Dr. Smith and lady of Brownville visited Sunday with Dr. Frazier and wife.

Walter Collin and wife gave a party for the young people Friday night of last week.

Misses Florence and Pearl Culp of Shubert visited a couple of days last week with their aunt, Mrs. S. Yates. They went to Peru from Nemaha where they will attend the summer normal.

W. G. Maxwell has had his house repainted, repapered, and other improvements made.

Mrs. I. S. Nace of Brownville was the guest of Mrs. W. H. Hoover Sunday and Monday.

Elmer E. Allen drove over to Howe Friday to see how our sister village was getting along.

Born—Saturday night, May 26, 1906, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shafer, of Aspinwall precinct, a fine son.

Babe Littrell went to St. Joe last Wednesday night with hogs for Harry Hoover. He returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Reed of Sidney, Iowa, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts Saturday and Sunday.

Grandma Argabright went to Brownville Saturday with Mrs. J. W. Sapp and visited friends until Monday morning.

Misses Mary and Jessie Steuteville came down from Brownville Friday and visited some of their friends for a few hours.

Uncle Billy Rossel had new potatoes from his own garden last Friday, June 1st. These are the earliest we have heard of.

C. P. Barker, E. H. Knapp and Frank Dressler went to Auburn Saturday and took the examination for rural carrier of route No. 2.

The Nemaha bottoms southwest of town are covered with strawberries and some of our citizens are reaping a rich harvest this week.

We received a letter from Ed Weisenrider of Broken Bow a few days ago, containing a money order for a year's subscription to The Advertiser

Harry Kreglo and one of his children, living on the Missouri bottom between Nemaha and Brownville are suffering with typhoid-malaria.

Miss Marie Hoover sailed for Paris, France, Tuesday of last week. She expects to spend the summer in Europe, receiving musical instruction.

Mrs. Ben Parker and Flossie, Helen and Pauline came in from Auburn Saturday to visit their mother and grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Berger, for a few days.

Dr. W. W. Keeling and wife drove over to their farm in the southwestern part of Aspinwall precinct Sunday. They report crops looking fine in that part of the county.

Chas. Neidhart, the old reliable marble cutter of Beatrice, was in Nemaha Friday and Saturday, doing some work on a few monuments in the cemetery. Jimmy Stout of Auburn was with him.

Hon. Wm. Ernst of Johnson and a couple of gentlemen of Tecumseh were in Nemaha Monday afternoon between trains. They were on their way to Barada to look after a tract of land near there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. P. Thompson went to Shenandoah, Iowa, last Friday to visit their daughter Mrs. Henry Field. Mr. Thompson returned Monday morning and Mrs. Thompson visited until Thursday.

Next Sunday evening the Methodist Sunday school will celebrate Children's Day by giving a program entitled "Comrades of the Cross." It is interesting and will undoubtedly be well rendered.

The graphophone rage is getting to be a decided nuisance to many people. You can hear them in all parts of town especially in the business portion. They are started early in the morning and it seems at times run almost steadily until late at night. You can hear three or four going at once sometimes.

A meeting of the Nemaha City cemetery association will be held at the bank at 2 o'clock p. m. on Saturday, June 9, for the election of officers and the transaction of such business as may come before it. All lot owners and those interested are invited to be present.

J. I. DRESSLER, Sec'y.

SHOES
 We have just received a shipment of "Selz Shoes." We mention a few kinds
Men's "Reaper"

 The leather in this shoe is soft and mellow and remains so, but wears like iron.
Women's "Victoria"

 This is the best shoe on the market for the price, which is surprisingly low.
 Our Low Shoe line is complete in either leather or canvas. Call and look at them.

Miss Lulu Cooper has been elected a delegate from the Nemaha Epworth League Chapter to the district convention to be held at Adams next Wednesday and Thursday.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie W. Woodward of Kansas City was baptized at the Methodist church here by Rev. G. W. Ayers Sunday night. Her mother and Mrs. Chas. R. Stone, formerly Miss Ethel Morrison, were also baptized that evening.

At the regular meeting of Hope lodge No. 29, A. F. & A. M., held Friday night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

W. M.—W. W. Seid.
 S. W.—W. W. Sanders.
 J. W.—Alf B. Kinton.
 Sec'y—W. F. Keeling.
 Treas.—John I. Dressler.

In our account of the commencement exercises last week we failed to mention the flower boys, Stephen Gilbert and Walter Keeling. Walter was afraid he wouldn't get his share of the flowers, and occasionally encroached on Stephen's territory. The way he hustled around created considerable amusement.

Eddie Maxwell carried the mail on route 2 last Saturday, as Walter S. Maxwell and C. P. Barker both went to Auburn.

W. W. Sanders turned the post-office and printing office over to Misses May Kerker and Grace Peabody, Monday morning, and went to Omaha to attend Masonic Grand Lodge. If the paper is better and affairs in the post-office are better managed, they are to have the credit. Will F. Keeling assisted in rustling locals.

Married—At the home of F. L. Woodward, Nemaha Nebr., Sunday, June 3, 1906 at 5 o'clock p. m., by Rev. G. W. Ayers, Mr. Charles R. Stone of Chicago, Ill., and Miss Ethel Morrison.

The groom is a traveling man who is highly esteemed by those knowing him. The bride is the niece of F. L. Woodward and has a host of friends in Nemaha and vicinity.

Only the immediate relatives of the bride were in attendance. After the ceremony a fine supper was served.

The newly married couple will make their home in Chicago.

The Advertiser force extends heartiest congratulations and best wishes.
