

Picnic

David Burns came in from Beatrice Wednesday to attend the picnic.

Earle Gilbert had a temporary sidewalk laid in front of his store Wednesday.

Miss Cronm of Omaha is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John C. Boyd of Aspinwall precinct.

Miss Rose Seabury, who has been at Roca for some time returned home Wednesday.

Arthur Littrell, who is working on the B&M bridge, had a thumb badly mashed Wednesday and will have to lay off for a few days.

Miss Dora Banks, we learn, was married Wednesday of this week to Roy Strunk, of Humboldt. They will live on a farm near Humboldt.

The wagon bridge over the railroad track south of town has been taken out and a new one is being put in. It was needed, as the old one has been quite shaky for some time.

Auburn will have plenty of attractions next week. On Tuesday is the German-American picnic. Thursday is the congressional convention, and on Saturday night the Auburn chautauqua begins.

Chas. O. French has made so good a showing as county attorney that not a voice was heard against his renomination. He is making a fine record for a young attorney.

Chas. R. Hacker has had experience in looking after the business of the county, and as county commissioner will undoubtedly exercise care and discretion. We believe he will make a good commissioner.

Col. William Jennings Bryan is receiving all kinds of welcome and banquets in "Hold Hengland" but does not lose sight for an instant of the political outlook in the United States. The latest is his notice to a national democratic committeeman in Illinois that he got his position by fraud and must either resign or be put out.

The farewell banquet tendered Hon. Church Howe at Antwerp, upon his retirement from the position of consul general on account of having been promoted, makes Nebraska people and especially those of Nemaha county, hold up their heads and step a little prouder. It showed the esteem felt for Major Howe by the government to which he has been sent as our consul.

REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL CONVENTION

The Republican electors of the Second Senatorial and Fifth Representative districts are hereby requested to send delegates from their respective counties to meet in convention, Tecumseh, Johnson county, Nebraska, on the 20th day of August, 1906, at 12 o'clock of said day for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following offices: one senator for the second district; one representative for the fifth district and to transact such other business as may come before the convention. The counties are entitled to representation as follows: Nemaha, 13; Johnson, 10, the representation being the same as in the state convention.

G. N. TITUS, Chairman.

Deadly Serpent Bites

are as common in India as are stomach and liver disorders with us. For the latter however there is a sure remedy: Electric Bitters; the great restorative medicine, of which S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "They restored my wife to perfect health, after years of suffering with dyspepsia and a chronically torpid liver." Electric Bitters cures chills and fever, malaria, biliousness, lame back, kidney troubles and bladder disorders. Sold on guarantee by Hill Bros., druggists. Price 50c.

It was a Great Success

One of the largest crowds that ever came to Nemaha attended the picnic yesterday. Many came in the day previous and people continued to come until noon Thursday. Everybody had a good time, judging from their actions. Old friends met for the first time for years. Visiting was the order of the day.

In the forenoon there was music by the band and a musical contest between the young ladies quartet of Auburn and the Peru normal quartet. Col. Majors, president of the day, decided unanimously that the young ladies were best. In the afternoon there was an able address by ex-Gov. Lorenzo Crouse and shorter talks by Col. Majors, Judge Broady.

There were two games of base ball between the Johnson and Nemaha teams, both being won by the Nemaha boys, the one in the forenoon by a score of 12 to 2 and the one in the afternoon by a score of 4 to 1. The last game was especially good.

A little before six o'clock a rain came up which spoiled the evening for the guests.

Everything passed off pleasantly. We heard of no fighting or wrangling. The police had little to do.

The Shubert Citizen in two places insults the young men of Nemaha who patronized the carnival by calling them hobos and saying they polluted the atmosphere of Shubert by their presence. It says they were the only toughs that were in attendance. As no Nemaha boy or man was arrested during that season of moral refreshment, and as there were numerous arrests, as no Nemaha boy or man got in a fight or brawl of any kind, and there were numerous fights and brawls, we must conclude that the Citizen either wilfully lies or doesn't know what constitutes a hobo or tough. We are assured by the decent law abiding people of Shubert that they do not in any way endorse the unwarranted attack of the Citizen in his attack on our young men, nor do they uphold him in his defense of the crowd of darkies and their associates and the toughs accompanying them. But a person's tastes and inclinations can sometimes be known by his associations, and Dalby evidently likes that class of people. Judging by the Citizen they are his ideals of ladies and gentlemen—not a very good recommendation for the citizens of Shubert, by the way, to be classed with that outfit. But we know that Dalby speaks for only a small portion of that town when he approves of the actions of such an outfit.

Following the Flag

When our soldiers went to Cuba and the Philippines, health was the most important consideration. Willis T. Morgan, retired Commissary Sergeant U. S. A., of Rural Route 1, Concord, N. H., says: "I was two years in Cuba and two years in the Philippines, and being subject to colds, I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which kept me in perfect health. And now, in New Hampshire, we find it the best medicine in the world for coughs, colds, bronchial troubles and all lung diseases. Guaranteed at Hill Bros., druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. German American Picnic Tuesday, August 7

Through this medium we ask you to take a day off, August 7th, and come to the Picnic. You need the rest after the hard work of the harvest and you will feel better by coming. There will be lots of things doing and our doors will be wide open with the usual Nemaha hospitality.

Auburn Music & Jewelry Co. West of Court House, Auburn Neb.

As we have said before, Nemaha has the best people on earth. But occasionally a very few feel like they would like to have a "time," and when such feelings come over them they like to Shubert where they have saloons and carnival companies—and Dalby—but even then they never misbehave so it is noticed. But like poor dog Tray, they sometimes get blamed for being in bad company.

The new church at Prairie Union will be dedicated Sunday, August 12th. The dedicatory sermon will be preached by Rev. C. J. Pope of Grand Island. The church is entirely finished and services will be held there this coming Sunday. The cost is $3,000. The main part is 28x40 feet, with a Sunday school room 16x28. A heating and lighting plant have been installed, and circular pews for seats—Stella Press.

A. L. Lawrence should feel highly complimented over the vote he received for representative at the county convention Saturday. Although he was not a candidate, in the sense of seeking the nomination, and asked his friends not to submit his name to the convention, yet he received the largest vote of any man in the convention. His nomination was practically unanimous. Abe will make an able representative, and will truly represent his constituents.

The Shubert Citizen takes very much to heart our remarks about the Dodge Amusement Co. that held forth at the carnival and street fair there recently. We don't suppose the present of a comp would lead Bro. Dalby to such strenuous efforts in behalf of a lot of colored "ladies and gentlemen" and their associates, but he certainly has some reason for defending them. He says: During the whole week their was not a disturbance on the ground. Two of the darky women had a fight, one of the darky men slugged a visitor and we don't know how many more such occurrences there were, and yet Dalby says they were all ladies and gentlemen, not a tough in the outfit, and not a loud or boisterous word spoken on the street—"nothing going on or said but what could be witnessed and heard by the most fastidious lady or gentleman." Bro. Dalby evidently has queer ideas of what is pleasing to a fastidious lady or gentleman, and with such ideas it is not strange that he likes such an outfit of darkies, and thinks everybody else should do likewise.

Bro. Dalby also says that a lot of Nemaha hobos were the only ones that polluted the atmosphere of Shubert during the carnival. As the jail was frequently occupied by persons arrested for fighting and brawling, and not one of them from Nemaha, they evidently have a queer idea of what a disturbance is. If those men who were put in jail were behaving themselves then they have a case of damages against the authorities of Shubert.

Death From Lockjaw

never follows an injury dressed with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Its antiseptic and healing properties prevent blood poisoning. Chas. Oswald, merchant, of Rensselaersville, N. Republican Convention

The republicans met in convention at the court house in Auburn Monday afternoon and organized by electing B. H. Bailey of Brock chairman and W. S. Chrichton and W. L. Stuck secretaries.

A committee on credentials was appointed and reported every precinct represented except East Washington.

Dr. Tyler read a resolution commending Congressman Pollard for his faithful services and instructing the delegates to the congressional convention to vote for his nomination.

T. J. Majors said that in view of reports that had been published derogatory to Congressman Pollard, it was fitting that he be given an opportunity to make a statement, and on motion he was invited to address the convention which he did in an earnest speech.

Judge Jessen, who is a candidate for the congressional nomination, was also invited to make an address and gave a short talk.

Col. Majors then offered an amendment to Dr. Tyler's motion, instructing the congressional delegation to vote for Jessen. The vote on the amendment was a tie, 49 for and 49 against, but before it was announced the London precinct delegates, who had voted 3 for and 1 against, changed this vote to 3 against the amendment, and it was defeated, the vote standing 47 for to 51 against. The original motion was then adopted.

G. N. Titus then moved that in view of the fact that Ellis E. Good was a candidate for state treasurer and the only candidate for a state office from this county, that he be granted the usual courtesy extended to candidates of being allowed to select his delegation. This motion was opposed by Anderson of Johnson and defended by Titus, Majors and Maynard of Brock. The motion was carried by a vote of 54 to 44.

The convention then proceeded to nominate two candidates for the legislature. Only three men were before the convention—R. M. Gillan, C. B. Parker and A. L. Lawrence. Parker and Lawrence were nominated on the first ballot. Auburn could have made Gillan but refused to vote for him with few exceptions. Peabody had refused to be a candidate early in the day.

The convention then voted on float representative, and the vote stood 48 for J. H. Polhman and 47 for J. W. Armstrong, but before this vote was announced London precinct, which had cast 2 votes for each candidate again changed and gave 4 votes to Armstrong and he was nominated by a vote of 49 to 46. Armstrong got only one vote from the second voting precinct of Auburn and none from the first. Evidently Auburn didn't want a legislative candidate.

Chas. R. Hacker was nominated for county commissioner.

Chas. O. French was renominated by acclamation for county attorney.

Judge John B. Raper was endorsed for district judge.

After selecting delegates to the congressional, judicial and float conventions and electing a central committee the convention adjourned.

J. W. Armstrong made one of the best members of the legislature that Nemaha county has had for many years. He was recognized as a fine legislator by all his associates. We believe he will ably represent Nemaha and Johnson counties, and will always be found voting on the right side.
