Gilbert & McCandless opened their store in the Minick building Thursday morning, and are closing out the stock that was saved from the fire.

How about that brick yard in Nemaha? Now is the time to agitate the question and get it started. It would undoubtedly be a paying investment.

A caucus will be held at the Advertiser office at 7:30 tonight, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for village trustees. All voters are invited to be present.

Louie Kerker started for Des Moines, Iowa, Wednesday afternoon, where he expects to go to work in a store. Louie is a good clerk as well as a fine young man, and we hope he will strike a good job.

Gilbert & McCandless find on invoicing that they saved a little over $3,000 worth of goods from the fire, but much of it is considerably damaged, and will be sold out at low prices.

We must earnestly request of all who are indebted to us to make arrangements to settle their accounts, as we need the money to settle our business. Our business relations with all of our patrons have been very pleasant and we trust we may be able to do more in the future.

Respectfully,
GILBERT & McCANDLESS.

E. A. Howe has moved on Swan Nelson's farm, the old Muntz place, and will tend it this summer while Swann is digging gold in the Black Hills.
W. W. Sanders is now justice of the peace, but the only jobs he is looking after are marriage ceremonies. He will give a premium to the first couple to get married by him.

Nemaha is adopting city styles, and therefore is having a big fire sale. But we do not want to have any more such city customs from the same cause. One such fire will last us a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin U. Hadlock of St. Paul, Minn., arrived in Nemaha Tuesday afternoon, on a visit to Irvin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hadlock. Their many friends here are pleased to see them again.

Married—At the Lutheran parsonage, South Auburn, Neb., on Wednesday evening, March 15, 1905, by the Rev. W. Dieffenbach, Mr. Clate C. Hardenberger to Miss Anna S. Caldwell both of Auburn, Neb.

Rev. G. W. Ayers went to Graf Monday to assist Rev. Eugene Maxcy in a protracted meeting. He preached that night and was then called back to Nemaha to hold funeral services for F. E. Hoover's infant son.

O. J. Thorp, who has been in Colorado looking for a new location, where he could get some land in the section that will eventually be in the irrigated section, returned home last Saturday, without having secured any land, but has a piece of deeded land in view.

F. L. Woodward this week sold to Mrs. M. J. Hoover the three lots just south of C. P. Barker's home. Mrs. Hoover will build a house on the property this spring we understand. Mr. Woodward also sold to Wm. Smiley two lots on the southeast corner of the block where the latter is living, and Mr. Smiley will build thereon.

Johnnie Frederick Hoover, infant son of Frederick E. and Minnie Hoover, died at the home of the parents, six miles southwest of Nemaha on Monday, March 20, 1905, aged two years, one month and four days. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church at one o'clock p. m. Wednesday. Rev. G. W. Ayers preached the funeral sermon. The bereaved parents have our sympathy in their sorrow.

On Friday evening, March 10, the young musicians of Nemaha met at the home of their teacher, Miss Maye Gaither, and organized the "Allegro Musical Club" with the teacher as president, Elia Shiveley secretary and Alice Peabody treasurer. The object of the club is the study of musical history. Beside the historical studies, recitals for the entertainment and instruction of the members of the club will be arranged from time to time. A fee of one cent per member will be charged at every meeting with which miniature pictures of musicians and class pins will be bought. The colors are: Turquoise Blue and Cream and the motto: That day is lost in which we fail to learn something. The life of Mendelssohn was then studied. After some music and a nice social time, the club adjourned to meet again Friday eve, March 23, at the home of Dr. Gaither.

Nemaha will soon have an opera house again. Ever since the old one burned F. L. Woodward has been endeavoring to get some one to go in with him and put up a good opera house, and has finally succeeded in getting Mrs. Wm. H. Hoover and Elmer E. Allen interested in the enterprise. They will build the house only one story in height, using the old walls but taking off the top walls to the bottom of the windows on the stage. The new building will be the same size and the ceiling the same height as the old building. Good scenery will be put in, and in every way it will be a credit to the town. Work will be commenced at once. Messrs. Woodward and Allen and Mrs. Hoover are deserving of much praise for the public spirit shown, as no one expects the enterprise to be a money making one. All feel the need of a good opera house, and are pleased to know that the want is to be supplied.
