

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Mr and Mrs. T. B. Skeen returned Saturday from Hot Springs, Arkansas, where they had been the major portion of the winter for the benefit of their health. Both show the good effects of their outing and came back greatly improved.—Herald.

By the death of Dr. George F. Peery at Albany, Missouri, last week Rev. T. F. Ashby, of Howe, will fall heir to $2,000. Dr. Peery was worth $125,000 that according to his will is to be divided among fifty nephews and Rev. Ashby is one of the nephews.—Shubert Citizen.

Philip Shuck is now cutting wood for A. L. Lawrence, Rumor says Phil is talking considerably about the disadvantages of being a bachelor, and it wouldn't surprise any one very much to hear of his making some woman a proposition to join hands and hearts and go into partnership in housekeeping.

A prohibition conference and convention will be held in convention hall, Auburn, next Wednesday, beginning at 10:30 a. m. and lasting all day and at night. Republicans, democrats, populists, prohibitionists—every one who is opposed to the protection of the saloon by the law of the state and nation is urged to be present.

Lucien Coeur of Howe was exhibiting a curiosity on the streets Wednesday. It was a wooly horse and he had it photographed. The animal's hair was as kinky as a colored brother's wool. Barnum laid the foundation of his fame and fortune as a showman, exhibiting a wooly horse. Lucien might take advantage of the hint.—Herald.

Take It In The Evening
According to a bill introduced in the United States Senate, the office of consul general at Antwerp, now held by Hon. Chureh Howe, will be reduced to a consulate, with a consequent reduction in importance and salary. This is done on account of a decision to have consul generalship offices only at capitals. As Antwerp is one of the greatest shipping ports in the world, and other nations have consul general offices there, it is hoped a change will be made. If not, it is probable Mr. Howe will be changed to some other place, as he has given good service.

Preaching by Bro Miller of Exeter, Nebr. immediately after this meeting.

W. H. Cooper, the ice man, is of the opinion that there will be no ice cut in this vicinity this winter.

Anticipating this state of affairs he went to Omaha Saturday to arrange to get a supply from Cut-off Lake. He interviewed the manager of the ice department of the Swift packing company and received some encouragement as to the possibility of getting ice.

The quality of the ice now being cut at the lake is superb and if Mr Cooper can make a contract for a supply he will require several hundred cars to fill the local house and supply the needs of the people of Auburn during the coming summer.

Although there will be no ice harvested here this winter, Mr. Cooper does not look for an ice famine. He says however, that the cost of getting ice here from distant points will cause the retail price of ice to advance this summer.

Manager Humphrey, of the Kirschbraun poultry house here, was over in Missouri, the latter part of last week and contracted for a sufficient amount of the congealed liquid to answer the requirements of his firm for the coming summer.—Auburn Herald.

Some time ago an elderly lady came to our city selling fancy work, as she said to raise money thereby with which to pay her entrance fee into the Geo. H. Nettleton Home for aged women at Kansas City. To help her along, quite a number of our ladies purchased of her. These ladies who believed then in her honesty, notwithstanding ugly rumors to the contrary, will be glad to read the following letter, dated at the Home:

February 11, 1906.

Mrs. J. N. Colglazier:—Dear, kind friend. You will remember the lady you bought the fancy work from, Mrs. Laban, and not forgetting my promise I must write you. I am now in the Home, in Kansas City, and am very happy. I entered the first of January and was taken very sick with nervous prostration brought on from overwork but I have recovered. I often think of you and husband, and of your kindness to me, and am hoping sometime to meet you again. In fact the remembrances of Shubert always bring a feeling of gratitude, as every one responded so nobly. I barely raised the money, had not $2.00 left after paying my entrance fee, but I feel that the dear Lord has been good to me to make me enter such a home. I should be ever so pleased to get a word from you, dear sister, and will you remember me to all, and believe me, your loving sister in Christ,
—Shubert Citizen.

COAL DISCOVERED WITHIN FEW MILES OF PERU

The report was current on our streets all last week that coal had been discovered near Peru, but not until too late for publication were developments carried far enough to warrant the announcement that coal of a value to warrant the mining had been discovered. On Saturday A M Borst and F. M. Bates brought samples to this office showing what the vein consisted of at the opening. At first the vein was but about eight inches thick and the coal of a brown color, decidedly water or air stacked, of a quality that would burn readily, though giving little heat. After going into the bank the distance of four feet, the vein was found to be almost three feet in thickness, of an almost black color, much harder than at first and with a decided lustre. It burned better and gave more heat. Mr. Bates, who has spent ten years in the mines of Iowa, said that he never saw a more promising outlook than he found here at that depth. The vein dipped down, grew thicker, and was covered by the layer of shale which marks all good coal beds.

By Wednesday evening the workmen had reached a point 19 feet from the opening, and a still better product was being found, although it seemed still to be likely to air slack.

The vein is located on the farm of A. M. Borst, just where Honey Creek issues from the bluffs, and about thirty rods from the railroad. If this vein proves to be all that is anticipated, Peru may yet be able to get cheap coal.—Peru Pointer

Although it is no longer possible for a man to conduct an agricultural paper without some knowledge of farming, many farm journals are edited by farmers who reside in cities or who learned the practical side of the business in boyhood. By mingling with farmers at institutes, conventions, etc., such editors keep up the appearance of familiarity with farm topics; yet their writings do not "smell of the soil," and cannot be as valuable as if from the pen of an actual farmer. Recognizing this fact, The Iowa Homestead, of Des Moines, Ia., has long made it a rule to have its editors reside upon and operate their own farms, enabling them to combine practice with precept. Its departments, too, are conducted by active farmers and its special articles are by successful farmers. The Iowa Homestead holds a high place in the esteem of the farmers of Nemaha county, and we are glad to announce that by special arrangement The Advertiser is able to offer this fine farm paper, in combination with our own, at a very attractive price. Let us order it for you.

From Louisville comes a report that the company that was organized there last fall to prospect for coal, gas and iron has dissolved partnership. A large quantity of slate and green dirt was found and the indications for coal were good, but the workers discovered a large quantity of iron ore and were so elated that the coal proposition was abandoned. Samples of the iron ore were sent to an assayer at Lincoln and pronounced 64 per cent iron; then a large quantity was sent to the Pueblo, Colo., smelter, but the answer from this was that the quality was not as desired and the mining company has now gone out of business.—Plattsmouth News.

Doctors Are Puzzled

The remarkable recovery of Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., is the subject of much interest to the medical fraternity and a wide circle of friends. He says of his case: "Owing to severe inflammation of the Throat and congestion of the Lungs three doctors gave me up to die, when, as a last resort, I was induced to try Dr King's New Discovery and I am happy to say it saved my life." Cures the worst Coughs and Colds, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Weak Lungs, Hoarseness and LaGrippe Guaranteed at Keeling's drug store 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
