

DO YOU GET UP

WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Home of Swamp-Root. Sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

This year's crops of spring and winter wheat are estimated at 700,000,000 bushels—the largest yield in the history of the United States. At the same time there will be harvested 2,680,000,000 bushels of corn. This country is bound to continue as the World's Breadbasket.—St. Louis Republic

John and Theodore Wirth, the well-known farmers living two miles west of town, had large herds of hogs which were ready for market, but a few days ago cholera broke out among them and now they are dying fast. It is thought the disease cannot be stamped out until all the hogs die.—Neb. City News.

The Epworth Assembly and the Christian state convention both passed resolutions at Lincoln last week denouncing Rosewater as a candidate for United States senator, on account of his opposition to prohibition and his connection with the fight made against the passage of the amendment. They call upon all christian people to vote against Rosewater for the office to which he aspires.

F. E. Hoover was in town Saturday with baskets of splendid peaches and a few sample bunches of an early grape which is now ready for market. Mr Hoover made deliveries of plums and other fruit again during the week. He and A. M. Cross are partners in the fruit business, and through the South-eastern Nebraska Fruit Growers' Association bought 2,500 one-fifth bushel baskets, and 100 bushel baskets. The baskets were made in Arkansas—Stella Press.

C. E. Mason and family of near Dawson, Elmer Mason and family, J. W. Neal and family, Mr and Mrs. Norman Smilie, Mrs. Mattie Hodge and son Charley took dinner together at the Old Settler's picnic at Nemaha last Thursday. A number of others from this place were also in attendance at the picnic. Mr Smilie had the pleasure of shaking hands with Samuel Stiers, the first white man married in Nemaha county. Mr. and Mrs. Stiers are both hale and hearty.—Stella Press

The congressional convention at Auburn Thursday evening of last week was devoid of interest from the fact that every county in the district except Otoe had instructed for Pollard. When the convention was called Pollard was renominated by acclamation. Judge Jessen did not allow his name to go before the convention.

H. R. Howe was reelected committeeman from Nemaha county.

Congressman Pollard was given the privilege of selecting the chairman and secretary of the committee.

There is quite a movement all over Nebraska, in spots, of course, against the street fairs and carnivals that have been debauching a good many Nebraska towns for the past two or three years. The better towns of the state are practically united in their opposition to further tolerance of the cheap and nasty doings of these alleged carnivals. They are sometimes carnivals of crime but never carnivals of anything good or pleasing. They encourage lawlessness and disregard of personal and property rights. They teach the young that mischief of all sorts is really permissible and that it is only objected to on other occasions because of foolish prejudices entertained by other people, whom they conclude have lost their sense of enjoyment. We have never seen or heard of anything profitable, even financially, coming from these carnivals and it would be hard to conjure up anything that is more corrupting to the social life of a town.—Geneva Signal.

Respectfully referred to the Shubert Citizen and the Auburn people.

Calveston's Sea wall makes life now as safe in that city as on the higher uplands. E. W. Goodloe, who resides on Dutton St., in Waco Tex., needs no sea wall for safety. He writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption the past five years and it keeps me well and safe. Before that time I had a cough which for years had been growing worse. Now it's gone." Cures chronic Coughs, LaGrippe, Croup, Whooping Cough and prevents Pneumonia. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at Hill Bro's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Rural mail carriers who have been employed in that capacity for one year previous to July 1 will be granted a 15 days' lay off during the year on full pay, the substitute carrying the mail during the time of the layoff and being paid at the rate of $50 per month. The regular carriers get $60 per month. In case the carriers have not served a year they will be granted a layoff at the rate of one and one-fourth days for each month they have served. Neither of the Nemaha carriers have served a year, and so will not get the full benefit of the law this year.

Nemaha has four stocks of general merchandise, two hardware and furniture stores, a lumber yard, drug store, bank, notion store, restaurant, book store, millinery store, harness shop, meat market, livery barn, two drays, two hotels, two barber shops, a blacksmith shop, a newspaper, three churches (only two holding regular services, however), a real estate agent, but no saloons and no lawyers. We also have numerous lodges—Masons, Odd Fellows, Eastern Stars, Rebekahs, Woodmen of the World, Highlanders, A. O. U. W., Modern Woodmen and Royal Achates.

REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL CONVENTION

The Republican electors of the Second Senatorial and Fifth Representative districts are hereby requested to send delegates from their respective counties to meet in convention, Tecumseh, Johnson county, Nebraska, on the 20th day of August, 1906, at 12 o'clock of said day for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following offices: one senator for the fifth district and to transact such other business as may come before the convention. The counties are entitled to representation as follows: Nemaha, 13; Johnson, 10, the representation being the same as in the state convention.

G. N. TITUS, Chairman.

Never before in the history of Nebraska has politics been of such vital interest to the masses as the contests now being waged in the state. The people are entitled to know the whole truth about all the men who are seeking office and about the principles that are being advocated. A paper having some personal or private interest in the outcome of such contests can rarely be relied upon to print the news from an absolutely unbiased standpoint. Has the thought occurred to you that The State Journal is the only newspaper of Nebraska whose proprietor is not an office holder or office seeker? This may be some explanation why The Journal is so especially interesting these days. Its attitude upon all absorbing topics of public interest is in behalf of the people and not for office-getting.

With three joints running all day at Nemaha picnic day, with more drunks on one street than were at Shubert during the whole month of July, with people doing business on the grounds, that were barred here and complained of to the police by Mr. Dodge, himself, what has the Advertiser to boast of now?—Shubert Citizen

If the Citizen can and will give the names of those who will testify in and secure the conviction of a person running even one joint on picnic day, so they can be handled in the courts, we will donate $25 to the editor or to either of the churches at Shubert. We are anxious to get proof if there were any joints running, and are willing to pay Mr. Dalby for his trouble in producing witnesses. But the facts are that Dalby has made himself so ridiculous by his tirades in defense of the carnival company that was at Shubert that he is trying to get his readers' attention attracted to something else. There were drunk men—far too many of them. None regret more than the managers of the picnic. But with all this, people were remarking that the Nemaha picnic was better in this respect than other picnics around. Shubert legalizes the making of drunkards, and of course should not complain at the result of their actions. Nemaha is opposed to the selling of intoxicating liquors in any way, and if the citizens whom Dalby refers to will assist us we will try and mete out punishment to the violators of the law.

No concession that we ever heard of was barred at the Shubert carnival. A committee that would stand the Dodge company would take most any old thing.

The saloon is the hatchery of all crime. When the catastrophe struck San Francisco, the city realized this, and Mayor Schmitz issued an order forbidding any person to sell give away or drink alcoholic liquors. A man caught with a bottle of liquor in his pocket was shot down, so rigidly was the order enforced. The result was that with thousands of homeless people in the city and thousands of visitors coming into the city, the arrests from April 20th to July 4th were from two to six per day. In all the turmoil and the confusion of the tens of thousands of homeless people and the influx of the thousands of visitors, perfect order prevailed and the police force according to their own statement, had nothing to do.

July 6th the saloons were reopened. The population of San Francisco meanwhile had fallen away about one-half. Nonetheless by July 6th 2,000 licenses had been applied for, with 580 more applications in the next few days.

The consequences: Since the reopening defenseless women have been assaulted and outraged in their tents. A little six-year-old girl was outraged in one of the refugee tents. Extra policemen have been asked to protect the defenseless refugee women and children and extra guards have been stationed at the Presidio camps to protect the homeless.

The first Monday morning after the reopening of the saloon in San Francisco, July 9, 1906, there were 74 victims before the police courts, as against 5 on the previous Monday; 72 on Friday, as against 2 on the previous Friday; and the second Monday 113, as against 3 or 4 the second Monday before reopening.—Central Christian Advocate.

In Self Defense

Major Hamm, editor and manager of the Constitutional, Eminence, Ky. when he was fiercely attacked, four years ago, by Piles, bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of which he says: "It cured me in ten days and no trouble since." Quickest healer of Burns, Sores, Cuts and Wounds. 25c at Hill Bro's drug store.

The woman who is planning an autumn outfit for herself or her young family will find The Designer for September a decided help; for, aside from the regular generous display of fashions there is a four-page article on Garments for School. The Millinery Lesson describes the making of an autumn hat for a miss, and a full page plate pictures the latest styles in hair dressing. Points on Dressmaking gives a lesson on the making of long coats. A dialogue in which humor and sentiment mingle is Blue and White by Van Tassel Stuphen, and is suitable for presentation by amateur actors. Grace Aline Luther gives a handsome design for a lace front to a princess dress, and Amy Moran, begins a valuable series of lessons in Irish lace. The foregoing is but a part of the good things The Designer for September will contain, none of the regular departments being omitted, and many features added which cannot be enumerated in this limited space.

The End of the World of troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes: "Two years ago Kidney trouble caused me great suffering, which I would never have survived had I not taken Electric Bitters. They also cured me of General Debility." Sure cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints, Blood diseases, Headache, Dizziness, and Weakness or bodily decline. Price 50c. Guaranteed by Hill Bro's drug store.
