H. MORGENSTERN, Auburn, Nebr.

We have often wondered what made Nat Titus so popular with the ladies but we saw one evidence of the cause thereof Tuesday. When we went in to M. W. Knapp's home for dinner we found Nat busily engaged taking care of the babies while the women folks, members of the Degree of Honor, who were there were visiting, working, etc. Nat seemed perfectly at home in looking after the babies, but we noticed he paid particular attention to the girl babies.

We are glad to learn that Rev. G. W. Ayers is improving now and expects to be able to hold services next Sunday evening. If he is not able to be here himself he will send some one in his place.

Later—A card received from Mr. Ayers Thursday says that while he is still improving he has yielded to the advice of friends and will not try to hold services in Nemaha next Sunday, and as he has not been able to get a man to take his place, the Epworth League will conduct the services Sunday evening.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Alexander, who moved to Indiana a little over a year ago, will sympathize with Mr. Alexander in the loss of his wife, who died Wednesday of last week. The following, taken from the Frankton (Ind.) Critic, gives the only particulars we have learned:

"Mrs. Lydia Alexander, wife of Jap Alexander, died Wednesday about noon after an illness of only a few days of the nature of an abscess in the head complicated with kidney trouble. The funeral will be preached Friday at 10 a. m. at the M. E. church by Rev. Berrett."

A number of the members of the Degree of Honor of Stella drove over to Nemaha Tuesday and took dinner with Mrs. M. W. Knapp. The editor of the Advertiser was one of the invited guests. The dinner was just such a one as might be expected from Mrs. Knapp and her assistant, Miss Anna Knapp. It was a feast and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The following were present: Mesdames J. R. Bateman, W. C. Moore, A. J. Baldwin, J. Timmerman, M. Schafer, E. V. Pugh, Frank Withee, Ephraim Withee, Albert Larimore, Ed Lippold, Lew Mourer, Frank Weaver, Eli Knapp, jr., J. M. Sanders and Ellen Howe, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Knapp, Messrs. W. W. Sanders, C. E. Sanders, G. N. Titus, Misses May Kerker and Olive Fisher. There were also eight children. Mr. and Mrs. Knapp, Miss Anna and Richard made thirty-five who ate dinner there.

After dinner the ladies all went to the opera house and were there grouped on the stage and had their pictures taken.

In the District Court of Nemaha county, state of Nebraska:

Ida McVey, plaintiff,

vs.

Orval McVey, defendant.

NOTICE

To Orval McVey, non-resident defendant:

You are hereby notified that on the 3rd day of November, A. D., 1905, Ida McVey, plaintiff herein, filed a petition in the district court of Nemaha county, state of Nebraska, against you, the object and prayer of which is to obtain a divorce from you on the grounds that you wantonly and cruelly neglected, failed and refused to support the said plaintiff; and on the further grounds that you have been guilty of extreme cruelty toward this plaintiff; and to have her maiden name, Ida Martin restored to her.

You are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 18th day of December, A. D., 1905.

Dated this 4th day of November, A. D., 1905.

IDA McVEY, plaintiff.
