The summer normal school at Peru closed Thursday.

F. L. Woodward and Marie went to Lincoln Wednesday.

Eugene Bonhotel got one hand badly hurt in a binder a few days ago.

Mrs. E. A. Minick is visiting her son O. L. Minick, near Bracken, this week.

Mrs. Frank Argabright has been very sick but we learn is some better.

Walter Curtwright came down from Syracuse Saturday, returning Monday.

Miss Agatha Totton of Lincoln is visiting Miss Elizabeth Hawxby this week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Duerfeldt started for Michigan Wednesday afternoon to visit her old home.

Elmer Allen is getting plans for the counters and fixtures for the new bank building.

Miss Hazel Parker returned to Auburn Thursday after a three weeks' visit in Nemaha.

Will Davenport of Chicago was shaking hands with his numerous friends Thursday.

The editor went to Tecumseh Wednesday morning, returning on the freight that night.

Chas. W. Burns returned to Beatrice Monday after a few days' visit with his parents in Nemaha.

Miss Elia Shiveley is visiting her brother, Jim Shiveley, in Aspinwall precinct, this week.

Mrs. White, mother of Mrs. Mary E. Flack, went to Auburn Tuesday to visit her son, John White.

Dan Maxwell harvested nineteen acres of wheat this week that he thinks will go forty bushels to the acre.

F. L. Woodward is having a ditch dug west of the railroad track east of town to drain the Hoover pastures.

F. L. Collin who lives on the Lambert place south of town lost a valuable horse Tuesday with spasmodic colic.

Will Keeling this week delivered to Miss Cora Morton a fine Richmond piano which was recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lawton went to Highland, Kansas, Monday to visit Mr. Lawton's mother. They will be gone about two weeks.

Men wore their overcoats when out riding Tuesday. It is not often that an overcoat is necessary for comfort the last of June.

Thos. King, of Aspinwall precinct, received a telegram Monday giving the sad news of the death of his brother, living in Missouri.

Roy Smith, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, for about six weeks, returned to Stratton, Nebr., Saturday.

Dressmaking

Mrs. J. E. Crother requests to inform her friends and patrons she is now prepared to cut and fit to order.

Mrs. Edith Chandler of Syracuse, Neb., arrived in Nemaha last Saturday and visited her sister, Mrs. Neil McIntyre, until Wednesday, when she went to Craig, Mo.

Chas. B. Colerick and little daughter returned to Geneva, Nebr., Thursday after a few days' visit at Nemaha. Mr. Colerick lost his wife last December and is left with a little three-year-old daughter.

Miss Pearl Farson, who has been visiting friends at Barada and in the southeastern part of this county, returned home the first of this week.

W. E. Weir, late local editor of the Auburn Herald, gave us a call Thursday. Mr. Weir is now advance agent for the Midland Lyceum bureau but is going to the Peru Normal school next fall.

The wheat this year is of excellent quality and the yield is good. If nothing happens our farmers will certainly make a good thing from their wheat crop this year, as the crop is large and the price good.

Account of the 4th of July celebration at Nebraska City there will be a train leave Nemaha late the morning of the 4th, returning leave Nebraska City 11:45 p. m., Round trip will be 90 cents.

W. E. WHEELDON.

Ole Roberts fell out of the haymow Thursday at noon and badly sprained his ankle. He declares he didn't do it just to get out of helping harvest, even if it does look a little suspicious, as they had just commenced harvesting. Ole says he would work in the harvest field than to hobble round and suffer with a sprained ankle.

The report has been circulated that Frank Titus is not a candidate for county clerk, but we are authorized to say that he is a candidate and his opponents will learn that he is a lively one when the convention is held. Frank is well qualified for the position and we know of no reason why he is not deserving of the nomination.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Catlin and Miss Iva Catlin started for Connecticut Wednesday afternoon. They go on the teachers' excursion to the national convention at Asbury Park, New Jersey, and will be gone about two months. By special arrangement a coach will go through from Peru to the destination of the teachers, so there will be no change of cars. The round trip costs only $35 for railroad fare.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

Mrs. Harry Gongwer of Aspinwall precinct attempted suicide last Sunday by taking a dose of aconite. By prompt measures her life was saved. She had had a little trouble with her husband and decided to end the trouble and her life at the same time. It is to be hoped this will be the last effort of this kind she will ever make, and it will probably be so.

Preparations are being made for a big fourth of July celebration at Auburn. Rev. J. R. Gettys of Beatrice is the orator of day. Short addresses will be made by M. C. Shurtleff, Edgar Erneau, Rev. T. F. Ashb., E. B. Quackenbush, Fred Hawxby. In the afternoon there will be specialties by Millers all-star Vaudeville Co., headed by the famous Clayton Ladies brass band. A trotting contest, three-year old race, free-to-all pony race. At night there will be a concert and special amusements Miller's Vaudeville and special theater with special music. Everything free.

Last Sunday afternoon we attended the children's day service of the Chalmers Sunday school. Walter L. Thompson is the superintendent of the school and is evidently a good one, judging from the interest taken in the program. The house was crowded and many could not get in. The house was nicely decorated with evergreens, flowers and branches. The program was quite lengthy and was all good, showing the children had careful training. Those who had charge of the exercises are to be congratulated on the success attending their efforts.

We will send the Advertiser, the weekly Lincoln State Journal, the Iowa Homestead, the Farm Gazette and the Homemaker, all one year for only $1.50. The regular price of these papers is $3.25.

The republican state central committee has been called to meet at Lincoln Friday night of this week. The purpose of the meeting is to fix a time and place for the republican state convention to nominate a candidate for judge of the supreme court and two referents of the state university.

The will of the late ex-Governor Robert W. Furnas was admitted for probate in the county court the first of this week. According to the terms of the will the property in Brownville is bequeathed to Mrs. Susannah Furnas, widow of the deceased. The large library and personal property is also willed to Mrs. Furnas. The remainder of the property is bequeathed to his children J. Sterling Morton, "my long time and faithful friend," is named as executor of the estate but as Mr. Morton has died since the making of the will E. M. Boyd is named as executor.

The estate, consisting mostly of real estate in the vicinity of Brownville, is estimated to be worth about $20,000.

AUBURN WANTS IT ALL

According to the Auburn correspondent of the Lincoln News, the politicians of that burg have fixed up the republican ticket for next fall. It is composed of Fred Roberts for sheriff, J. M. Wright for clerk, M. S. McIninch for judge, D. J. A. Dirks for treasurer and Geo. D. Carrington for superintendent—every one Auburn men, unless we except Dirks, who was a resident of Johnson when elected but who now owns a home in Auburn. These are all good men for the position—we haven't a word to say against any of them—but we do not believe the outside precincts will be satisfied to let Auburn take everything in sight. The same objection raised against Lincoln by Auburn at Falls City in the convention when making a fight for Judge Neal for congress can be urged in this county against Auburn. The outside precincts have candidates, and if they would adopt the tactics used at the Falls City convention by outside counties they would win out as those counties did. So Auburn had better concede a little to the rest of the county. Be fair, gentlemen. We have just as good men for the offices outside of Auburn as there are inside of that burg.

ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETING

The annual school meeting was held Monday night. After the reading of the minutes and the report of the directors and treasurer, John I. Dressler introduced a resolution requiring all pupils in the tenth grade to have an average of 85 at the examination in April in order to graduate. After some discussion it was amended to have the average grade 80, and no grade to be below 70, in order to graduate. The motion as amended was then adopted.

The question of making the annual levy brought out considerable discussion. Finally a motion was made and carried making a levy of 20 mills. The director stated that as near as the board could find out, the district was about $1,000 in debt. The expenses for next year were estimated at $1,400. During the past year the indebtedness had been reduced about $500. The expense of running the school last year was about $1,300. The salary of the intermediate and primary teachers have been increased for the next year $5 per month each. An informal ballot was then taken for members of the school board. F. L. Woodward and John I. Dressler received a majority of all votes cast, and on motion the informal ballot was made formal and they were declared reelected. The meeting then adjourned.

DEATH OF COL. DAVENPORT

Lewis Cass Davenport, a well-known and highly respected business man of Shubert, Neb., and formerly a resident of this city for many years, died at St. Mary's hospital, yesterday morning at 8 o'clock from a kidney trouble for which he has been receiving treatment at the hospital for some time past. He had been seriously ill for several weeks and his death was not unexpected. He is survived by two grown children, Miss Ethel, of Omaha, and William of Chicago. Mrs. Davenport died many years ago.

The deceased was born in Gallipolis, Ohio, March 31, 1839, and was in his sixty-sixth year at the date of his death. He came to Brownville, Neb., in 1856 and in 1859 removed to Nebraska City and engaged in the grocery business, overland freighting and later engaged in the grain business. Deceased was a charter member of Western Star Lodge, No. 2, A. F. and A. M. of this city.

In 1868 the deceased was married to Miss Emmeline Fulton at the Presbyterian church in this city. In 1885 Mr. Davenport located in Shubert, Neb., and engaged in the grain business in which he continued up to the date of his recent illness.

Mr. Davenport was a man of high personal character and held the respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact during his lifetime. Of quiet and retiring disposition he was no less hearty, genuine and loyal in all his friendly associations and of high integrity and probity in all his business dealings. A long list of sincere friends in every state and territory of the great west will join in extending sympathy to his bereaved family. The funeral services were held at 5 o'clock Monday evening from the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Morton, 815 First Corso, the interment being made in Wyuka cemetery. Rev. A. E. Knickerbocker of St. Mary's Episcopal church conducted the funeral services. The pallbearers were Volney M. Street, Edward Sheldon, Robert Payne, Nelson Overton of this city and P. S. Heacock and Warren Hutchins, of Falls City, Neb.—Nebraska City Tribune.

The supreme court has decided that the biennial election law is unconstitutional, and now every body is engaged in saying "I told you so." Since this decision has been rendered the question has arisen as to the legality of the special election called for July 18, for the election of a successor to Burkett. Many lawyers claim that the governor has no power to call a special election under the circumstances, but the governor and Attorney General Brown say he has. So we will have the special election, and then we will have the regular annual election in November.
