The prohibition county convention will be held at Auburn, July 17th. The convention will be called at 2 p. m., and a large delegation is expected.

Earle Steuteville had his dog decorated in great style Friday. He had ribbons on each of the dog's feet and on its tail and small flags in its collar.

Von Farson went to Iowa last week, saying he was going to look up a job where his health would be better. A letter was received by his wife Monday. When he wrote he had gone to Missouri.

F. W. Black, the C. B. & Q. agent at Bracken, was called to Belvidere, Nebr., last Thursday by the death of his father. Fred Young, a former Brownville boy but who is operator at Beatrice, took his place for a few days.

Last Saturday night at the regular meeting of the Eastern Star lodge, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Shook of Shubert were initiated. After lodge adjourned refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and raspberries were served.

Harry Tostevin, representing the Great Western Type Foundry, gave the Advertiser office a pleasant call last Friday, and presented the editor and each of the angels with a case of rules. He was with the Omaha commercial club, and in the opinion of the angels is the finest man of the bunch.

J. W. Lindsey and daughter, Miss Eunice Lindsey, of Huntington, W. Va., and J. L. Lindsey of Kellerton, Iowa, arrived in Nemaha last Saturday on a visit to thier mother, Mrs. E. D. Lindsey, and thier brothers, Geo., Frank and William Lindsey. Miss Lindsey will probably remain with her grandmother.

The editor was invited to take dinner at the hotel de Kimmel last Sunday and of course we accepted—we always accept an invitation to eat as promptly as a Kentuckian does an invitation to drink. The dinner was certainly a fine one, and if the boarders get this kind of dinners all the time the hotel will soon have a good patronage.

Nemaha was a noisy town after the visit of the Omaha commercial club last Friday. Every boy and girl and many of the older ones had a small cow bell or a horn given by the club, and many had both, and all seemed to be trying to see how much noise they could make. Dr. Frazier and Earle Steuteville even had bells on their dogs.

The good housewives are kept busy this year putting up fruit. They do not have time to rest much after one kind is past until another ripens. Strawberries, gooseberries, cherries, currants, and now come raspberries, blackberries, dewberries, and then grapes, plums, peaches, pears and apples. And Nemaha county has an abundance of all kinds of fruit.
