

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Lincoln Evening News: Enclosed find check for $3 for one year's subscription to the Lincoln Daily News. I like the paper very much indeed and have often taken occasion to commend its stand for decent politics and fundamental reforms. It is worth a good deal to the advocates of such measures as the single tax, direct primary, direct legislation, etc., to have an influential paper which will give moral support, or at any rate, fair treatment to their efforts and I am glad the Lincoln News has grit enough to say that right is right and wrong is wrong, no matter by whom advocated or by whom opposed. This is not saying that I approve of every position you take. It is merely saying that I think you are trying to be fair, and that spirit among daily papers seems almost as rare as it is desirable. Respectfully,

A. G. CHAPMAN.

Reader, don't you want this kind of a paper? It only costs 25 cents a month.

There will be a good number of "ex's" in Nebraska City tomorrow—ex-President Grover Cleveland, ex-Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson, ex-members of the cabinet Hilary A. Herbert and Judson Harmon, and ex-Gov. David R. Francis.

And now the democratic and populist committee chairman are complaining because a fusion board of county commissioners paid J. M. Wright as much as they did for his services while county clerk. As these men cannot find much to complain of about the republicans, they go way back and find fault with their own officials. Would their present candidates, if elected, do a y better?

D. J. A. Dirks, county treasurer of Nemaha county and a candidate for reelection, and J. M. Wright, republican candidate for the Nemaha county clerkship, spent last night in this city. Their presence disclosed a rather peculiar campaign situation in our neighboring county. A small piece of Nemaha county lies on the east bank of the Missouri and this territory, which is a separate voting precinct, contains something like 100 votes. To reach their constituency the candidates were compelled to pass through three other counties lying in three different states. The gentlemen left this morning for Hamburg, Ia., where they will take a team south.—Neb. City Tribune.

The Arbor Day Memorial Association extends a hearty invitation to everyone in the West, and especially in Nebraska, to attend the unveiling ceremonies of the Arbor Day Monument to J. Sterling Morton at Nebraska City, Nebraska, October 28, 1905, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Railroads will make rates and run excursion trains. Nebraska City is arranging to take care of visitors. A large attendance is urged to an event notable in point of distinguished speakers and guests, and the culmination of a work marking an epoch in the history of the West.

Arbor Day Memorial Association
By John W. Steinhart,
Chairman Executive Committee.

Several thousand young men will vote this year for the first time. They will be interested in the law prescribing the manner of voting, for all first voters like to appear at the polls with the air of seasoned campaigners. The law provides that the voter shall first receive from a judge of election a ballot containing on its back the signatures of two judges written in ink. Then he must enter the voting booth, and mark his ballot. This he will doubtless have practiced sufficiently on the sample ballots that are always numerous for a few days preceding election. He must then fold his ballot in such a way as to leave the two signatures visible, but with his own markings covered, and give it to the judge who will place it in the box. If he spoils a ballot he can have another, but he cannot spoil more than four in all. The judges will think he is spoiling ballots so as to exhaust the supply of ballots from voting.

Brewing companies and other manufacturing companies cannot use the national flag as a trade mark. This the supreme court decided in upholding the Shelly law to prevent the discration of the flag of the United States. Halter and Hayward saloonkeepers of Omaha, representing the Willow Springs brewery were arrested for using the flag as a trade mark on bottled beer manufactured by this concern. They were fined in the lower court of Douglas county and appealed on the ground that the law was unconstitutional. The court holds that the power to prohibit the use of the national flag does not belong exclusive to the national congress but may be exercised by the several states; that the act of 1903 is not obnoxious to the fourteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States nor to the provision of the state constitution against depriving any person of his property without due process of law, and against special or class legislation. The court says an act which is calculated to foster sentiments of patriotism is not vulnerable to the objection that it is not calculated to promote the welfare of society. Nor does the fact that the flag was a part of the trade mark of the brewing company, place the defendants in any more favorable position. To the extent that the trade mark is property that comes within what has already been said a patent or trade mark puts no restraint upon the state in the exercise of its police power beyond the restraint imposed with respect of property generally. The court further says that the act is not only a valid piece of legislation but one well calculated to promote the common weal. The judgment of the district court is affirmed.
