Emery Bolejack of Verdon visited his cousin, W. H. Barker, a few hours Tuesday evening. Mr. Bolejack is now assistant cashier of a bank in Verdon. This is his first visit to Nemaha for fourteen years, and he finds a great improvement in the town. At that time he learned telegraphy here.

Earle Gilbert has bought over 20,000 bushels of corn to be delivered this week. He gets the largest amount from one man of Ed Moore, buying 6,500 bushels of him, which is now being delivered. He gets 2,000 bushels from B. H. Moore, 2,000 from F. L. Collin, 2,000 from Will Hacker, and various amounts from other parties.

Peter Kerker, O. E. Houtz and Frank Titus drove down in "the hills" Sunday. They brought back some peach twigs that effectively disprove the assertions of the prophets that the peach buds are all killed. The trees are full of buds just beginning to open up and show the red bloom. The trees will be loaded if nothing happens from this on.

A lady drove over from near Stella a few days ago and bought a hat of one of our milliners. She says prices are so much lower here that she can afford to come that distance. Ladies frequently come from Brownville and other places, and one young lady living in Omaha sent here for her wedding hat. Another lady sent from Idaho for her hat.

Last Sunday evening Rev. G. W. Ayers took a collection for missions and raised a little over $27. This we thought was doing pretty well under the circumstances. But Tuesday we read in the Lincoln Journal that at University Place last Sunday they raised for missions $3,036, beating their record of the year before by $800. We concluded that we were not in it at all.

Earle Gilbert has had all he could manage this week. He has been almost past going, threatened with typhoid fever, and part of the time he was compelled to give up and go home. He has been receiving corn, and as Bob Bucher was hardly able to get around, this made matters that much worse for Earle. But he is now feeling better and is hopeful that he will be all right in a few days.

The lovers of fishing have organized the "bullhead" club that will probably achieve great fame in local history. There are at present 28 members unless some have joined since we got our last report. They have had a flat boat built and are preparing to fish on a large scale. Marshall Webb has been elected president or captain of the club, Elmer E. Allen secretary and Rufus Rowen treasurer.

O. E. Houtz is making the restaurant look like a new place. Peter Kerker has had it repapered and Mr. Houtz has put in new lights and has a new soda fountain—a fine one—ready to put in, besides making other improvements. He is a success as a restaurant man and conducts one of the best restaurants any where around. He is getting a good patronage, too, as the people like to go that kind of a place.

The board of the Christian church here met on Tuesday evening and decided to call Elder J. W. Sapp of Nemaha to the pastorate of the church for at least one half the time. Under the present arrangements Elder Sapp will move into our city and for the first time in years Shubert will have a resident minister. Of course all this depends on the church's ability to raise the money sufficient to pay the salary asked, but when we consider that we are getting a fine preacher and a good Christian gentleman for our pastor, we have no doubt but that the salary will be easily raised.—Shubert Citizen.

San Francisco had a terrible earthquake shock Wednesday morning. Many of the largest and costliest buildings collapsed, and fire broke out. As the water mains were bursted the fire department was almost helpless. The city hall, costing $7,000,000, is in ruins. Buildings were dynamited to check the flames. It is estimated that 2,000 lives have been lost and the pecuniary loss is estimated at $100,000,000.

Rev. J. W. Sapp informs us that he has not yet definitely decided whether he will move to Shubert or not. They need a resident pastor and are anxious to have Mr. Sapp live there, and this will probably be the result of the efforts now being made by the members of the Christian church of that place. The people of Nemaha will regret very much to have Mr. and Mrs. Sapp leave here. But there is no doubt about Shubert needing a minister.

Mrs. Theo. Hill has been experimenting on making cement blocks for sidewalks and has some that look just as well and are probably just as durable as those manufactured at factories, and at prices not near so high. The blocks are easily manufactured and she intends making enough to put walks around her property in Nemaha. Several others are talking of doing the same. Before we know it Nemaha will have an artificial stone manufacturing establishment on a small scale.

Miss Maud Lewis, daughter of David Lewis of Aspinwall precinct died Sunday morning of typhoid fever after an illness of about eight weeks. The deceased was a bright, intelligent young lady, 21 years of age only two weeks before her death. She was very ambitious and after going to college insisted on teaching school, though not very strong. She was taken sick while teaching and kept at her work as long as possible. The funeral services were held at Prairie Union church Tuesday. Miss Lewis, we understand, was to have been married this spring to G. Edwin Davis, who was with her at her death. Her parents and intended husband have the sympathy of all in their great bereavement.

A letter received Wednesday by F. L. Woodward from Israel Landis of Silver Lake, Ind., says Mrs. S. C. Cummings is sinking very fast and her death may be expected at any time. She is suffering from a cancer. Mr. Landis is her son-in-law. Her many friends here regret her serious condition.

Later—Mr. Woodward received a dispatch Wednesday afternoon that Mrs. Cummings was dead and that friends would start at 12 o'clock Thursday for Nemaha with the body.

The deceased was an old resident of Nemaha, coming here over twenty years ago and engaging in the hotel business with her husband, continuing it after his death. She gave it up two or three years ago on account of failing health. For a year or two she has been living in Indiana, gradually growing worse from a cancer. Her death was not unexpected. She was highly esteemed and her death will be greatly regretted.

Mrs. Cummings was a sister of Wm. H. Rider.

We have not learned what arrangements, if any, have been made for the funeral.

Drainage district No. 1 of the Peru bottoms was organized yesterday at Peru. The drainage district is composed of the bottom and along the river north of Peru. At yesterday's meeting Dr. J. F. Neal, T. J. Majors, William Tynon, Ed Clayton and Thomas Waggoner were elected to the board of supervisors. When completed the drainage ditches will carry off the storm water from several small streams and will drain about 6,000 acres of land.—Neb City Tribune

Wilbur Whitten took eight wolf scalps out to the county seat Saturday. Friday morning he got up about daylight and as he was building a fire he heard a chicken squalling but paid no attention to it. In a few minutes happening to glance out of the window, he saw a wolf trotting across the yard with a hen in its mouth. It ran across the wheat field north. After breakfast Wilbur and a man who is working for him took their guns and tracked the wolf to the timber and found the hole. They got spades and while the other man kept watch Wilbur dug in the hole. They heard the young wolves crying in the hole. In a few minutes a groundhog poked its head out and was shot. The men then went back home, thinking certainly there was no wolf in with the groundhog, but about four o'clock concluded to go out and do a little more digging. They dug out the hole already commenced and Wilbur poked a stick in the side of the hole and it was caught by some animal in another hole by the side of the one they had got into. A little more digging was done and again the stick was poked through. This time an old wolf stuck out her head, and was shot. The men then pulled out seven little fellows. Wilbur took them to the county seat Saturday and got the bounty. He says they are undoubtedly gray wolves, but the state officers say there are no gray wolves in the eastern part of the state so he only gets a bounty of $1.25 each instead of $3. But it was a pretty good day's work even at that.

W. F. KEELING

As per our announcement last week, we will talk with you this week, on the subject of Pianos, and to begin with we wish to impress upon you the great responsibility that rests upon the dealer in this invaluable article. The first and greatest obstacle arising, is to make sure your goods are honestly built, then that they possess purity of tone, and last but not least, that the price is in reach of everyone desiring to purchase. We have spent valuable time and money studying this and have decided the "Baldwin" line consisting of the "Baldwin," "Hamilton," "Ellington," "Howard," "Valley Gem" and "Herbert" pianos meet every requirement, from a low priced piano to the other extreme, the "Fine Art Instruments," and next week we will give you our reasons for arriving at this conclusion.

Very respectfully,
Anburn Music & Jewelry Co.
