The numerous congressional candidates are now doing some tall hustling. Of course we would like to see a Nemaha county man win out. We have good material.

The republican central committee has been called to meet at Auburn next Saturday to call the convention for selecting delegates to the congressional convention to be held at Falls City June 1st.

Joe Glasgow of Peru came to Nemaha Thursday to confer with those who are talking of building regarding furnishing brick. He gave us a pleasant call and renewed his subscription to the Advertiser.

As E. H. Knapp could not get a good title to the lots he had selected, across the street from the editor's home, he has bought the lot and a half south of the Methodist church, and will build there.

Miss Florence Minick went to Auburn last Saturday to join the Curtis Dramatic Co., the manager of the company having made an engagement with her by 'phone that forenoon. The company is a good one.

Mrs. C. M. Bottorff of Blair, Nebr., was visiting Mrs. Carse and other Nemaha friends this week, returning Wednesday. She made her home with Mrs. Carse several years ago, and was then generally called Eleanor Carse.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn if you want to go to any part of the city. John McElhaney prop.

CULLIN-STODDARD

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Stoddard, in North Auburn, on Easter Sunday at 1 o'clock, when their pretty and popular daughter, Miss Bernice Stoddard, became the bride of Mr. Emmert Collin of near Nemaha. Rev. W. Dieffenbach performed the ceremony.

The home was artistically decorated for the occasion and presented a charming scene. The nuptials were solemnized in the presence of near relatives and a few invited guests. Many beautiful and valuable presents were received. Just before the ceremony Mrs. Fred Dysart and her charming daughter Helen of near Peru played the wedding march. The beauty of the bride was never more emphasized and she made a most charming picture in a blue silk, carrying a bouquet of roses and carnations. The groom wore the conventional black. Following a most pleasing and impressive ceremony an elegant dinner was served to the guests. The bride is a handsome young woman of brunette type and possesses many pleasing traits of character. The young lady he has won has a number of friends in this city and elsewhere. Mr. and Mrs. Collin will reside on a farm southwest of Nemaha. Congratulations and best wishes follow them to their future home.

Fourteen members of the Women's Relief Corps of Brownville visited Mrs. Joe Bunker Wednesday. The party was composed of Mesdames Haves, Shrieves, Sapp, Summers, O'Pelt, Cole, August, Thomas, Simmons, Young, Andrews, Parker, Sanders and Carter. While they were at the depot waiting for the train Rev. J. W. Sapp was attracted by their healthy looks, so he weighed them and found their combined weight was 2153 pounds, almost 154 pounds each. The lightest one weighed 112 and the heaviest 245.

M. W. Knapp had a sore head for several days, and he is not one of the soreheaded kind either. But he had good reason for being soreheaded this time. He was splitting wood in the yard when the axe caught on the clothesline and was jerked back, striking him a violent blow with the pole of the axe on top of the head. He was stunned for an instant, and had a very sore head for a few days.

S. C. French of Auburn came near having a bad accident Monday night. He had brought a piano from Auburn for Mrs. Emmet Collin. In returning to Nemaha he got off the road near J. H. Seid's place, and got in the ditch. Fortunately the wagon did not upset, and with some assistance he got in the road again and came on to town. It was very dark and he could not see the road.

W. W. Sanders can do your job work, send you the Advertiser, insure your house, barn and live stock, give you your mail, make out legal papers, give you a trial for alleged violations of the law, or perform the marriage ceremony, as he is publisher of the Advertiser, insurance agent, postmaster, notary public and justice of the peace.

Dr. H. S. Gaither expects to start for Colorado in a few days, for the benefit of his health, which has been very poor for some time. The doctor is a fine physician and we hope he will find his health fully restored and return to Nemaha to resume practice. He carries with him the best wishes of his many friends and patients.

Rev. W. Dieffenbach of Auburn gave us a pleasant call Thursday forenoon. Mr. Dieffenbach is a very popular minister as well as a very able one. He informs us he entered the ministry in 1880, and since then he has performed 601 marriage ceremonies. He is a great favorite with the young people.

Ruth Knapp, E. H. Knapp's little daughter, ran into a barb wire fence last Saturday, while playing with some other little girls, and cut a gash in her forehead about two inches long. Dr. Keeling dressed it and it is getting well but will leave a scar for awhile.

The members of Victory lodge No. 195, Independent Order of Odd Fellows celebrated the 86th anniversary of the order by giving a supper Wednesday night to the members of the order, their families and the members of the Rebekah lodge. An interesting program was given, consisting of music and a fine address by Rev. W. Dieffenbach of Auburn, who spoke on the principles of Odd Fellowship. His address was one of the best ever given in Nemaha on an occasion of this kind. He is a fine speaker. At nine o'clock the tables were set and eating began. About 125 were present, and after all had eaten there was enough left for as many more. The supper was a fine one in every respect. The Odd Fellows set the tables and acted as waiters, and certainly did the work in good style.

The Odd Fellows are a mighty fine set of fellows, if they do call themselves odd, and the editor is always glad when he gets an invitation to attend one of their gatherings. We always accept.

Peter Kerker is now the oldest business man in point of service in Nemaha. For twenty-nine years he has catered to the wants of the people as proprietor of the city meat market, and during that time has taken very few vacations. Few men have attended to business as faithfully as he has done.

Joe Bunker will be kept pretty busy for awhile. He has the contract for doing the carpenter work on the opera house, and also has the contract for building a house for Mrs. J. B. Hoover and one for E. H. Knapp. He is now getting out window and door frames for these buildings.

D. J. Drebert of Omaha, special agent of the German Mutual Fire Insurance Co., was in Nemaha Tuesday looking after the business of that company. W. W. Sanders has been appointed agent to succeed M. T. Hill, who has removed to Shubert.

Fraud Exposed
A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease, for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's, or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada.
