Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

The Nebraska Advertiser

W. W. SANDERS & SON, Prop's.

FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 1905.

Dick Steuteville of Brownville was in town Wednesday.

Frank Harford went to Lincoln Friday of last week, returning Tuesday afternoon.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn if you want to go to any part of the city. John McElhaney prop.

Arch Handley, who has been living near Brownville, has moved on Mrs. A. R. McCandless' farm, south of Nemaha, where Milt Gaskill has been living.

Almost every man in town was complaining of being sore Monday and Tuesday. They worked harder than they were used to in fighting fire Monday morning.

The ladies should not forget the grand millinery opening at J. H. Vandercil's Saturday of this week. Go in and see the new styles whether you want to buy or not. They will be glad to see you.

Rev. W. Dieffenbach, pastor of the Lutheran church at Auburn, has tendered his resignation, to take effect October 1st. This news will be learned with regret by Mr. Dieffenbach's many friends throughout the county.

Rev. E. S. Chamberlain received word Tuesday that his son, Tom Chamberlain, who is connected with his father in the store at Sycamore Springs, Kas., had shot himself in the foot with a Colt's revolver. It was thought a bone was broken near the big toe.

A. R. McCandless went to Omaha Friday of last week to help care for his brother-in-law, Nate Cornell, who had been bedfast for forty-five days with abscess of the liver. He returned home Monday afternoon, on receiving word of the fire. Mr. Cornell died Tuesday morning.

E. O. Higgins, a brother of Mrs. Ben Colerick and Mrs. John W. Knight, died at his home in Nebraska City Monday morning, and was buried Tuesday forenoon. He had suffered for years with consumption, which caused his death. He had many friends in Nemaha and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Camblin drove over to Stella Thursday afternoon, where they will visit a few days and then leave for their prospective home in Wyoming. They have made many friends during their short stay among us, who wish them prosperity where ever they may locate.

Frank Titus will be a candidate before the republican county convention for the nomination for county clerk. He is in every way well qualified for the position, is very popular where known, and if he is nominated will be elected by a good majority, and will make an efficient officer.

William S. Smith died at his home in Auburn Monday morning from stomach trouble. He had been in poor health for some time but was able to be about until Saturday, when he was taken with spasms and was unconscious until he died. Mr. Smith was a nephew of Mrs. Dan Maxwell.

The north bound freight Sunday morning had a little accident at Nemaha. As a refrigerator car was being switched on the house track it jumped the track at the stock yards, running into the chute and tearing it entirely away. The car was not much damaged and was got back on the track without much trouble.

Grave Trouble Foreseen
It needs but little foresight, to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by W. W. Keeling, druggist, at 50c a bottle.

Grant Shubert was over from Shubert last Friday to bring his wife and baby here to take the train for a visit with her parents at Howe. Mr. Shubert says the prospects are good for a cannery factory to be located at Shubert by the Lang canning factory of Beatrice. Mr. Shubert and other members of his family residing about Shubert together have 380 acres in orchards.—Stella Press.

The Advertiser office seems to be very fortunate, as far as fire is concerned. In the past five weeks fire has destroyed the buildings on both sides of the office, but it has hardly been scorched. We hope it will not have to undergo another trial, as it might not be so fortunate another time. Five weeks ago the opera house, across the street north was burned, and Monday morning Hill's drug store, about forty feet south, went up in flames.

The monthly meeting of the Nemaha County Holiness association was held at Nemaha Tuesday night and Wednesday. Tuesday night Rev. G. M. Jones of Brock preached a fine sermon. Wednesday morning Rev. J. E. Houlgate of Peru preached another fine sermon—in fact all of them were fine, helpful, uplifting discourses. In the afternoon the sermon was by Rev. C. L. Meyers of South Auburn, and in the evening by Rev. McElroy of Long Branch. A business session was held Wednesday afternoon.

Program for Y. P. S. C. E. meeting at the Christian church Sunday, March 19, 1905.

Subject—Glorifying God in our Daily Work. Matt. 5: 13-16. Romans 22: 11. Selections from Leader.

Talk—How may I put my religion into my tasks.—Maye Gaither.

Talk—Why are conscientious workmen most valuable?—C. Hendricks.

Give an illustration of a Christian business man.—Frank Dressler.

Quotation—Stella Washburn.

NORA AYNES, Leader.

Charles W. Hohouse, who for the past fifteen years or more has been roadmaster at Edgar, has been appointed as roadmaster and trainmaster of this division of the B & M to succeed E. Zook, who resigned some two weeks ago. Mr. Hohouse has not arrived here yet, he being detained by the illness of his wife. Mr. Hohouse is one of the best railroad men in the state and comes with the best of recommendations. That he will be given a hearty welcome not only by the railroad boys but by the citizens goes without saying.—Nebraska City News.

Mr. Hugh E. Angel of Atchison county, Mo., and Miss Ella Hindenach of this city, were united in holy bonds wedlock at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. P. C. Johnson, at 12:30 o'clock last Thursday. The happy couple departed that afternoon for Parkio, near which they will make their future home.—Tecumseh Journal

Miss Hindenach taught the Larkin school south of Nemaha from the beginning of the school year until the holidays when she resigned in order to make preparations for her wedding. Her many friends in this vicinity extend hearty congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Angel

Fraud Exposed

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease, for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's, or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & Co., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada.

AUBURN LOCALS.

Mrs. J. W. Darrah is quite sick.

All the big stores in town will have their big opening on Saturday of this week.

Will Jones has been assisting his brother Frank in his store at Phelps, Mo., for the past week.

J. M. Wright returned Saturday from Scott City, Kansas, where he went to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law O. M. Garner.

R. R. Dutter, the landlord of the Avenue hotel, has been quite sick at the home of his daughter in Humboldt during the past week.

Rev. W. Dieffenbach, who for the past ten years has been pastor of the Lutheran church of this city has resigned his pastorate to take effect the first of next October.

The new M. E. church is now nearly completed, the new seats have arrived and the main body of the church was used for the first time last Sunday. It will be dedicated soon.

The Auburn Commercial Club have succeeded in getting R. W. Richardson the secretary of the Good Roads Association to come to Auburn and give a talk to our citizens upon the subject of Good Roads, on Saturday, March 25.

At a mass convention of voters of Auburn last Tuesday evening the following were nominated for city offices: Mayor, J. G. Maclay, R. M. Gillan; City Clerk, W. H. Bousfield; City Treasurer, Will T. Gaede; City Engineer, R. M. Gilbert; Police Judge, N. S. F. Horn, C. K. Shellhaver; Councilman, 1st ward, long term, T. C. Daugherty, D. E. C. Long; short term, H. J. E. Wert, Geo. Van Houtten; Councilman, 2nd ward, T. B. Fraser, J. C. Killarney; Councilman 3rd ward, Dr. J. W. Raynor; members of school board, short term T. H. Gillan, full term, S. F. Farmer, John Hanna.

Three deaths occurred in Auburn the first of the week.

Mrs. Theresa Ottens died on Saturday aged 77 years. She with her husband settled near Auburn in 1860. Funeral was held from the Catholic church on Monday.

Wm. S. Smith died at his home early Monday morning of stomach trouble. Mr. Smith was born at Brownville, July 1, 1869. A wife and child survive him.

Charles Stehwein died on Monday aged 29 years. Mr. Stehwein was a tailor by trade. He came to Auburn some years ago and worked for Graham Bros. & McKnight but for the past year he has run a tailor shop of his own at the south end of town are instantly relieved, and perfectly healed, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. C. Rivenbark, Jr., of Norfolk, Va., writes "I burnt my knee dreadfully; that it blistered all over. Bucklen's Arnica Salve stopped the pain, and healed it without a scar." Also heals all wounds and sores. 25c at W. W. Keeling, druggist.

County Assessor Maxwell was in the city Tuesday and appeared before the board of county commissioners, while they were in session and handed in the names of John Stotts, St. Deroin, Pres. Barker, Nemaha and H. B. Black, Lafayette, as deputy assessors to fill the vacancies created by resignations.

Never before in the history of the county has the assessorship gone begging as it has in several of the precincts this year.

Of course death has caused two vacancies but indifference and larger political ambitions are responsible for the others. It is said that Frank Titus, of Nemaha precinct, who is now working in the bank down there refused to act as precinct assessor from the fact that he will be a candidate for county clerk this fall. If this is true Deputy Clerk J. M. Wright will have some opposition. It is said he will have hard sledding anyhow as his conversion to republicanism has been so recent that those who have been loyal to the party believe he should "go away back and sit down" until repentance and humility will take all the populism out of him. Then too, many are opposed to the principle of the succession of a deputy to office and it is known that this opposition had much to do with the defeat of Charley Anderson, for the county treasurership—Auburn Herald.

W. H. Rider was recently grieved to learn of the death of his old commander, Gen. Reub. Williams, who died at his home in Warsaw, Ind., in January. What made the death more sad was the fact that the old veteran, after escaping the dangers of the war, was frozen to death, or so badly frozen that he died from the effects, one night after returning from attending the inaugural ceremonies of Gov. Hanly, Ind. He got off the train at night and as it was very cold and he missed his way going home, was so badly frozen that he died from the effects in a few days. Mr. Williams was for years proprietor of the Northern Indianian, in which office the late G. W. Fairbrother of Brownville and T. C. Hacker, postmaster of Red Cloud, Nebr., worked with Mr. Williams before they came to Nebraska. Mr. Williams was a fine general and an able editor. He was in his seventy-second year.

We will send the Advertiser, the weekly Lincoln State Journal, the Iowa Homestead, the Farm Gazette, and the Homemaker, all one year for only $1.50. The regular price of these papers is $3.25.
