Respectfully,
GILBERT & McCANDLESS.

The drainage bill introduced by Hon. V. P. Peabody is one of the bills that have become laws. It is expected to be of great benefit to the owners of land now subject to overflow, as it enables them to form drainage districts and have the necessary ditches dug and other work done. We have a copy of the bill which may be seen by those interested.

Uncle Henry Clark has some cabbage seed that are 54 years old, and he is going to plant them and see if they will grow. They were saved by an aunt of Uncle Henry, in Kentucky, in the fall of 1850. His sister visited this aunt, now living in Missouri, last summer, and was given some of the seed, and divided with Mr. Clark. He wants to see if cabbage seed retain their vitality for over a half century. He predicts that they will grow all right.

On Wednesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Sapp returned to their beautiful home, they found sixty of their friends had taken possession. You had ought to have seen the smile of surprise that spread over their countenances when they came in and found so many of their friends there. And by the way, they did not forget to bring the necessary pound that goes to make a sociable profitable as well as pleasant. There were forty-five packages brought ranging in value all the way from a pound of rice to a ham of meat. After greetings were over the table was spread. Ice cream and cake of the finest quality was served in profusion. Everybody had a good time, even the preacher. At a very late hour we all bid the elder and wife, goodnight and God bless and prosper the home till we come again.
