Our merchants report a good picnic trade.

Rural route tablets and envelopes for sale at the postoffice.

W. H. Lemon, the ferryman of St. Deroin, gave us a pleasant call Saturday.

The Peru Normal band gave good music and plenty of it at the picnic. It is a fine band.

Though the rain last Thursday evening was bad on the picnic, it was a good thing for the corn.

John W. Ritchey started for Yuma, Colo., Tuesday evening, to visit his son, Frank Ritchey.

Tommy O'Harra came down from Brooklyn, Iowa, Thursday of last week to visit old friends.

Misses Edith and Lala Hill of Shubert have been visiting their friends in Nemaha for the past week.

Miss Flossie Waterman returned to Auburn Saturday after a few days' visit with Miss May Kerker.

The democratic and populist primaries will be held today and the county conventions at Auburn tomorrow.

Charley Scott, who belongs to the regular army, recently sailed for Alaska, where he will be stationed indefinitely.

Mrs. J. D. Rainey and her mother, Mrs. Mary J. Hoover, who have been visiting in Nemaha, returned to Auburn Saturday.

Mrs. E. S. McCandless came down from Thurman, Iowa, Thursday of last week to attend the picnic and visit her mother, Mrs. Carse.

Mrs. Scott has us send The Advertiser to her son Richard, who is a soldier in the regular army, stationed at Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

G. W. Berge wrote the picnic committee that he was unable to be here and make an address, which he regretted very much. He is a good speaker and the committee were sorry he could not be with us.

We are getting plenty of rain again.

A big crowd from Nemaha attended the German American picnic at Auburn Tuesday.

Mrs. J. M. Clark, Todd, and Daisy went to Smith County, Kan., Tuesday, to visit relatives.

Mrs. C. P. Barker has been sick with stomach trouble for several days but is getting better.

C. W. Roberts and wife went to Kansas City last Friday, visiting their son Clyde until Monday.

Mrs. Ed L. Culver returned to Omaha Saturday, after several days' visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Keeling.

Miss Minnie Owens, who has been visiting friends in Nemaha for sometime returned to her home in Wymore Saturday.

James A. Stephenson is having a kitchen and porch built on his farm house where Lee Smelser is living. Joe Bunker is doing the work.

The Park hotel, Fuller Burns, proprietor, is now ready for business, and solicits the patronage of all. Satisfaction is guaranteed. Phone 7.

A. B. Paris and Chas. H. Stanley started for Wyoming Tuesday. They go to look at the country and if they like it will probably buy land and move out there next spring.

August Quiller and Ora Thorp started for western Colorado Tuesday. Ora goes to look after his farm and August goes to look at the land. If he likes it he will possibly buy some.

The German-American picnic at Auburn was a great success. There was a big crowd of people from all parts of the county. The amusements were good. The Huster band from Omaha gave some fine music. The German-American band was also good. The speaking was probably all right, but very few heard anything that was said.

Mrs. J. H. Vanderslice went to Watson, Mo., Saturday to visit relatives.

J. H. Linn returned to Lincoln Tuesday after a week's visit in this county.

Mrs. Wm. Snelling and children went to Craig, Mo., Saturday to visit relatives.

Cyrus Minick came back from Syracuse last week and expects to remain here for awhile.

Mrs. Hiram Campbell returned to Auburn Monday after visiting a week with Dr. Kay and family.

The Auburn Chautauqua begins tomorrow night. The list of entertainers is a fine one and the chautauqua should receive a liberal patronage.

Walter S. Maxwell and wife started for the western part of the state Sunday, to look at the country with a view of locating. They went with a team.

Weldon Shiveley went to Beatrice Monday with a lot of peaches shipping them on the passenger train. He expected to go farther west soliciting orders for fruit.

Rev. J. W. Sapp, who has been attending the Christian convention at Bethany, returned the latter part of last week, and filled his appointments at Nemaha Sunday.

Nemaha now has competition in the hotel business for the first time in many years. The Park hotel and the hotel de Kimmel will both try to make patrons feel at home.

Mrs. H. E. Williams of Shubert came up to attend the old settlers picnic and remained for a visit with her mother. She was called home Sunday, as Henry and Harry, their son, were both sick.

R. M. Brooks of Meremac, Okla., who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Earle Gilbert, for several weeks, started for home Monday, being called there by the sickness of his wife.

Miss Maude Burns was visiting her sister Mrs. Frank Burgess and not Mrs. Walter Curtright, as we had it last week. The latter is no relation. We apologize. Mistakes will happen.

Geo. Crow, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. A. A. McIninch at St. Joe for several weeks, returned home Thursday afternoon of last week. Mr. McIninch came up with him and visited relatives for a few days.

The Auburn people will certainly be kept busy this week. There was the German-American picnic Tuesday, the republican congressional convention Thursday, the democratic and populist conventions Saturday, and the opening of the chautauqua Saturday evening.

Mrs. F. L. Woodward and Mrs. Geo. Yackley went to Lincoln Saturday to visit their brother, W. P. Tidrow, and attend the assembly. They returned Wednesday. The crippled son of Mr. Tidrow has been in a critical condition for several days, at the hospital.

The whole Advertiser force attended the German-American picnic at Auburn Tuesday, and had enough picnic to last awhile.

Mrs. C. W. Roberts presented us with some fine Champion peaches Wednesday for which she has our thanks.

James Hiatt, who has been visiting J. R. Russel near Leroy, Nebr., for sometime arrived in Nemaha Monday and will visit here a few days.

John M. Clark shipped a car load of cattle and one of hogs to Kansas City Monday night, going through with them. After disposing of them he went to Smith county, Kansas, and from there expected to go to the western part of this state and buy some more cattle, as he has shipped all he has been feeding.

Clyde Brown had a coat stolen from Rumbaugh's barber shop picnic day. In the pocket of the coat was a black cloth time book. If any one finds the book they will please hand to the owner or leave at the postoffice and receive a suitable reward. It is of no use to any one except the owner, but is quite valuable to him.

John H. Argabright, who is the oldest settler in the Champion or Johnny Cake Ridge neighborhood, is going to leave the farm in a few months and move to Auburn. John and his good wife have lived there for forty years, and raised a family of children who are a credit to the training received in a christian home. Two of the boys, each with a family of their own, are farming in the same neighborhood. The lessons of honor and rectitude of life taught in the old home will never be forgotten. This good family will be greatly missed in the neighborhood. Their friends hope Mr. and Mrs. Argabright will live long and spend their declining years in peace and comfort.

Best photos in southeastern Nebr at Criley's. So. Auburn.

Bicycle supplies at Keeling's. Bicycles repaired.

Letters from Elmer E. Allen to friends say they are having an enjoyable visit. They spent two days in Chicago and two at Niagara Falls, and are now in New York state, visiting an uncle of Elmer's, who is taking them over the country in an automobile. We imagine Elmer doesn't find the country very much to his liking, as he says it is all rocks and hills. He will come back with a greater love than ever for Nebraska.

Fuller Burns took charge of the Park hotel last week to manage during the picnic, but looked after it with so much satisfaction to the public and liked the business so well that he concluded to continue, so leased it Saturday night, and is now a full fledged landlord. His wife and daughters are splendid cooks and housekeepers, and under their care we predict the Park hotel will become a popular place of entertainment for the traveling public.

Did you see those dollar watches at Keeling's? They're all right.

See R. E. Bucher for the Queen incubator and brooder. The prices are right.
