

FACTS IN NATURE.

Not Only Do We Get Inspiration From Nature, Eat Health as Well.

For people who are run-down and nervous, who suffer from indigestion or dyspepsia, headache, biliousness, or torpid liver, coated tongue with bitter taste in the morning and poor appetite, it becomes necessary to turn to some tonic or strengthener which will assist Nature and help them to get on their feet and put the body into its proper condition. It is becoming more and more apparent that Nature's most valuable health-giving agents are to be found in forest plants and roots.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. R. V. Pierce, now consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., discovered that by scientifically extracting and combining certain medicinal principles from native roots, taken from our American forests, he could produce a medicine which was marvelously efficient in curing cases of blood disorder and liver and stomach trouble as well as many other chronic, or lingering ailments. This concentrated extract of Nature's vitality he named "Golden Medical Discovery."

It purifies the blood by putting the stomach and liver into healthy condition, thereby helping the digestion and assimilation of food which feeds the blood. Thereby it cures weak stomach, indigestion, torpid liver, or biliousness, and kindred derangements. If you have coated tongue, with bitter or bad taste in the morning, frequent headaches, feel weak, easily tired, stitches or pain in side, back gives out easily and aches, belching of gas, constipation, or irregular bowels, feel flashes of heat alternating with chilly sensations or kindred symptoms, they point to derangement of your stomach, liver and kidneys, which the "Golden Medical Discovery" will correct more speedily and permanently than any other known agent. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed in plain English on wrapper.

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make a little more profit. Begains; you lose. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One laxative; two or three are cathartic.

SKIN ERUPTIONS 35 YEARS.

Suffered Severely with Eczema All Over Body—A Thousand Thanks to Cuticura Remedies.

"For over thirty-five years I was a severe sufferer from eczema. The eruption was not confined to any one place. It was all over my body, limbs, and even on my head. I am sixty years old and an old soldier, and have been examined by the Government Board over fifteen times, and they said there was no cure for me. I have taken all kinds of medicine and have spent large sums of money for doctors, without avail. A short time ago I decided to try the Cuticura Remedies, and after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap, two boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, two treatments in all, I am now well and completely cured. A thousand thanks to Cuticura. I cannot speak too highly of the Cuticura Remedies. John T. Moch, Richmondale, Ross Co., Ohio, July 17, 1905."

FOR NERVOUS PEOPLE

A Michigan Mother Preserved to Her Family by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

When the blood is impoverished the nerves starve and neuralgia or something more serious swiftly follows. Nervous people are generally pale people. By supplying through the blood those vital elements that the nerves need, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have performed those remarkable cures that make it impossible for any nervous sufferer to neglect them.

A recent case is that of Mrs. Peter Morrisette, of No. 315 Eleventh street, Alpena, Mich., who writes as follows: "My trouble started with childbirth. After one of my children was born I had a kind of paralysis. I was very weak and my mouth was a little crooked. I was always tired and was so nervous that I could not bear to hear a dog bark or a bell ring—even the little bird in its cage would annoy me. My heart fluttered a great deal and I had dizzy spells. I was not able to be left alone.

"My doctor gave me different kinds of medicine, changing it several times. When it was evident that he could not help me he said he did not understand my case. This was three years ago and I was very much discouraged, when my brother, who had taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, recommended them to me. I tried them and noticed a change for the better when I was taking the second box. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured me and I have been well ever since. I now do all my own housework, sewing and washing for seven of us."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have also cured diseases caused by impure or impoverished blood such as rheumatism, anemia and after-effects of the grip.

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or the remedy will be mailed, post paid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

DOWIE TO FIGHT

DOVE OF PEACE DOES NOT HOVER OVER ZION CITY

SOON TO MAKE ATTACK.

Will Listen to Compromise Only on One Condition, But Will Not Turn Tail and Flee to Mexico.

CHICAGO.—Dr. John Alexander Dowie will not turn tail and flee to Mexico. He will wage a vigorous warfare to regain control of Zion City, and as soon as he considers that he has taken the proper preliminary steps he will descend upon that place and proclaim himself the only "first apostle." This statement is authorized by "Dr." Dowie himself and by the firm of lawyers who represent him. In this connection Attorney Haley of the firm of Eddy, Haley Wetten, who represent Dr. Dowie and his counsellors, made the following statement:

"We have advanced and will advance only one condition—complete restoration of power, temporal as well as ecclesiastical, and a demand for an absolute retraction of the slanderous statements made by General Overseer Voliva and his followers against the moral character of Dowie.

We are preparing a bill in chancery petitioning the courts to set aside the transfer of the property of Zion City made between General Overseer Voliva and Deacon Alexander Grainger because the instrument was absolutely void. Dowie revoked the power of attorney which he delegated to Voliva two days before the illegal transfer was made.

Dowie will not immediately proceed to Zion City but will remain in his apartments at the Auditorium annex, in this city until every preliminary legal step has been taken. He will then proceed to Zion City and enter it with all the power and authority which he had when he left the place."

Despite the positive assertions on the part of Mr. Haley, attorneys for both factions were in numerous conferences throughout the day. Judge V. Y. Barnes, head of the legal department of the city of Zion, came to Chicago and was closeted with Attorney Emil C. Wetten, representing Dowie for a considerable length of time. What transpired between the two lawyers was not made public but while Mr. Wetten was as emphatic as his associate in denying that any compromise measures were under way, he qualified his statement by saying that both sides were extremely desirous of preventing the issue from coming into court, as such a proceeding might be ruinous to the resources of Zion City.

"We do not wish to plunge Zion City and Zion church into an expensive law suit," he said. "If its present condition Zion cannot afford a long and expensive litigation. We are trying to guard the interests of the creditors so that every one of them will receive 100 cents on the dollar. I may hear from Mr. Voliva soon, but until I do I cannot tell just what turn matters will take. In the meantime Mr. Dowie will remain where he is. He will not go to Mexico, and he will not for a time, at least, visit Zion City. No middle ground has yet been reached, but I have strong hopes that it will be found in a short time, as both sides are anxious to avoid law proceedings."

Dowie was deserted by his personal attendant, David Murdock, who has been with him for years. The reason is that Murdock's father has gone over to Voliva.

One of the charges that has been brought against Dowie—that to the effect that he had agreed secretly, with a commission of Mormon missionaries, to turn over to the Mormon church, Zion and all of its past holdings, was emphatically denied by Dowie. The only possible basis for this story, it was explained, was that some months ago a coterie of Mormon missionaries appeared in Zion City and distributed pamphlets expounding the doctrines of Mormonism. According to the statements of Dr. Dowie and his counsellors these men were immediately thrown out of the city.

SOME LIGHT AHEAD

CONDITIONS IN VESUVIAN DISTRICT IMPROVED

After Effects Bad Enough

ASHES CONTINUE TO FALL AND HOUSES COLLAPSE

Panic Passing Away at Naples and Shops Reopening—Presence of the King has a Good Effect

NAPLES.—From all quarters come reports that the situation has ameliorated, but ashes from Mount Vesuvius are falling everywhere, houses are collapsing and burying their occupants, and roads near the volcano are no sooner opened than they are closed again by falling cinders.

The inhabitants of this city are enduring the yellow-gray atmosphere which is even more oppressive than before. The popular costume of those who can afford it consists of automobile coat, cap and goggles, which enables the wearer to maintain a semblance of cleanliness, but the people generally have to be contented with paper masks and raised umbrellas. The drivers of trolley cars are wearing masks of some transparent material under the veils of their caps.

More shops were opened and the city is slowly resuming its normal life. The people having recovered from the panic are less sullen and down-cast.

The presence of King Victor Emmanuel in Naples, which always produces a good effect, has acted as a tonic upon the Neapolitans, who have a superstitious veneration of the king. Early in the day crowds gathered before the palace, where men were heard to exclaim:

"He comes, but the pope stays at home. Long live the king."

The feeling, however, does not interfere with the Neapolitans' veneration for their saint. A woman in the crowd before the palace was heard to confide in a friend as follows:

"My daughter, who lives at Torre Del Greco, is a refugee. She has been received into the royal palace, lives like a princess, and has been spoken to by the queen. May the saints protect her majesty."

The king left Naples for San Giuseppe, Ottajano and Terzigno, in order to ascertain personally the actual situation at these towns. He hoped to be able to continue his journey to Sarno and Castellammare. The king inspected all the "camp hospitals", in which the troops are caring for suffering refugees, speaking to the injured, comforting them in their misfortunes and asking them what he could do to relieve their distress. On receiving a reply indicating a sufferer's desire that something be immediately done in his or her behalf the king gave orders to have all the desire fulfilled.

This gave rise to many heartrending scenes. As the king bent over a poor man with toil hardened hands, whose right leg had been amputated, the sufferer replying to his majesty's question regarding his immediate necessities said with tears in his eyes:

"Send me my son, who is serving as a soldier."

The king, who was visibly affected, clasped the man's hand, and exclaimed:

"My poor fellow! I can do much, but to grant your request would mean breaking the laws, which I must be the first to respect. I would give anything I have were it possible by so doing to send your son to you but I cannot do so."

There were tears in the king's eyes as he turned away from the sorrowing father's bedside.

The queen while the king was away, visited the charitable institutions here and inspected the places where the refugees are housed.

In spite of the fact that many government officials have arrived here to reinforce the local officers the congestion of the telegraph bureaus is undesirable. A telegram sent from Paris at 6 p. m. was not delivered until 9 o'clock the next morning.

The most consoling news now is that the lava is cooling on all sides.

Some extraordinary escapes from death have been recorded.

CLARK WILL BE HANGED

JURY RETURNS VERDICT AFTER BEING OUT A LITTLE OVER TWO HOURS

Tells Jail Officials While On His Way Back to His Cell that He Had Anticipated Such a Verdict

OMAHA, Neb.—Harrison Clark, one of the three negroes charged with the murder of Street Car Conductor Edward Flury while trying to hold him up on the morning of March 8, was found guilty by the jury in district court and condemned to hang for the crime.

Clark received the verdict without any show of emotion of any kind and made no comment as he was led back to the jail by Deputy Sheriffs Haze and Stryker. He had anticipated the death penalty and so expressed himself to some of the jail officials.

The jury was out a little over two hours, but this time was not taken up in balloting. There was no difference of opinion, the unanimous verdict from the first being for the death penalty. The verdict was received by Judge Sutton in court room No. 1 with only two or three spectators outside those directly interested. Judge Sutton thanked the jurors for the promptness with which they discharged their duty and expressed the appreciation of their services. The verdict was signed by W. C. Chissell, foreman.

The case was given to the jury at 5:25 and the jurors retired to the jury room in the basement in charge of Bailiff Kirkendall. At 6 o'clock no verdict had been reached and the jurors were taken to the Drexel hotel for supper.

The arguments of the attorneys were begun at 2:30 o'clock immediately after Mrs. Wain left the stand. Deputy County Attorney Murdock opened for the state and demanded the death penalty, not out of revenge for Flury's murder, but in order to protect society. He was followed by E. R. Leigh for the defendant. Mr. Leigh said it was useless to deny that Clark was present when the shooting was done, but he maintained Clark's part in the affair was not as prominent as the state contended it was. He pointed out that Wain and not Clark started the shooting, and the testimony of Newville showed Gathright also used his gun. He declared the examination of the jurors showed a strong feeling in the community against capital punishment and asked the jury not to inflict the extreme penalty. He was followed by his associate, Hugh Myers, who also pleaded against the death penalty.

County Attorney Slabaugh closed for the state. He lauded Edward Flury as a brave man, who gave up his life to protect his employers' property. He pointed out that Clark had made arrangements for the crime the day before. He had asked Mr. Wain to make the hoods the men wore and had made arrangements with Mr. Jones to keep the plunder for him and carried out the arrangements by giving her the money he had secured at the saloons. He declared Clark was the ringleader and the man whom had made the plans for the crime. He concluded at 5:10 o'clock and Judge Sutton read his instructions, after which the jury retired.

Clark showed increasing signs of nervousness during the final arguments and the reading of the instructions. He fidgetted uneasily in his chair and plainly showed the high strain he was under. While the instructions were being read he took off his linen collar and readjusted his necktie and then put his collar on again. As he was led out he joked in a nervous way with Deputy Sheriffs Haze and Stryker, who had him in charge.

The murder of Flury occurred about 12:25 o'clock on the morning of March 8 at the end of the Albright street car line.

Flury had just gotten off the car and had thrown the switch for the return trip. He was standing in the track when he was ordered by Cal Wain, one of Clark's accomplices, to throw up his hands. Instead of doing so he pulled his gun and fired at Wain. Wain returned the fire and Clark, who was hiding behind an electric pole ten feet away, ran back and hid behind a billboard about fifteen feet from the track, and from their vantage points Clark and Wain kept up a continuous fire until their guns were emptied.

Five persons came near death at Lynch by poisoning. Mr. Van Harken took corrosive sublimate instead of a medicine tablet, and four boys playing on the creek bank ate wild raspberries. They were Jay Pearsall, Harry Thompson, John Sedlacek and Louis Sedlacek. Two fell over in convulsions and the other two drank several quarts of milk. All will live.

H. F. Beckmann, proprietor of the Commercial hotel at Arapahoe, and Harry Johnson, a boarder, have been arrested on a charge of stealing goods belonging to Fred Stewart and M. A young man named Cotzell, whose home is several miles from Columbus in Polk county, was taken to St. Mary's hospital at Columbus. The young man Cotzell was the more seriously injured and was brought to the hospital. He was badly burned and will be disfigured for life, even if he gets well at all.
