

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOLUME L

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 5, 1906

NUMBER 32

The Postoffice News Stand and Book Store

Hasdsome fancy stationery, a full line of plain stationery, tablets, pens, pencils, ink, erasers, etc.

Books, Magazines, Post Cards

A good assortment. We carry latest magazines, papers, etc.

Your Patronage Solicited

Local News

Magazines on sale at the postoffice.

Dr Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn.

Buy your school tablets at the postoffice.

Charley Curtis returned from Missouri Saturday.

F. J. Woodward went to Kausas City Wednesday

Burnt leather souvenir post cards for sale at the postoffice.

R. E. Bucher is a new subscriber to this family necessity

New stock of fine candies just received at the postoffice.

Best photos in southeastern Nebr. at Criley's. So. Auburn.

We are having some winter weather now, but yet it is not at all bad.

Misses Lulu Cooper and Maude Burns returned to Peru Tuesday.

Perry Rowen went to Lincoln Tuesday to attend the business college.

Nice line of school tablets and composition books at the postoffice news stand.

Dort Stokes went to Beatrice Monday and has entered the business college.

Hon. V. P. Peabody visited Lincoln and St Joe last week, returning home Saturday.

Claude Maxwell returned to Beatrice Monday. He is attending the business college there.

Ned Maxwell and Delbert Webb went to Lincoln Monday to attend the business college.

Alva Maxwell went to Lincoln Saturday to resume his studies at the business college.

Some of the sidewalks need repairs, or new walks. In places they are in very bad shape.

Joe Littrell was furnishing the multitude with "hot bean soup" at Gene Kerst's sale Wednesday.

As an after resolution, resolve to keep the good resolutions you made on New Years—and keep this one.

Best line of stationery ever brought to Nemaha at the postoffice. Call and see the handsome boxes of paper.

Hard coal and soft coal—several grades—various prices—for sale by the Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Dr. Hutchison, optician, will be at Nemaha again on Tuesday, Jan. 16. Come and see him about your glasses.

W. H. Smithers, the barber, celebrated New Years day by moving. He is now living in Mrs. Alice A. Minick's house.

Mrs. Mattie McIntyre has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gaskill, near Syracuse, for the past two weeks.

Elmer E. Allen took a holiday Wednesday and acted as clerk at Gene Kerst's sale. He says he prefers summer time for such jobs.

W. H. Barker can now furnish the people with never slip horseshoes—something that has never before been handled here. Try them.

Books selling at $1.25 and $1.50 at Auburn and elsewhere only 75 cents at the postoffice news stand.

Miss Ethel Morrison, who has been visiting her uncle, F. L. Woodward, for a week and a half, returned to Kansas City Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Smart, who have been visiting Mrs. Smart's sister, Mrs. Rose Gilbert, started for their home at Winthrop, Iowa, Wednesday

Parents should remember that they are liable to a fine if they do not send all their children between the ages of 8 and 15 to school regularly.

Earle Thompson says he received the finest New Years present yet—a handsome son, weighing 10½ pounds—looks just like his pa, so Earle says.

Rev. G. W. Ayers has been assisting Rev. Ashby in a protracted meeting at Howe. The meeting was a good one and resulted in many conversions.

Prize winning poultry, snow white also barred rock cockrells $1.00 each None better. Buy now and get the best. W. W. LIEBIART

Mrs. Elmer E. Allen went to Johnson Monday forenoon, returning in the afternoon. She took her two nephews, Elliot and Hubert Minick, out home.

Five Nemaha boys are attending the Lincoln business college and three the Beatrice college. The postal business has increased surprisingly since they left.

The Rebekahs were preparing for a "spread" Wednesday night, as the officers were then to be installed, but on account of the storm this had to be postponed.

Stoves—hard coal stoves—soft coal stoves—wood stoves—heating stoves—cook stoves—ranges—all kind of stoves—for sale by the Edward & Bradford Lumber Co.

Mrs. Wm. H. Hoover started for Denver, Colo., last Saturday, where she will visit two weeks, and then go to California to spend the remainder of the winter.

Jim Shiveley was driving his team of young mules a few days ago, when they ran away, throwing Jim out. Fortunately he was not hurt and no damage was done.

Mrs. J. F. Ebnother has been visiting relatives at Goodland, Kansas, for two or three weeks, and John is getting pretty lonesome. He expects her home today or tomorrow.

The duet by O. L. Smart and Mrs. Rose Gilbert, with Mrs. Lillian Allen and John P. Sanders assisting on the chorus, was greatly enjoyed at the Methodist church Sunday night.

Having bought a good loom, I am now prepared to do all kinds of carpet and rug weaving Hit and miss, 10 cents per yard; stripe, 15 cents. MRS. CHAS. CLARK.

The Beatrice Creamery Co. will pay 25 cents per pound of butter fat for hand separator cream, delivered in Nemaha. Separators sold on easy terms. R. E. BUCHER, Agent.

Picture Frames

The Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. have received a good line of picture moulding and are now prepared to make picture frames of any size. Take your pictures there and have them framed.

Frank Dressler has concluded not to buy Ed Littrell's barber shop. The bargain was made but we understand both parties wanted to back out so the deal was declared off.

A. L. Lawrence, who is now ex-sheriff, has moved on his farm in London precinct and feels happy at getting back in the country. Abe has made a good record as sheriff.

We have a big assortment of furniture that we are selling at reasonable prices. Special prices made for housekeeping outfits. Try us. Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

John C. Stokes has bought the old Amos Hughes farm joining Howe. There are 120 acres and he paid $100 per acre for it. John is not satisfied unless he owns a Nemaha county farm.

Misses Beasie, Flo and Vera Anderson and Annie Elliott and Fred and Tom Anderson of Auburn were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Dressler the latter part of last week and the first of this.

Subscriptions received at the postoffice for any magazine or newspaper published in the United States. You can save money by having the postmaster order your magazines and papers.

The first snow of the winter that amounted to anything and the first snow of the year fell Tuesday morning. Several bad sleds out but the snow was not deep enough to make good sleighing.

Frank Harford went to Lincoln Sunday, where he will attend the Lincoln business college. Frank tried it last winter but was compelled to quit on account of his health. We hope he will make it all right this time.

Dr. W. W. Frazier returned home from Missouri Saturday morning. The doctor was at Goodman, Mo., looking after some land he owns, and also took a trip to Ft. Smith, Ark. His wife remained at Goodman, but will return this week.

W. W. Sanders, clerk of Nemaha Camp No. 6064, Modern Woodmen of America, has received from the head clerk a "Certificate of Efficiency" for his faithful performance of all duties devolving upon him as such clerk for the past year.

Mrs. J. W. Sapp went to Brownville Wednesday to assist in the meetings being held by her husband and Rev. Ogden. Rev. and Mrs. Sapp will return Saturday evening, and services will be held as usual at the Christian church next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Allen drove out to Bracken Sunday and visited relatives for a few hours. Their nephews, Elliott and Hubert Minick, sons of C. T. Minick of Johnson, who had been visiting Oscar Minick's family came home with them

Our attention has been called to the fact that we omitted to mention Marie Woodward's solo in our comment on the exercises at the Methodist church Christmas eve. The omission was unintentional and we beg Marie's pardon. Her solo was well rendered.

While Elmer E. Allen was at Auburn Monday he sold the counter now in use at the bank, together with the iron lattice work, to the newly organized state bank. This bank will have temporary quarters in Rainey's drug store, but will build next spring. The Nemaha bank will have all new furniture when they move in the new building.

WONDERFUL NERVE

Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best Salve on earth for Piles, too. 25c at W. W. Keeling's, Druggist.

TO THE PUBLIC:

We desire to thank our patrons for the liberal trade given us the past year, and request a continuance. We hope to be able to serve you better in the future than we have in the past.

We Guarantee Fair Treatment to All

In taking invoice first of the year we find that we are long on many things that we wish to get out of the way to make room for spring goods, so we will sell

All Winter Goods at Reduced Prices Overshoes Included

You can find some bargains.

J. H. VANDERSLICE

Rev. G. W. Ayers expects to begin a protracted meeting at the Methodist chuech in Nemaha Thursday evening of this week. He will be assisted in the work by Rev. Ashby of Howe, Rev. Maxcy of Johnson, and possibly by Rev. Myers of South Auburn,

Joe Bunger returned from Chase county, Nebr., Thursday of last week. He was not particularly pleased with the looks of the country and we understand the trade of his Nemaha property for a quarter section of Chase county land, belonging to August Quiller, has fallen through with.

James A. Stephenson returned home last Saturday after a two week's visit in Oklahoma. Jimmy says if he was a renter he believes he would move to Oklahoma, but from the tenor of his remarks we do not believe he is thinking of selling his good Nemaha county farm and moving there.

A young man was recently looking at the books on sale at the postoffice. Afterward he was in Auburn and saw some of the same books that are sold here at 75 cents. On inquiring the price he was told $1.50. All the 75 cent books at the postoffice are sold at $1.25 to $1.50 in most other places,

The seed corn special spent 40 minutes in Nemaha last Friday. One coach was crowded with people who had come in to listen to the lectures. The talk on the selection of seed corn was good and if heeded by our farmers would undoubtedly result in an increased yield of better corn. We believe these lectures will result in good.

Saved From Terrible Death

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed Bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial Bottles Free at Keeling's Drug Store

The boys have been practicing football, especially during vacation, consequently it is not unusual to see one with a black eye or a lame leg or a bruised cheek. So don't think every fellow you see with such signs has been in a fight.

Rev. J. W. Sapp commenced a protracted meeting at the Christian church at Brownville Sunday. Rev. Mr. Ogden of Lincoln will assist him. Bro. Sapp expects to begin a meeting at Nemaha as soon as the meeting is closed at Brownville, and hopes to have the help of Bro. Ogden here. Both gentlemen are good revivalists. Bro. Ogden preached here a few times last fall and our people were very much pleased with him, and hope to hear him in a protracted meeting.

Old paper for sale cheap at The Advertiser office.

IF YOU WANT

Good Bread
TRY A SACK OF
Golden Rod Flour

High patent. Every sack guaranteed to give full satisfaction in every respect or money refunded. Always the same. No better flour made.

If you want a cheaper flour you cannot do better than to buy the a straight grade flour. It has no superior in a grade flour. Many prefer it to a high patent.

Red Seal

For a still cheaper flour try the

Gold Leaf

It is a good flour of that grade. These grades are manufactured by Jamason & Son, Stella, Nebr., and are on sale at the store of

J. H. Vanderslice
NEMAHA, NEBR.

If you buy a sack of either of these grades and it is not just as represented, take it back and your money will be returned.