

Notice to Pupils.

Those who were absent at the close of the term last year, and those who failed to take the final examinations, must be examined this fall before entering a higher grade.

Those who failed to pass in one or two studies may be examined in them again this fall if they so desire.

Come to me for help at any time.
C. E. SANDERS.

Special services will be held at the Methodist church every night this week and on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Sunday evening services will be held in the park, beginning at eight o'clock. Rev. and Mrs. Jacobs, evangelists, will conduct the meetings. Everybody is invited. Mrs. Jacobs is a fine singer and will have charge of that part of the services.

The Nebraska Advertiser

Miss Alta Renfrow is visiting relatives and friends in Loup City Nebr.

Dr. Keeling has not been feeling well for several days but is getting some better.

We will send the Advertiser, the weekly Lincoln State Journal, the Iowa Homestead, the Farm Gazette

Floyd and Warren Stephenson are staying with their grandmother, Mrs. John Watson, while their parents are absent in New York.

F. L. Woodward went to Sioux City, Iowa, last Saturday, returning Tuesday morning and has been sick in bed since that, but is getting better.

Remember that W.W. Sanders writes insurance. He is agent for several first class companies, both mutual and old line. His rates are as low as any. Give him a call.

C. P. Barker had roasting ears last Thursday, July 27, from field corn planted May 4. This is certainly an early kind of field corn, and will be out of the way of frosts.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Jacobs, the evangelists, arrived in Nemaha Wednesday afternoon and will begin the series of meetings at the Methodist church this (Thursday) evening.

Norman Mead came in from Blue Springs Wednesday. Norman has sold out and is looking for a location in Nemaha county. We will be glad to have him with us again.

Hon. W. D. Oldham of Lincoln, supreme court commissioner, will be one of the speakers at the old settlers picnic Aug. 24. Mr. Oldham is one of the finest orators in the state.

The editor of the Advertiser ventured the remark on the train Monday that Nemaha was the best town in the county. It is quite evident that Bro. Sanders doesn't visit Peru often or he would know better.—Peru Pointer.

Mrs. Kate Higgins and Mrs. O. E. Higgins of Nebraska City, mother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Ben Colerick and Mrs. John Knight, visited these ladies from Thursday of last week until Wednesday of this week.

Died—At Billings, Montana, Thursday morning, August 3, 1905, Mr. Walter A. Owens, father of Mrs. W. F. Keeling, of Nemaha, aged 49 years, 11 months and 19 days. Mr. Owens spent the winter of 1903-04 in Nemaha with his daughter.

Ed L. Culver of South Omaha came to Nemaha last Friday and visited with Dr. Keeling and family until Monday. Mrs. Culver, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Keeling, has been visiting here a couple of weeks. She returned home with Mr. Culver Monday.

R. A. Hunter of Auburn gave us a call Thursday of last week. Mr. Hunter is getting up a county map for the Auburn Herald, which will give the owner of every farm in the county, the rural routes, and other interesting information. It will be a valuable map.

We learn that Mrs. C. C. Barks of Cozad, Nebr., died at the hospital in Omaha Tuesday. She went a few days previously to have an operation performed. She leaves a husband and six children. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Barks in Nemaha will sympathize with the sorrowing husband and children in their great affliction.

The Champion boys, with the addition of a few of our boys, have organized a base ball team that they claim will be a winner. They prepare for all contingencies and carry their surgeon with them, Dr. F. E. Gaither holding this position. They had use for him Wednesday as a ball struck Ole Roberts on the head, cutting a gash over the right eye an inch long. Dr. Gaither had to take a stitch in the gash to close it. In addition Ole has a very black eye. Some of the boys accuse the doctor of trying to work up practice, as he is the one that batted the ball that struck Ole, but he denies the charge.

Some thirty years ago a youth by the name of Ben Bates was hired to take care of Luther Hoadley, a wealthy man of Brownville who was paralyzed. Mr. and Mrs. Hoadley became attached to him and adopted him, and he took the name of Benj. B. Hoadley. When Mr. Hoadley died he left Ben about $10,000. The young man soon became very reckless and spent money freely. He married the daughter of Major Wm. Daily of Peru, and several children were born to them. Ben soon lost all his money and eventually went to Colorado where he secured a position as overseer in a mine, we believe, and died there. His widow came back to Peru and is now one of the teachers in the schools in that place. The above history is brought to the recollection of our older citizens by the following account of the sending of one of Ben's sons to the insane asylum to be treated for drunkenness. It is to be hoped a cure will be effected.

William Hoadley, a young man barely nineteen years of age, from Havelock, is the first person to be sent to the asylum from this county under the Epperson bill, passed by the last legislature, giving magistrates authority to commit individuals to the insane institution when addicted to the excessive use of alcoholic liquors or narcotics.

Hoadley seemed rather defiant and disinclined to conduct himself properly when he was quartered at the institution. He had a sullen look, but it was admitted that he was sober at this time, something alleged to be very unusual for him during the last three years.

When he understood that the insanity board had committed him, he glared in the direction of its officials.

"I will make it interesting when I get there," said he, referring to the asylum management.

"You will behave yourself like a gentleman," interposed Dr. Greene. "If you do not, you will be forced to obey."

"I suppose I will have to. You have the power to make me," answered Hoadley.

Hoadley is a young fellow who came to Havelock from Peru to learn the trade of machinist in the Burlington shops. He was a bright, capable youngster, and had almost completed his apprenticeship. If it had not been for his inordinate love for liquor he would have had a steady job at high wages in that branch of the mechanical department.

Three years ago when but sixteen years of age he began to tittle and soon became a confirmed toper. Spending the bulk of his wages for red eye he was unable to pay his board bills and it is recorded that he has been sent to the local jail several times because he failed to meet legitimate bills for board and lodging.

His dissipated habits caused him to be discharged from the shops more than once and as his intemperance increased he lost his place permanently. He has a mother living at Peru who needs financial help from him but she did not get it because his money was spent otherwise.

Driven from proper shelter by his own conduct it is said that he was forced to sleep out in sheds and other undesirable buildings for want of funds to pay his way. It was testified to that when he did secure a piece of coin he repaired at once to the nearest saloon and blew it in for booze. For some time he has been walking about the busy little shop city in a half drunken condition, his youthful mind dazed from his excesses.

Mrs. S. K. Daily, of University Place, an aunt of Hoadley, said that she had once pulled him out of a saloon and had begged and pleaded with him to reform and help support his widowed mother, but he simply laughed in her face and informed her that he did not have money enough to support himself.

The Dailys have interested themselves in the lad and are in favor of giving him treatment under the new law in the hope that he may be yet reclaimed to his family and friends before he becomes a hopeless wreck. In the last three days the dram sellers of Havelock have been warned not to sell liquor to Hoadley, and this fact explains why he was more than ordinarily sober this morning.

Dr. Greene said that, if ever there was a good subject for treatment under the law, Hoadley was one. He was young, bright and competent and if he could be saved it would be a most happy consummation, the superintendent said.

Ashland, July 27.—Hon. T. B. Dinsmore of Sutton, grand treasurer of the Masonic lodge of Nebraska, visited Ashland yesterday and presented to Father C. P. Hackney the medal recently voted him as the oldest Mason in the state. This medal was held until his recent death by ex-Governor Robert W. Furnas. With the voting of the honor to Father Hackney the grand lodge also provided him with a pension of $25 per month as long as he lives, the pension to go to his wife during her life should Father Hackney die first. Father Hackney is 91 years old and has been a Mason since 1841. He came to Nebraska in the early days and until a few years ago, preached continuously two or three times each Sunday in and about Ashland. For many years he was pastor of the Methodist, Episcopal church of Ashland and in later years has acted as city missionary, ministering to the poor and infirm. Though nearly 100 years old Father Hackney is still active and is seen every day upon the streets of Ashland, where he is greatly loved and esteemed.

No Secret About It

It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c at Keeling's drug store.

Died—At his home in Auburn Thursday, August 3, 1905, at 2:40 a. m. Hiram Lysrrius Campbell, aged 59 years, 3 months and 13 days. Services will be held at the residence at 11 o'clock Saturday, conducted by Rev. W. Dieffenbach. Interment in the Nemaha cemetery.

The deceased was one of the old settlers of the county and was highly respected. He lived on a fine farm east of Hove until a year or so ago when he moved to Auburn. His death will be universally lamented. He was an old soldier.

Hugo Task

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and debression. In Electric Bitter, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by W. W. Keeling druggist; price 50c."

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

I was all run down from nervousness and overwork and had to resign my position and take a rest. I found that I was not gaining my strength and health as fast as I could wish, and as your Wine of Cardui was recommended as such a good medicine for the ills of our sex, I bought a bottle and began using it. I was satisfied with the results from the use of the first bottle, and took three more and then found I was restored to good health and strength and able to take up my work with renewed vigor. I consider it a fine tonic and excellent for worn-out, nervous condition, and am pleased to endorse it.
