

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK & POULTRY MEDICINE

This great stock medicine is a money saver for stock raisers. It is a medicine, not a cheap food or condition powder. Though put up in coarser form than Theford's Black-Draught, renowned for the cure of the digestion troubles of persons, it has the same qualities of invigorating digestion, stirring up the torpid liver and loosening the constipated bowels for all stock and poultry. It is carefully prepared and its action is so healthful that stock grow and thrive with an occasional dose in their food. It cures hog cholera and makes hogs grow fat. It cures chicken cholera and roup and makes hens lay. It cures constipation, distemper and colds in horses, murrain in cattle, and makes a draught animal do more work for the food consumed. It gives animals and fowls of all kinds new life. Every farmer and raiser should certainly give it a trial.

It costs 25c. a can and saves ten times its price in profit.

PITTSBURG, Kas., March 25, 1904.
I have been using your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine on my stock for some time. I have used all kinds of stock food but I have found that yours is the best for my purpose.
J. S. HASSON.

The recent Criminal Code of Nebraska provides that any person or persons who shall, on the 30th day of May, commonly known as Decoration day, engage in horse racing, ball playing, or in any game of sport which may tend to disturb the public peace on the 30th day of May, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100, or by imprisonment for not more than 30 days, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Bro. Stuck again says that Good's record as state senator plainly shows him to be a railroad man. He says also: "We have nothing against Good personally and could and would support him for any county office or any other less important office where it made no difference what a man's convictions were in regard to the corporations." Now, Bro. Stuck, we have repeatedly asked you to publish his record, so we and the rest of the people would know what had things Good did. Don't dodge any more, but publish his vote on every corporation measure. We want to know what kind of a man he is, as shown by his actions as state senator. Bro. Stuck supported him two years ago. Has he changed since then, or did you support him knowing he would vote or had voted with the corporations, or were you in ignorance of his record? How about that special vote to publish? Have your backers gone back on it? Or are you afraid to publish it because it would show different from what you have been charging if the record was published?

AUBURN, Neb., May 19.—The jury that has been considering the case of the state against Charles M. Chamberlain, of the old Chamberlain banking house of Tecumseh, returned a verdict here tonight finding Chamberlain guilty as charged in the information. The case was tried here on a change of venue from Johnson county, where after a long legal proceeding Chamberlain was acquitted on one charge. The case ended here today covers other defalcations than those included in the first case.

The jury was secured here May 8 and the trial has been proceeding since. The indictment was filed in the district court of Johnson county May 3, 1903, and charges that on August 25, 1902, the defendant being the cashier of the Chamberlain banking house, embezzled of the money and funds of the Chamberlain banking house the sum of $10,000 in cash with intent to defraud. The indictment covered all the dealings with the banking house by the defendant.

An effort was made to prove that the failure of the bank was an honest one.

The prosecution was conducted by County Attorney J. C. Moore of Tecumseh, George A. Adams of Lincoln and Edgar Ferneau of Auburn. H. F. Rose of Lincoln was chief counsel for the defense. The case will be taken to the higher court.

Mrs. Will Parker, the other day, ran across an old pocketbook which she recognized as belonging to her father. When she returned it to him, Mr. Hacker opened it in some curiosity to discover its contents. Among the curious finds was a railroad pass, dated in 1872, good for passage on the Brownville and Fort Kearney railway. This pass was numbered as the fourth issued, and was signed by Henry Atkinson. This Henry Atkinson was a son-in-law of Senator Tipton. He was quite prominent in the political management of this state in the early years and eventually became surveyor general of New Mexico. Mr. Hacker at the time was publisher of a newspaper at Brownville, and the pass was given to him on that account. The railway was built about ten miles out of Brownville and was one of those wildcat attempts to share in the railway subsidies at that time so prevalent. There was one train made one trip, and Mr. Hacker is kicking himself because he neglected to use his pass on that one occasion, the opportunity never having come again—Webster Co. Argus, Red Cloud, Nebr.

The above makes interesting reading to old timers. Mr. Hacker was at that time publisher of the Advertiser Brownville was then one of the best and largest towns in the state, and apparently had a bright future before it.

We will send the Advertiser, the weekly Lincoln State Journal, and the Iowa Homestead, all one year for only $1.50.

Disbarment Proceedings Dismissed

Ever since the charges against John S. Stull and Fred G. Hawxby were filed on March 24th, 1906, both of said parties have insisted upon a speedy trial upon the merits, and both of said attorneys have objected to further delay, and have demanded an opportunity to face all witnesses against them and to cross examine them, but on May 8th the said committee filed a motion asking to withdraw the files and dismiss the charges.

On May 7th and May 12th Judge Stull filed his written protests, duly sworn to and demanded a trial on the merits, and insisted that the committee produce their witnesses, and that the court hear the case. On May 14th Judge Raper dismissed the cases over the objection and protest of Judge Stull.

On the 12th of May Judge Stull filed the affidavits of Cal Taylor, Abe Vaughn, George Vaughn, T. S. Stevens and Mrs. Anna L. Berry. Each of the five witnesses swore positively that Cal Taylor was not advised to swear to any thing but the truth.

About May 10th, word reached Judge Davidson that the so-called ex-Catholic priest, that is the man who was exposing Catholicism in Tipton, Mo., Stella, Nebr., Humboldt, Nebr. and Tecumseh Nebr., was in Nebraska City. Judge Davidson at once came to Auburn, notified the parties who professed to want Fisher's testimony and demanded that the testimony of Fisher be at once taken, and that Stull & Hawxby have an opportunity to cross examine him.

Judge Davidson received no satisfaction and Fisher's testimony was not taken. This man Fisher on the witness stand, in the cases of the State of Nebraska against Gandy admitted his dissipated habits and his disreputable character; admitted that he had been deceiving people in pretending to expose Catholicism. A large amount of costs have been made on account of this man Fisher. Let the people watch these cases and see if any good to the people of Nemaha county comes out of this business.

A case is pending in Richardson county, Nebraska, of Mrs. Gandy against the estate of Wm C Bissel, in which about $12,000 is involved, which is claimed to be due on a promissory note. If Mrs. Gandy succeeds, the organization fighting secret societies will get little or nothing out of the Bissel estate. If Mrs. Gandy fails, the society fighting secret societies will absorb the Bissel estate.

No attention would have been paid to Fisher or his statements had it not been for the amount of money involved in the case of Mrs. Gandy against the Bissel estate. No attention has been paid to Fisher's story by Masons and other members of secret societies. The Christian people whom Fisher has fleeced and deceived naturally feel a little sore that they were so easily gulled, when in Auburn, Fisher's chief place was "Hurley's saloon," Hurley being a member of the Catholic church. The respectable members of the Catholic church appear to have no respect for Fisher; they have been much shrewder than the members of the Christian church and Methodist church whom Fisher worked so easily.

Judge S. P. Davidson, General L. W. Colby and several other prominent attorneys of the state volunteered their services in behalf of Stull & Hawxby and desired to take part in the trial.

Three weeks ago the Johnson News denounced as a base lie our "insinuation" that the editor had tried to "hold up" the legislative candidates two years ago for $25 each. The next week we gave our authority. W. M. Crichton, editor of the Auburn Republican, told us that Herb Howe told him that Bro. Stuck asked him and also Good if the support of the News was not worth $25 each. In last week's News Bro. Stuck says he "called up Mr. Howe over the telephone and he informed us that he had never said anything of the kind." Bro. Crichton says he did. Before we published the article two weeks ago we called up Bro. Crichton over the 'phone and asked him if we had his permission to use his name, reading the article we published. He told us to go ahead and publish it and he would stand by it, and he knew Howe would not care. Now it lies between Stuck and Crichton as to who quoted Howe correctly.

Brownville Briefs

Nemaha's wide-awake P. M. was in town Monday.

Earle Steuteville was here over Sunday visiting his parents.

Robt. Bucher of Nemaha was a Brownville sight seer first of the week.

Thomas Bath shipped a fine drove of cattle to Chicago from this place last week.

George Kirk of Falls City was a guest first of the week of his friend John Stroble.

Mrs. Kate Crane, who spent the past winter with her daughter in Richmond Va., has returned to her home here.

Chester Sedoras and Guy Smith have gone to Fairbury. Chester will work with a bridge crew on the Rock Island R. R. this summer.

Miss Mary Steuteville, who has been teaching at Stratton for the past two years, returned home Monday to spend the summer vacation.

On next Sunday the G. A. R. will hold memorial services at the Christian church at 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. G. W. Ayers will preach the sermon.

Mrs. Augusta Kilpatrick came down from Beatrice Monday and will be a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meitz, perhaps the rest of the week or longer.

Squire T. R. Jones, agent for the Stark Bro. Nursery has a fine carolina poplar tree which is a beauty. Mr. Jones says this is evidence that the large yellow poplar will do well in the climate of Nebraska.

William Bennett, an old timer of these parts and whose name has been quite a little celebrated the past month on account of his court troubles, both in Lincoln and Auburn, was here several days last week.

Mrs. Fred August, while visiting her daughter Fannie, at her home in Lincoln, was taken quite ill and for a long time was thought to be dangerously so. From latest report, however the lady is slowly convalescing.

Howard McLaughlin, who for a long time was night clerk at the Byers hotel at Auburn, has just returned to his home here after an extended trip in the far west, where he had gone to recuperate his somewhat failing health.

Will Smith, the popular R. F. D. carrier, last week opened up a restaurant in the room lately vacated by John W. Ritchey. Like every other undertaking of this genuine hustler, it is superb and first class in every appointment.

In a bower of roses and other flowers of delightful perfume Rev. Mr. Ayers, pastor of the M. E. church, read the burial services at the grave of the unfortunate Fred Kauffman, last Sunday evening. About three weeks ago Fred, and Barney Mason, while in a state of intoxication, (a condition not uncommon in Brownville these days), left in a boat belonging to Al Nace, to go, they knew not where, but as it turned out to an ignominious death. Barney was found soon after and his body was brought here and buried at night in Walnut Grove cemetery. Rev. Mr. Diltz pronounced a few words of warning to the living who were present at the melancholy scene. Some professed to believe that there had been a murder committed and many dark rumors were afloat which only imagination can conjure up. Sunday, however, set all stories at rest and closed the pages of a dark chapter, at least as much so as can be.

But the cause, oh! city fathers of Brownville, still exists. You say that what Mr. Ayers had to offer at the graveside Sunday had better been left out. Others who have more right to speak think that he did just the right thing and would have been pleased had he gone farther and said a great deal more on the same line. Words have little force, however, to portray the heart aches of some who were there—one in particular whose agonizing sobs long shall live in our memory.

But though it is a bitter part
From hope and all to fall
'Tis better to bear a broken heart
Than never to have loved at all.
