Mrs. John B. Stiers returned home Monday after a few days' visit at Humboldt.

Mrs. Wm. Filmer, postmistress at St. Deroin, was a Nemaha visitor last Saturday.

Drop into Hill Bros' store and look over their new line of Patton's Sun Proof paint.

Ed Stiers is having good success fishing, as he has caught over 60 pounds in the last week.

Before you paper your house come in and look over our line of samples. HILL BROS.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Maddox of Auburn were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crother Tuesday.

W. G. Maxwell returned home Tuesday afternoon after a week's visit to the western part of the state.

Miss Hazel Parker and Miss Annie Adamson of Auburn visited Nemaha friends Saturday and Sunday.

Woodward & Allen have bought the ice put up by Earle Gilbert, but say they will not raise the price to customers.

Woodward & Allen, the ice men, commenced delivering ice Wednesday morning. W. W. Liebhart is running the ice wagon this year.

Rev. E. B. Maxcy of Johnson delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the high school graduates Sunday evening. The sermon was excellent and filled with good advice to the young people who graduate from the Nemaha high school. The church was crowded.

Machine Oils at Hill Bros.

An examination will be held at Auburn Saturday of next week for a carrier for rural route No. 2. There are several applications for the examination.

Mrs. Geo. Shineflew and children came up from Salem last Friday and Mr. Shineflew is feeling better satisfied. They are now housekeeping again in the section house.

Marshall Webb, Rufus Rowen, Elmer E. Allen, J. A. Stephenson, Joe Littrell and Geo. Yackley started for the Nishna Thursday morning to see how many fish they could catch.

Misses Lulu Cooper and Maud Burns returned home Thursday, from Peru, where they have been attending the Normal school, which closed this week for the summer vacation.

Geo. Crow, who has been stopping with his daughter, Mrs. Jno. W. Ritchey, for a few weeks, went to St. Joe Monday to visit his daughter, Mrs. A. A. McIninch. His grandson, Ralph Ritchey, went with him.

Rev. G. W. Ayers was unable to fill his appointment at Champion school house last Sunday afternoon on account of having to conduct the funeral services of Fred Kauffman. He will hold services at Champion next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Everybody is invited.

Mrs. Earle Gilbert gave a reception at her home Thursday night of last week to the members of Class No. 8 of the M. E. Sunday school, of which she is teacher, and a few invited guests. Mrs. Gilbert is an ideal hostess and the young people enjoyed the evening thoroughly.

James Tucker, one of the early school teachers of this county, was visiting his sister, Mrs. R. A. Collins, and old friends in this vicinity this week. Mr. Tucker taught school in Nemaha in 1873 and in other portions of the county before and after that time. He is now teaching in Kearney. This is his first visit here for 22 years.

A number of Nemaha's young men went to Peru Wednesday to see the athletic exercises, that being field day at the normal school.

We are needing a rain badly. Strawberries are especially suffering, and if we do not have rain soon the later crop will be a failure.

Next Wednesday—Memorial day—is a legal holiday. The banks and postoffices will be closed and the rural carriers will not make their rounds.

Harry and Florence Kimmel give an entertainment at Barada Saturday night, at Shubert Thursday night and at Nims City Saturday night of next week.

Supper and Bazaar

The Methodist ladies aid society will hold a supper and bazaar at the Minick hall tonight (Friday). Ice cream, cake and strawberries will be served. The bazaar will have for sale a great many useful and fancy articles. Everybody is invited.

The patrons of the Champion school gathered in force at the school house last Friday, that being the last day of school, and had a basket dinner. Over sixty persons were present. Miss Lulu Hickey has given excellent satisfaction this year. She is one of Nemaha county's best teachers.

A. R. Titus came down from Otoe county Saturday evening and visited some of his numerous friends and relatives until Monday, when he went to Shubert, going home that night. Albert has good health and is farming on quite an extensive scale, while his wife is raising chickens by the wholesale.

Carl E. Sanders will begin carrying the mail on rural route, No. 1 Friday of next week—June 1. He relieves T. J. Rumbaugh, who has been carrying the mail for three years and nine months. He resigns, not because he has made a fortune from the work but because he is tired of it and thinks he is entitled to a rest.

Bena lodge of Rebekahs at their regular meeting Wednesday night elected the following officers:

Noble Grand—Mollie Rowen.
Vice Grand—May Kerker.
Sec'y—Belle Dressler.
Treas.—Adelia Russell.

Auditing Committee—May Gilbert, Dora Clark and John I. Dressler.

The patrons of Maple Grove school gave the teacher, G. E. Sanders, a pleasant surprise last Friday by gathering at the school house at noon with loaded baskets and giving a picnic dinner. About sixty were present. In the afternoon the boys and men enjoyed themselves playing ball and with other amusements. This was the last day of a successful nine months' term of school, the second that Mr. Sanders has taught there. The district were so well pleased with his teaching that they wanted him to take the school for another year, but he has decided to attend the Normal school and fit himself for a higher position.
