The new hotel in the Minick building will serve meals on picnic day. Arrangements will be made to serve the crowd with good meals expeditiously. Try it.

F. G. Hawxby writes from Chicago that he is enjoying himself out on the lake. He also states that he will return accompanied by a life partner.—Granger.

Rev. E. B. Maxcy of Johnson visited friends in Nemaha a few hours Monday. He came in on the afternoon passenger, going to Shubert on the freight, where he is assisting Miss Ashby in a revival meeting.

The fourth quarterly meeting of the Methodist church will be held at Nemaha on Sunday and Monday, July 29 and 30. Preaching Sunday night by the presiding elder. Quarterly conference at 10 a. m. Monday.

Base Ball

Thre will be two games of base ball on picnic day, between the Nemaha and Johnson teams, the morning game called at 10:30 and the afternoon game at 3:30. Last year these teams broke even in two good games.

Everybody come to the picnic next Thursday.

Rock salt at the Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

H. R. Howe of Auburn was a Nemaha visitor Tuesday.

Rural route tablets and envelopes for sale at the postoffice.

Go to the new hotel in the Minick building for your Sunday dinner.

Next Thursday is the old settlers' picnic—provided it doesn't rain.

Gladys Taylor came up from Shubert Sunday, returning the next evening.

Mrs. Theo. Hill went down to Shubert Saturday evening, returning the next day.

Mrs. Emma Carse and Miss Avis returned from Thurman, Iowa, Monday evening.

All kinds of furniture, hardware, harness, etc., at the Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Cyrus Minick went to Syracuse Tuesday morning to go to work for his brother-in-law, A. R. Titus.

It is surprising how cool the nights get, after a hot day. We have had very few hot nights this summer.

Sewing machines, $16.75 and $22.50—guaranteed for ten years—for sale by the Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Miss Grace Peabody, who has been visiting at Stella and vicinity for nearly two weeks, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Ed L. Culver of Omaha arrived in Nemaha Saturday afternoon on a visit to her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Keeling.

The Bank of Nemaha will be closed at noon next Thursday, August 2—picnic day.
ELMER E. ALLEN, Cashier.

The republican primaries for Nemaha precinct will be held at The Advertiser office tomorrow afternoon. We trust there will be a good turn-out.

Chas. Hunt moved down from Brownville Monday. He is living in the house owned by E. E. Rumbaugh, north of Elmer Allen's.

John Webber has had an Indian working for him for several weeks. The fellow came from the Indian reservation near White Cloud, Kansas.

Presiding Elder Wright will preach at the Methodist church next Sunday night. Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered after the services.

Harry Kimmel has recently partitioned off the rear of the Minick hall, papered it, and uses it for a dining room. It makes a large, cool, well lighted room.

Hoover & Cross—F. E. Hoover and A. M. Cross—are shipping lots of peaches just now, and they are fine ones, too. They have lots of fruit of all kinds.

It is said there was a big crowd in Shubert during the carnival—or carn-evil, as some say it ought to be spelled—about as big a crowd as Nemaha has every Saturday.

J. E. Gibney of Elkhorn, Neb., was in Nemaha Saturday, coming here to see the school board, having made application for the principalship. He was engaged at $55 per month.

Mrs. Ed Elliott of Beatrice is a guest of Mrs. V. P. Peabody. She is an aunt of the Harris boys, grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Peabody, and who are making their home there.

G. W. Shiveley, proprietor of the Ideal Fruit and Stock Farm in Aspinwall precinct, had some letter heads, envelopes and tags printed at this office during the past week. He is shipping considerable fruit.

The school board in district 37—Maple Grove—are having the school house repapered, reshingled and put in good shape for school. This is one of many districts that are out of debt and have money in the treasury. A Miss Smith of Dorchester has been engaged as teacher.

The new hotel, Harry Kimmel, landlord, is now prepared to accommodate the public with meals and lodging. Everything clean and neat. First class meals in a well lighted, cool dining room. Good beds. Everything first class. The patronage of the traveling public is solicited.

Last Saturday the school board engaged as principal J. E. Gibney of Elkhorn, Nebr. He comes well recommended and has had several years' experience as a teacher.

Miss Ella Bellas of Auburn has been chosen as teacher of the intermediate department.

Mrs. C. P. Barker is agent for the "Aluminum Gem Cooker," one of the handiest household conveniences on the market. Several articles can be cooked at once in this cooker, and it is convenient in every way. If you want to make things convenient and easy for the housewife, get her one of these cookers.

Miss Dora Morton has been engaged as teacher of the Champion school at a salary of $50 per month. The Boatman district, where she has taught for four years, were very sorry to have her leave, but could not pay the salary offered by Champion. The latter district is going to have a good teacher if a liberal salary will get one, and we believe they have made a wise choice.

One of the prettiest and cutest sights we have ever witnessed was seen a few days ago. Marie Woodward and Helen Walsh, seven and six years old respectively, were playing they were grown up people. They had on long dresses, borrowed from Mrs. Walsh, probably, with big hats and veils, and came down town holding up their dresses and putting on all the style imaginable. If we had only had a kodak we could have taken a prize picture.

Bertie Hill of Shubert is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Tneo. Hill, this week.

We had a fine rain Wednesday night, which was very welcome as it was getting quite dry.

E. E. Hill and wife went to Filley Tuesday to visit friends, returning Thursday afternoon.

John M. Clark shipped forty head of fat cattle to Kansas City Wednesday evening, going with them.

John Beard and two daughters of Ravenna, Nebr., arrived in Nemaha Wednesday evening on a visit to relatives.

Cass county indorsed Sheldon for governor and Pollard for Congress. Both live in that county and are cousins. Both were allowed the privilege of choosing their delegations.

Trim up Your Trees

Parties having trees along sidewalks are requested to have same trimmed so limbs will not hang down over walks or street. By order of village trustees.

Mrs. John D. Shubert is up from Oklahoma, on a visit to her parents, E. D. Rogers and wife. She is accompanied by her two children, and Grandpa Rogers has to some extent "become as one of them."—Granger.

The German-American picnic at Auburn will undoubtedly be a good one this year if the efforts of the managers can make it such. About $700 will be expended. This is one of the most successful picnics held in the state, and is growing every year. Go to it.

The Auburn chautauqua this year will be a fine one if the program is any indication. There are no second class politicians, no mormons, but eminent men who are trying to elevate as well as entertain their audiences. The Chautauqua begins Aug 11 and closes Aug 19. Send to Dr. Tyler, the secretary, for a program, and arrange to attend as many of the sessions as possible. It will do you good.

No confetti throwing will be allowed on the picnic grounds next Thursday.
By order of managers.

Miss Merle Barker is now the possessor of a watch, something she has wanted for a long time. She earned it by selling Larkin goods and appreciates it more than she would a finer one given to her, because she got it by working for it.

Best photos in southeastern Nebr at Criley's. So. Auburn.

Did you see those dollar watches at Keeling's? They're all right.

See R. E. Bucher for the Queen incubator and brooder. The prices are right.
