Miss Helen Hoover went to Red Cloud, Nebr., last Friday to visit Mrs. T. C. Hacker and other friends for two weeks.

The summer school at the Peru Normal begins next Monday. Several of the teachers from Nemaha and vicinity expect to attend.

Alex. Washburn came in from Auburn Friday to be present at the commencement exercises. His daughter, Miss Bessie Washburn, was one of the graduates.

Misses Edna and Blanche Lytle, who have been teaching in Richardson county the past school year, started for their home near Broken Arrow, Indian territory, Monday.

C. W. Roberts, who went down to Kansas last week with his wife, called there by the sickness of Grandma Skeen, returned home Saturday.

The B. & M. pile driver and workmen have been in Nemaha this week, driving piling for a new bridge to replace the old one across the Nemaha south of town.

Ira B. Dye and Joe Glasgow of Peru were Nemaha visitors last Saturday. Mr. Dye is one of the proprietors of the Peru brick yard and was interviewing prospective builders.

Ben T. Skeen returned from Kansas last Sunday. When he left the doctors thought his mother was better, and the apparent improvement continued until a short time before her death.

Preaching at the Christian church Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Subject at morning service, "The Gift of Tongues." Evening, "Parents Mistakes." An invitation extended to all.

Miss Eva Jarvis, who has been in poor health for some time, went to St. Louis a few days ago to enter a hospital for treatment. It is hoped she will receive benefit from the treatment and return home cured.

Frank Woodward has had part of the rubbish cleared off of the site of one of the burned buildings and a croquet ground made on it. It improves the looks of the place as well as furnishing amusement for the croquet lovers.

Stephen Cooper was able to come up to town last Saturday, but while in the barber shop he fainted away and it was some time before he was restored to consciousness. He was taken home and was quite sick for several hours, but was able to be out again Monday.

MEETING OF BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

The County Commissioners will meet as a board of equalization on June 13th, when and where all persons having grievances should appear and have the same examined and adjusted.

Misses Mary and Jessie Steuteville drove down from Brownville Tuesday and visited their brother, Earle Steuteville, and some of their many friends for a few hours. Miss Mary has been teaching in Stratton and Miss Jessie in Gering, Nebr., for the past nine months, returning home Monday.

Press Barker says he is going to quit being brotherly with the Methodists if many more mean tricks are played on him. He attended the Methodist social last Friday night, and when he got home found some one had left three small pups on his doorstep. He was trying to create a demand for them the next day.

The teachers of the Nemaha schools this year have given us a good school. Of course every thing has not moved along without some friction, but generally speaking there has been very little complaint. Wherever they may go and whatever they may do in the future, they have the best wishes of the people of Nemaha for their prosperity.

Clifford Hendricks went to his home in Pawnee county, Nebr., Moudap, to spend the vacation. Mr. Hendricks has made a great many friends during his stay with us. He is a good teacher as well as a fine christian gentleman. He will be greatly missed in the Christian church, Sunday school and Christian Endeavor. The pupils of the high school went to the depot Monday to bid him good-bye when he left.

The fishermen who went over to the Nishna the first of last week returned Thursday evening of last week. They say they caught lots of fish, but as they brought none home with them we will have to take their word for it. Ole Roberts and Curt Brown, assisted by Frank Harford, acted as cooks, and say it kept them guessing to cook enough for ten hungry men. They say they caught more fish than they could eat.

Mr. and Mrs. John I. Dressler and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Anderson went over to the Nishna Wednesday to fish for two or three days.

Mrs. Henry Field of Shenandoah, Iowa, arrived in Nemaha Thursday morning on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. P. Thompson, and her many friends in this neighborhood.

T. J. Majors of Peru passed through Lincoln yesterday on his way from Grand Island to his home. The grief of Mr. Majors over the complications in which his old friend E. Rosewater of Omaha finds himself, was described by passengers as a heart-rending scene. At one time the conductor is said to have stopped the train to permit Mr. Majors to give vent to his feelings.—State Journal.

A catfish weighing 50 pounds was caught in the Missouri river last Friday morning by a couple of fishermen named Daily and Monroe, who have been fishing here for two or three weeks. It was brought up town and weighed at Pete Kerker's meat market, attracting general attention. Frank Woodward bought it and shipped it out to E. M. Boyd, cashier of the Carson National bank at South Auburn. Ed is a great lover of fish, but we imagine he divided that one with his neighbors.

The wires evidently got crossed in the editor's cranium last week. We called the primaries for last Saturday, one week too soon. We said Mrs. A. R. McCandless gave a reception to the graduating class, when it was Mrs. Earle Gilbert. We said Will Bousfield and wife of Auburn were visiting friends in Nemaha last Thursday. Will says he will make affidavit that he is not married, and intimates that we were trying to spoil his chance of ever becoming a benedict. He says he was not in Nemaha that day, but his brother Warren and wife were here. We plead guilty to all indictments, and ask for mercy.

J. E. Rentfrow got a bad fall last Saturday forenoon. He was working on a scaffold about five feet from the ground on Ed Knapp's house when he stepped on the end of a board that gave way, letting him fall to the ground. He got a nasty cut and bruise on the left side of the head, but his worst injury was to the left arm and side. The wrist was dislocated and probably a bone fractured, and the side bruised. He has suffered severely since the accident occurred, and to make matters worse, he is now suffering with the rheumatism. He gets little rest except when under the influence of morphine.

Last Saturday Roy McCully, who is working for Eugene Kerst, lost a pocketbook as he was going to Auburn. The pocketbook contained a $5 bill and an indelible pencil. The next day the pocketbook was found about a half mile north of the Champion school house, but the contents were gone. As the rubber was yet around the pocketbook it does not seem possible that the money could get out, yet it may have done so. If anyone finds a $5 bill in that section or between the schoolhouse and the court house they should return it to Mr. McCully, who is a poor young man and cannot afford to lose even that amount.

Nemaha chapter No. 76, Order of Eastern Star, held a special meeting last Saturday night. Miss Pearl Thompson was initiated into the order. The following officers were installed: Mrs. Sarah Thompson, W. M. W. W. Sanders, W. P. Mrs. Mary R. Keeling, A. M. A. L. P. Thompson, Sec'y. Mrs. J. M. Sanders, Treas. Mrs. Lauretta Seid, A. C. W. W. Keeling, Chaplain. Miss Pearl Thompson, Electa. W. W. Seid, Sentinel. The remainder of the officers were not present and will be installed later. After lodge adjourned ice cream and cake was served.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

The commencement exercises of the Nemaha high school were held in the Methodist church last Friday night. On account of the crowded condition of the building the people were not as comfortable as usual, but there was almost perfect order and all that was said could be heard plainly in any part of the room. Every one had a seat, even if it was a little close quarters in some instances.

The printed program was carried out in full. The instrumental music and singing was all good. The instrumental duet by Misses Grace Peabody and Avis Carse was especially fine. The graduating themes were all on the history of Nemaha and the Nemaha schools. Miss Ethel Sherwood took as her subject the alumni of Nemaha. Her article was published in last week's Advertiser. Instead of it she recited "The Roman Sentinel." Albert Claud Maxwell spoke on "Straightening Nature's Crooks," and advocated the straightening of the crooks of the Nemaha river, and giving his ideas of why it would be a profitable undertaking. Lulu Cooper in "Looking Backward" gave a brief history of the town that was of interest to all. Theodore Hill spoke on "Nature's Gifts," telling how Nemaha had been favored by nature, and causing his hearers to have a deeper love and greater pride for our beautiful little village and surroundings than ever before. Miss Bessie Washburn's theme was "A Foundation for a Future," and Miss Maude Burns spoke on "Schools of Yesterday," giving a history of the schools in the past years in Nemaha. Both were good. Daisy Clark gave a recitation that was fine. The class address by Prof. Herbert Brownell of the Peru Normal school was on the subject of the Professor of Housewifery, and advocated giving girls lessons in practical homemaking and house-keeping in connection with their other education. J. M. Clark in behalf of the school board then presented the graduates with the diplomas they had earned by their faithful work in the school room in the past years. The graduates were remembered by their friends with flowers, books and other suitable presents.

The church was nicely decorated, good taste being used in all the decorations. The motto, "Originality in all Things," covered an arch across the front of the church.

The class of '05 have the best wishes of the Advertiser for success in all future undertakings. May their lives be long and useful ones.

Mr. West of Rockport, Mo., has decided to put in a brick manufacturing plant in Nemaha. He is said to be an expert in this line, and says he will guarantee his brick to be first class. There will probably be a good demand for brick in Nemaha this summer, and we believe in patronizing the home manufacturer, other things being equal.

Dying of Famine

is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearloss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at Keeling's drug store, price 50c and $1.00 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

Remember, we will take your subscription for any newspaper published anywhere in the United States and can usually save you money.

Remember that W. W. Sanders writes insurance. He is agent for several first class companies, both mutual and old line. His rates are as low as any. Give him a call.

We had the pleasure last Friday of attending a dinner at the Champion schoolhouse. It was the last day of school and the patrons got up the dinner as a pleasant surprise on the teacher, C. E. Sanders. A large number of the patrons were present. Mr. Sanders has taught a school that has given the very best of satisfaction, and the patrons are all anxious to have him take the school another year at an advance in salary. The members of the school board, all of whom were present, assured us that they had not heard a single complaint this year, but that every patron was anxious to have Mr. Sanders another year. The dinner was just such as is always gotten up by the good cooks of the Champion neighborhood, as they cannot be excelled anywhere.

Huge Task

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression. In Electric Bitter, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by W. W. Keeling druggist; price 20c."
