Now Will M. Maupin follows our John H. Dundas's example, and boldly and publicly announces that he has a hankerin' to be a candidate and wants it understood that he is a candidate for congress. But Maupin is a little different from Dundas, as he wants the democratic nomination, while Dundas wants nothing but the votes of the people. One will come about as near being elected as the other.

We had a heavy rain Sunday evening. It was accompanied by a hard wind and considerable hail. Limbs were broken off trees by the wind and garden stuff injured somewhat. In the country considerable damage was done in places to corn and wheat. The hail storm seemed to center at the farm of S. O. Lawrence and in that vicinity. Sam will have 25 acres of corn to replant. Hail was lying on the ground yet Monday morning in this vicinity. At Howe and Stella there was no rain or hail. Some fruit was knocked off in this section by the hail.

The children's day exercises at the Methodist church Sunday night were well attended, in spite of the stormy weather. Though it was raining until almost eight o'clock the church was fairly well filled, and the congregation was well entertained. Although part of the program had to be omitted on account of the children being kept away by the storm, the program given was very interesting, lasting almost an hour. The children all had their parts well committed and rendered them well. To Mrs. Elmer E. Allen, Mrs. Earle Gilbert and Miss Lulu Cooper is due the credit of training the children.

Hon. E. M. Pollard, republican candidate for congress, and Senator Burkett will open the republican campaign in the First congressional district at Auburn, Neb., Saturday, June 17, 1905. Meeting will be held on the court house lawn, at the hour of 2 p. m. if weather will permit, otherwise at the new opera house.

This will be the only meeting held in this county between now and election day—July 18—consequently every voter is urged to be present and hear Mr. Pollard and Senator Burkett discuss the political issues of the day. Good music for the occasion will be furnished by the Auburn Cornet Band.

The more we hear our farmers discuss the corn raising problem the stronger we become in our idea that the lister must soon be relegated to the junk pile. The late Edward Cook, who was not only one of the largest but most successful farmers in Johnson county, adopted a plan several years ago of renting his many farms for one third of the crop and in each lease placed a stipulation that no corn be listed on his land. While others were securing two-fifths of the crop Mr. Cook was contented with a third, but today his land is in far better condition than is that of those who asked a heavier rent but permitted the listing of corn.—Tecumseh Tribune.

The management of the Auburn Chautauqua have just issued their detailed program, which will be delivered to every home in Nemaha and adjoining counties by the 15th to 30th of June, which shows an unusual array of first class talent. The assembly will be held a little earlier this year, July 23 to 30. Among the talent presented are DeWitt Miller, Saturday evening, July 23, subject, "Love, Chastity and Matrimony," also a sermon Sunday afternoon at 2:30, "Is the World Growing Better or Worse?" The American Vitagraph Co., the greatest moving picture company in the world, will give three entertainments, July 24, 25, 26, The Jubilee Singers, consisting of eight people, July 22, 23, 24, 25. Dr. Edward Burton McDowell will give two illustrated lectures, on July 28, "Sameo, the Tropical Paradise of the South Pacific," July 29, "The Panama Canal," Robert McIntyre, Sunday, July 30 at 2:30, "The Battle of Life."

Miss Nina M. Kenagy, of Lincoln, has again been secured as superintendent of the Children's Chautauqua. For further particulars, catalogues and tents, apply to A. L. Allen, sec'y, Auburn, Neb.

Improvements on the State Fair grounds are well under way.

A new poultry building 60x110 feet will be built on the site of the present building. A part of the present building will be retained for the exhibition of poultry appliances, such as incubators, brooders, etc.

The contract for the new administrative building 38x60 feet has been let. The building will be of cement blocks, and will occupy space near the present headquarters building.

The present amphitheatre will be extended 150 feet to the west, thus adding fifty per cent to its seating capacity. The infield has been leveled and seeded and the track is in first class condition.

A bid to erect the new live stock pavilion for $9,439 has been accepted and the building will be ready for use at the opening of the fair. This building is to be 95x110 feet, built of cement blocks and brick, and will be the most expensive and imposing building on the grounds. It will probably be located immediately south of Merchants Hall, midway between the cattle and horse barns, one of the most slightly locations on the grounds, and in full view of the thousands of people who daily pass the State Fair grounds over the Burlington, Northwestern and Rock Island railroads.

The State Fair Premium List is now ready for distribution and may be had by addressing Secretary State Board of Agriculture, Lincoln, Nebraska.

State Fair dates are September 1 to 8 1905.

No Secret About It
It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Bells etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c at Keeling's drug store.
