God better than I do papa. Mrs. Simpson—Why, Willie? "Well, papa punishes me a great deal quicker than God does."—Collier's Weekly.

TORTURING PAIN.

Half This Man's Sufferings Would Have Killed Many a Person, but Doan's Cured Him.

A. C. Sprague, stock dealer, of Normal, Ill., writes: "For two whole years I was doing nothing but buying medicines to cure my kidneys. I do not think that any man ever suffered as I did and lived. The pain in my back was so bad that I could not sleep at night. I could not ride a horse, and sometimes was unable even to ride in a car. My condition was critical when I sent for Doan's Kidney Pills. I used three boxes and they cured me. Now I can go anywhere and do as much as anybody. I sleep well and feel no discomfort at all."
