

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

I was all run down from nervousness and overwork and had to resign my position and take a rest. I found that I was not gaining my strength and health as fast as I could wish, and as your Wine of Cardui was recommended as such a good medicine for the ills of our sex, I bought a bottle and began using it. I was satisfied with the results from the use of the first bottle, and took three more and then found I was restored to good health and strength and able to take up my work with renewed vigor. I consider it a fine tonic and excellent for worn-out, nervous condition, and am pleased to endorse it.

Mrs. J. E. Crother is visiting in Auburn this week.

Wm. French and Fred Dysert of London precinct were Nemaha visitors Thursday.

Mrs. W. F. Keeling went to Stantbury, Mo., Thursday afternoon, to visit her mother.

N. B. Scrivener is very sick and does not improve much. He is suffering from a complication of diseases, and as he is 77 years of age, his condition is serious.

F. L. Woodward is still suffering severely at times from peritonitis. He has been a very sick man but is some better now. It is hoped he will soon get out.

John Farson has the contract for digging cellar and ditch for foundation walls for the Gilbert and bank buildings and commenced work on the same Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Dreury of Alliance who have been visiting here for several days, were called home Thursday by a telegram announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Dreury's father.

Two packages left at check stand the day of the picnic were not claimed. One is checked No. 45, the other has no check on it. One contained a lunch and tablecloth and the other some baby clothes. Both can be had by calling at the postoffice.

STOCK FOR SALE

I have for sale 53 head of fine large feeding steers; about 100 head of Chester white hogs and pigs; a fine lot of young mules and horses; a six foot McCormick mower and a fine riding plow.

JOHN S. STULL,
Auburn, Nebr.

One week from next Sunday, Sept. 10, the Sunday school convention will be held at Nemaha. The services will be held in the park if the weather is suitable, and if not, in one of the churches. There will be no Sunday school at either of the churches on that day, as the entire day will be given up to the services, which will begin at 10 o'clock a. m. The Sunday schools at Brownville, Howe, Champion and St. Deroin will be with us, as well as a number of prominent Sunday school workers from Auburn, including L. L. Coryell, the county president. A fine program has been prepared. Everybody is invited.

Earle Gilbert and Elmer E. Allen have let the contract for their buildings to D. L. Bryant of Auburn. Mr. Bryant came down Wednesday to make arrangements for beginning work at once. Both buildings will be of brick. The store building will be 26x80 and the bank building 20x40. By reason of there being but one division wall the store building will be full 24 feet wide and the bank building 18 feet wide inside measure. There will be a large cellar under the store building. The store room will be on the south, a little south of the postoffice building that burned last March. Work will be pushed as rapidly as possible, but no time is specified for their completion.

We did not hear the address of Col. T. J. Majors at the old settler's picnic, but those who did hear it say it was one of the very best addresses they ever listened to. His references to the pioneers who have passed away during the past year were full of pathos. No one is better fitted for addresses of this kind than Mr. Majors. His life-long acquaintance with the pioneers and the fact that he has lived in this county for almost fifty years, taking an active part in the development of the country, makes him peculiarly adapted to make an address of this nature. We hope the colonel will live many years to celebrate with us at these gatherings of the pioneers.

No Secrecy About It

It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c at Keeling's drug store.

Peace Declared

The Russian and Japanese ambassadors agreed on terms of peace Tuesday. In a nutshell, the terms of the peace treaty to be drafted as the result of the conference will be as follows:

1. Japan agrees to make no claim upon Russia for reimbursement for the expenses of the war.
2. Japan agrees to cede, without compensation, to Russia a part of Saghalien island, Russia to pay a reasonable sum for the care of the Russian prisoners captured, as she is bound to do by the rules of war.
3. Japan agrees that there shall be no limitation placed upon Russian naval forces in the Pacific.
4. Japan agrees to the return to Russia of all Russian warships now interned in Pacific ports.
5. Russia agrees to recognize the preponderating influence of Japan in Korea.
6. Russia and Japan agree to simultaneously move their military forces from Manchuria.
7. Russia agrees to transfer wholly to Japan the Russian leasehold in the Liao Tung peninsula, including Port Arthur and Dalny.
8. Russia agrees to return to China the civil administration of Manchuria, in accordance with the treaty of April, 1902, which Russia violated.
9. Russia agrees to transfer, without compensation, to Japan all docks, magazines and military warehouses in Port Arthur and Dalny, with the undersanding that rights in private property are to be respected.
10. Russia agrees to transfer to Japan the Manchurian railroad line between Port Arthur and Dalny and a point south of Harbin, part of which Japan now holds by right of military occupation.
11. Japan agrees to allow Russia to hold the main Manchurian railroad line.
12. Russia agrees to allow Japan fishing rights on the coast of Siberia.

Berlin, Aug. 30.—That Japan has won a great moral victory, Russia a great diplomatic one and President Roosevelt has become the first figure in international statesmanship, is what Berlin thinks of the result of the Portsmouth conference.

The foreign office where the Associated Press brought the first announcement and the summary of the conditions agreed upon, says unreservedly that without the president's personal exertions, supported by his unique position and the power of the United States, peace would not have been attained and that Germany and the whole world will benefit by the statesmanship shown by the Washington government. The foreign office acknowledges the generosity and moderation of Japan and the steadfast spirit of the Russian government.

Unwritten history relates that some of the political wirepullers of the county have called on Treasurer Dirks to exact a pledge as to who he will name as a deputy if reelected, as they believe they hold Mr. Dirks' destiny in their hands and propose to have something to say before the republican convention meets. If Mr. D. feels anyway backward about telling these fellows to go to the southwest corner of Texas, he would better delegate authority to The Granger. Mr. Dirks has proven a careful and accommodating official and will be nominated and elected as his own successor, and he can better afford to kick the bull dog hangerson over the transom than to so much as sanction such infamy by keeping silent or giving any evasive answer.—Granger.

EXCURSION TRAIN

Dying of Famine

is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearloss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at Keeling's drug store, price 50c and $1.00 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

Trip Through the Yellowstone Park

[Concluded from last week.]

We saw deer in abundance, they are not wild and timid, but raise their heads and innocently gaze at you, then quietly resume their grazing. Mr. D and I were riding the horses (which, by the way, are taken with each outfit for tourists to ride when tired of the wagon) one morning some distance ahead of the rest of our party when we came upon a herd of elk. They are not so tame as the deer; as they stray outside the park limits in winter where people hunt them.

The two nights we were camped in the Canyon our camp had to keep a guard up all night to keep the bears from robbing the grub wagon, as they will climb into the wagon and take everything in the way of meats or sweets. We all crawled out of our warm beds to see them. The thirteenth day we crossed the Yellowstone river and travelled through the mountains to the eastward, through Hayden valley and saw the Mammoth Paint Pot which is a pool of boiling paint perhaps 50 feet across the opening.

As we were the only ones of our party who could not get home without staying over Sunday on our road home, if we waited till Friday night to leave Cody, our guide made an extra drive of 55 miles on the fourteenth day, getting us into Cody on Thursday night at 8, and we left that place at 10:30 arriving in Nemaha on Sunday at 3 a. m. a very tired, dirty and sleepy outfit, but feeling amply repaid by what we saw.

For the benefit of those who contemplate taking this trip in future, I would say, we found excellent accommodations, the tents we slept in were new and had a good canvas floor, with a good mattress and plenty of warm covering which we felt the need of even in August. And we had two good warm meals, breakfast and supper, lunching at noon, and I'll tell you we were always ready for our meals.

A Bad Scare

Some day you will get a bad scare when you feel again in your bowels and fear appendicitis. Safety lies in Dr. King's New Life Pills, a sure cure for all bowel and stomach diseases, such as headache, biliousness; costiveness, etc. Guaranteed at Keeling's drug store, only 25c. Try them,

Huge Task

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression.
